Enfleshing Theology Michele Saracino,Robert J. Rivera,2018-10-31 Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland s theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland s lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women s bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today s world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland s focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland s contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland s development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland s work is at the forefront of that multi layered polyvalent intersectional theological work

For Such a Time as This Risher, Sharon,Emmons, Sherri Wood ,2019-06-11 The instant her phone rang Reverend Sharon Risher sensed something was horribly wrong Something had happened at Emanuel AME Church the church of her youth in Charleston South Carolina and she knew her mother was likely in the church at Bible study Even before she heard the news her chaplain s instinct told her the awful truth her mother was dead along with two cousins What she couldn t imagine was that they had been murdered by a white supremacist Plunged into the depths of mourning and anger and shock Sharon could have wallowed in the pain Instead she chose the path of forgiveness and hope eventually forgiving the convicted killer for his crime In this powerful memoir of faith family and loss Sharon begins the story with her mother Ethel Lee Lance seeking refuge in the church from poverty and scorn and raising her family despite unfathomable violence that rattled Sharon to her core years later how Sharon overcame her own struggles and answered the call to ministry and how in the loss of her dear mother Sharon has become a nationally known speaker as she shares her raw riveting story of losing loved ones to gun violence and racism Sharon s story is a story of transformation How an anonymous hospital chaplain was thrust into the national spotlight joining survivors of other gun related horrors as reluctant speakers for a heartbroken social justice movement As she recounts her grief and the struggle to forgive the killer Risher learns to trust God s timing and lean on God s loving presence to guide her steps Where her faith journey leads her is surprising and inspiring as she finds a renewed purpose to her life in the company of other survivors Risher has been interviewed by Time Magazine Marie Claire Essence Guardian BCC Radio CNN and other media sources She regularly shares her story on American college campuses and racial reconciliation events To Forgive a Killer her essay as told to Abigail Pesta published in Notre Dame Magazine won the 2018 Front Page Award for Essay published in a Magazine awarded by the Newswomen s Club of New York

White Kids Margaret A. Hagerman, 2020-02-01 Winner 2019 William J Goode Book Award given by the Family Section of the American Sociological Association Finalist 2019 C Wright Mills Award given by the Society for the Study of Social Problems Riveting stories of how affluent white children learn about race American kids are living in a world of ongoing public debates about race daily displays of racial injustice and for some an increased awareness surrounding diversity and inclusion In this heated context sociologist Margaret A Hagerman zeroes in on affluent white kids to observe how they make sense of privilege unequal educational opportunities and police violence In fascinating detail Hagerman considers the role that they and their families play in the reproduction of racism and racial inequality in America White Kids based on two years of research involving in depth interviews with white kids and their families is a clear eyed and sometimes shocking account of how white kids learn about race In doing so this book explores questions such as How do white kids learn about race when they grow up in families that do not talk openly about race or acknowledge its impact and What about children growing up in families with parents who consider themselves to be anti racist Featuring the actual voices of young affluent white kids and what they think about race racism inequality and privilege White Kids illuminates how white racial socialization is much more dynamic complex and varied than previously recognized It is a process that stretches beyond white parents explicit conversations with their white children and includes not only the choices parents make about neighborhoods schools peer groups extracurricular activities and media but also the choices made by the kids themselves By interviewing kids who are growing up in different racial contexts from racially segregated to meaningfully integrated and from politically progressive to conservative this important book documents key differences in the outcomes of white racial socialization across families And by observing families in their everyday lives this book explores the extent to which white families even those with anti racist intentions reproduce and reinforce the forms of inequality they say they reject

Newman,2016-01-08 In Sociology Exploring the Architecture of Everyday Life Eleventh Edition David M Newman continues to show students how to see the unfamiliar in the familiar to step back and see organization and predictability in their take for granted personal experiences With his approachable writing style and lively personal anecdotes the author s goal since the first edition has been the same to write a textbook that reads like a real book Newman uses the metaphors of architecture and construction to help students understand that society is not something that exists out there independently of them it is a human creation that is planned formed maintained or altered by individuals Using vivid prose current examples and fresh data this text presents a unique and thought provoking overview of how society is constructed and experienced Instead of surveying every subfield in sociology the more streamlined coverage focuses on the individual and society the construction of self and society and social inequality in the context of social structures Hands Up, Don't Shoot Jennifer E Cobbina,2020-05-12 Hands Up Don t Shoot is a current on the ground assessment of the powerful protestor driven movement around race justice and policing in America Following the high profile deaths of eighteen year old Michael Brown in Ferguson Missouri and twenty five year old Freddie Gray in Baltimore Maryland both cities erupted in protest over the unjustified homicides of unarmed black males at the hands of police officers These local tragedies and the protests surrounding them assumed national significance igniting fierce debate about the fairness and efficacy of the American criminal justice system Yet outside the gaze of mainstream attention how do local residents and protestors in Ferguson and Baltimore understand their own experiences with race place and policing In Hands Up Don t Shoot Jennifer E Cobbina draws on in depth interviews with nearly two hundred residents of Ferguson and Baltimore conducted within two months of the deaths of Brown and Gray She examines how protestors in both cities understood their experiences with the police how those experiences influenced their perceptions of policing what galvanized Black Lives Matter as a social movement and how policing tactics during demonstrations influenced subsequent mobilization decisions among protesters Ultimately she humanizes people s deep and abiding anger underscoring how a movement emerged to denounce both racial biases by police and the broader economic and social system that has stacked the deck against young black civilians In her tightly focused and morally important book Cobbina is careful to establish historical and cultural context for the deep seated distrust so many African Americans feel toward law enforcement in a way that makes the book accessible to a wide readership NPR Books The Passion of Charles Moore Jeff Hood,2019-05-24 Everything was quiet Small towns are known to move a little slower Grand Saline Texas was no different In the midst of such a pace United Methodist pastor Rev Charles Moore got out of his car at Dollar General doused his body with gasoline and torched himself In time it became apparent that Charles died due to a deep concern about issues of social justice The notes are very explicit In the midst of great evil Charles knew that resurrection is not possible without death The hope of resurrection pushed him on How far will we let such hope push us The world is on fire and Charles stands ready to guide us through the flames Nothing is quiet
