African Development Indicators 2004 African Development Indicators 2004:

African Development Indicators 2004 Stationery Office, The, 2004 African Development Indicators 2004 , 2004-01-01

This volume contains more than 500 economic social and environmental data indicators from a wide variety of sources for 53 African countries and five regional country groups in order to present a broad picture of development across the continent. The data covers the period 1980-2002 and is grouped into 16 chapters which cover selected background data, national accounts, prices and exchange rates, money and banking, external sector issues, external debt and related flows, government finance, agriculture, power, communications and transportation, privatisation of public enterprises, labour force and employment, aid flows, social indicators, environmental indicators, the Heavily Indebted Poor Countries (HIPC) initiative and household welfare.

African Development Indicators 2006 World Bank Publications, World Bank. Development Data Group, 2006-01-01. Please note that the eBook version of this title does not include access to the CD ROM contained in the print version. African Development Indicators 2006 provides the most detailed collection of data on Africa available in one volume. It contains about 450 macroeconomic, sectoral and social indicators covering 53 African countries. Designed to provide all those interested in Africa with a focused and convenient set of data to monitor development programs and aid flows in the region, this is an invaluable reference tool for analysts and policymakers who want a better understanding of the economic and social developments occurring in Africa.

Africa Development Indicators 2007 World Bank, 2008. The world's demand for food is expected to double within the next 50 years while the natural resources that sustain agriculture will become increasingly scarce, degraded and vulnerable to the effects of climate change. In many poor countries, agriculture accounts for at least 40 percent of GDP and 80 percent of employment. At the same time, about 70 percent of the world's poor live in rural areas and most depend on agriculture for their livelihoods. World Development Report 2008 seeks to assess where, when and how agriculture can be an effective instrument for economic development, especially development that favors the poor. It examines several broad questions: How has agriculture changed in developing countries in the past 20 years? What are the important new challenges and opportunities for agriculture? Which new sources of agricultural growth can be captured cost effectively, in particular in poor countries with large agricultural sectors as in Africa? How can agricultural growth be made more effective for poverty reduction? How can governments facilitate the transition of large populations out of agriculture without simply transferring the burden of rural poverty to urban areas? How can the natural resource endowment for agriculture be protected? How can agriculture's negative environmental effects be contained? This year's report marks the 30th year the World Bank has been publishing the World Development Report.

Africa Development Indicators World Bank, 2006. reviews the performance of countries and donors during 2005 and explores the challenges involved in meeting the Millennium Development Goals by 2015 ii data tables with selected indicators for the years from 1980 to 2004 covering a range of issues including national accounts private sector development trade infrastructure including transportation energy ICT water and sanitation education health including malarial and HIV AIDS rates agriculture and rural development migration and population and household survey data and iii a World Bank Africa Database 2006 CD ROM with 1 200 macroeconomic sectoral and human development indicators with time series of many going back to 1965 together with country tables and tools for query display and Excel based executive summary briefings Attacking Africa's Poverty M. Louise Fox, Robert Liebenthal, 2006 By all measures poverty in Africa as a whole has increased and deepened But in fact Africa contains a number of undocumented success stories of poverty reduction This book presents case studies of thirteen of these success stories giving grounds for some real hope and providing useful learning for all policymakers governments businesses service providers NGOs and donors Challenges of African Growth B. J. Ndulu, 2007 Poverty in Africa is largely the outcome of slow growth With the region hosting 10 percent of the world's population but a staggering 30 percent of the world's poor the challenges it faces are enormous but NOT insurmountable The message of this book is clear poverty eradicating development in Africa is possible In fact there are indications that Africa is at a turning point and there is growing momentum among front runner economies in the region toward higher and sustained growth This study challenges African countries and their development partners to consolidate and continue this momentum and to exploit the advantages of the continent as a latecomer particularly in innovation and in drawing lessons from successful export led growth experiences in Asia and Latin America Challenges of African Growth identifies opportunities constraints and strategic choices that African countries face in their quest for achieving the growth necessary for poverty alleviation More important the study provides a broad menu of strategic options for ensuring not only that countries embark on a growth path but also that the growth is shared and sustainable The critical areas for action rest on four pillars the investment climate infrastructure innovation for increasing productivity and competitiveness and institutional capacity African Development Report 2005 The African Development Bank, 2005-12-22 The African Development Report 2005 is the seventeenth annual survey of economic and social progress in Africa The Report provides comprehensive analysis of the state of the African economy examining development policy issues affecting the economic prospects of the continent The African Development Bank Group is a regional multilateral development finance institution the members of which are all of the 53 countries in Africa and 25 countries from Asia the Middle East Europe North and South America The purpose of the Bank is to further the economic development and social progress of African countries individually and collectively To this end the Bank promotes the investment of public and private capital for development primarily by providing loans and grants for projects and programs that contribute to poverty reduction and broad based sustainable development in Africa The non concessional operations of the Bank are financed from its ordinary capital resources In addition the Bank s soft window affiliates the African Development Fund and the Nigeria Trust Fund provide concessional financing to low income countries that are not able to sustain loans on market terms

Improving Health, Nutrition, and Population Outcomes in Sub-Saharan Africa ,2005 Annotation This book takes an in depth look at health nutrition and population challenges faced by Sub Sharan Africa particularly how disease malnutrition and high fertility affect poverty reduction

The Deadly Ideas of Neoliberalism Rick Rowden,2013-07-04 The Deadly Ideas of Neoliberalism explores the history of and current collision between two of the major global phenomena that have characterized the last 30 years the spread of HIV AIDS and other diseases of poverty and the ascendancy of neoliberal economic ideas The book explains not only how IMF policies of restrictive spending have exacerbated public health problems in developing countries in particular the HIV AIDS crisis but also how such issues cannot be resolved under these economic policies It also suggests how mounting global frustration about this inability to adequately address HIV AIDS will ultimately lead to challenges to the dominant neoliberal ideas as other more effective economic ideas for increasing public spending are sought In stark powerful terms Rowden offers a unique and in depth critique of development economics the political economy dynamics of global foreign aid and health institutions and how these seemingly abstract factors play out in the real world from the highest levels of global institutions to African finance and health ministries to rural health outposts in the countryside of developing nations and back again

Why Governments Go Wrong Charles Bingman,2006-09 Every day the newspapers and TV detail new government pathologies stolen elections violence against citizens official murders destruction of villages and homes corrupt police and public officials and billions of dollars simply stolen for the personal gain of some ruling elite People know that governments are necessary and important but they simply do not understand why they turn out to be dangerous vicious incompetent and corrupt This book can give people valuable insights about how and why governments go wrong It diagnoses political economic social and managerial perverse and destructive practices provides frameworks for understanding why they come about and offers some solutions to make governments more honest and responsive to public need

Growth and Institutions in African Development Augustin K. Fosu,2015-03-24 Recent years have seen a sustained research effort exploring the African development experience The extant literature has offered a large set of explanations as to why the African development record has lagged behind that of other regions of the developing world This new volume brings international contributors together to focus on the role of growth and institutions First it provides brief evidence on the growth and institutional records as well as on development outcomes during the post independence period Second it targets certain growth determinants including industrial embeddedness innovation exchange rate regimes and environmental quality Third it sheds light on the dynamics and distribution of growth and on growth enhancing sectors of the economy Finally it investigates several issues of institutional development as well as institutions generating development outcomes Though focused on these two key areas the coverage strives to achieve a comprehensive analysis of how Africa s development may have been enhanced or undermined and to offer lessons for the future This volume is essential reading for all scholars of development economics and development studies

Natural Resource Investment and Africa's Development Francis N. Botchway, 2011-01-01 This book makes a significant contribution to the literature on natural resource law and governance by engaging specifically with the issues arising in the African region It covers a wide spectrum of issues that are key to the sustainable use of natural resources in the region thus making it an important resource for anyone interested in natural resource governance and economic development in the African region Philippe Cullet University of London UK This well researched book covers a wide spectrum of important issues that are central to investment in natural resources and ultimately economic development of Africa Francis Botchway and the expert contributors analyse the relationships between good governance and resource management as well as the existing commercial and financial agreements The environmental implication of resource exploitation and the international dimensions of the industry are also explored in this insightful study Each comprehensive and concise contribution highlights the importance of transparency and equity in investment and management of natural resources Natural Resource Investment and Africa s Development is essential material for scholars and students of development environmental law international economic law and dispute resolution as well as any international investor in natural resources

Eastern and Western Ideas for African Growth Kenichi Ohno, Izumi Ohno, 2013-05-29 The West and the East approach economic development differently The Europeans and Americans stress free and fair business climate promoting private activities generally without picking winners and improving governance East Asia is interested in achieving concrete results and projects rather than formal correctness prioritizing a few sectors for industrialization and eventual graduation from aid The West mostly shapes shifting strategies of the international donor community while the East has in reality made remarkable progress in industrial catch up The two approaches cannot be merged easily but they can be used in proper combination to realize growth and economic transformation This book proposes more dialogue and complementarity between the two in the development effort of Africa and other regions In this collected volume contributed by experts and practitioners from both East and West the need to introduce Eastern ideas to the global development strategy is emphasized Analysis of British and other Western donor policies is given while Japanese Korean and other Asian approaches are also explained with concrete examples The concept of governance for growth is presented and the impact of rising China on development studies is contemplated The practices of industrial policy dialogues and actions assisted by East Asian experts are reported from Tunisia Zambia Ethiopia Rwanda and others The book should be applicable to all donors institutions NGOs and business enterprises engaged in development cooperation

Evolution of Early Earth's Atmosphere, Hydrosphere, and Biosphere Stephen E. Kesler, Hiroshi Ohmoto, 2006-01-01 The history of Earth's early atmosphere hydrosphere and biosphere from Hadean through Proterozoic time is one of geology's enduring puzzles Ore deposits provide important insights into this history because they contain elements and minerals that are highly sensitive to the geochemical environment in which they form Just what these minerals tell us remains a matter of considerable debate however When and how did life develop an oxygen rich atmosphere form and sulfate dominate the ocean This volume contains reports on these questions from both sides of the aisle for iron and manganese formations uranium paleoplacers and hydrothermal deposits and exhalative sulfides and oxides Publisher's website
