A select Bibliography of South African history Christoffel Frederik Jakobus Muller, Floris Albertus Van Jaarsveld, Theo van Wijk, 1966    A Select Bibliography of South African History , 1966    A Select Bibliography of South African History Christoffel Frederik Jakobus Muller, Floris Albertus Van Jaarsveld, Theo Van Wijk, 1974    Supplement to a Select Bibliography of South African History. A Guide for Historical Research. Ed. by C.F.J. Muller, F.A. van Jaarsveld, Th. van Wijk, 1974    Supplement to A Select Bibliography of South African History C. F. J. Muller, 1974    A Selected Bibliography of South African History C. F. J. Muller, Floris Albertus Van Jaarsveld, Theo Van Wijk, 1966    A Select Bibliography, Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe, Latin America American Universities Field Staff, 1973    South African History and Historians C. F. J. Muller, 1979 This is the standard guide to South African historical literature compiled by four prominent historians and listing more than 4500 items There are also several references to Namibia mainly in section 18 South Africa in Southern Africa A detailed subject index makes the bibliography easy to consult but there are no annotations Eriksen Moorsom 1989

A Social History of the University Presses in Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth Le Roux, 2015-10-14 In A History of the University Presses in Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth le Roux examines scholarly publishing history academic freedom and knowledge production during the apartheid era Using archival materials comprehensive bibliographies and political sociology theory this work analyses the origins publishing lists and philosophies of the university presses The university presses are often associated with anti apartheid publishing and the promotion of academic freedom but this work reveals both greater complicity and complexity Elizabeth le Roux demonstrates that the university presses cannot be considered oppositional because they did not resist censorship and because they operated within the constraints of the higher education system but their publishing strategies became more liberal over time    A World Bibliography of Bibliographies,

1964-1974 Alice F. Toomey, 1977 Partially annotated bibliography of bibliographies published throughout the world in the period 1964 to 1974    American-South African Relations, 1784-1980 C. Tsehloane Keto, 1985    A Select

Bibliography: Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe, Latin American American Universities Field Staff, 1973    The Boer War Thomas Pakenham, 2015-09-24 Featuring previously unpublished sources this enjoyable as well as massively impressive bestseller is a definitive account of the Boer War Financial Times The war declared by the Boers on 11 October 1899 gave the British as Kipling said no end of a lesson It proved to be the longest the costliest the bloodiest and the most humiliating campaign that Britain fought between 1815 and 1914 Thomas Pakenham's narrative is based on first hand and largely unpublished sources ranging from the private papers of the leading protagonists to the recollections of survivors from both sides Mammoth in scope and scholarship as vivid fast moving and breathtakingly compelling as the finest fiction The Boer War is the definitive account of this extraordinary conflict a war precipitated by greed and marked by almost inconceivable blundering and brutalities and whose shattering repercussions can be felt to this very day Not only a magnum opus it is a conclusive work Enjoyable as well as massively impressive Financial Times This is a wonderful book brilliantly written the reader turns each page with increasing fascination and admiration A J P Taylor      How to Find Out About Economics S. A. J. Parsons, 2014-05-17 How to Find Out About Economics focuses on information sources related to economics including books periodicals government publications and national and international organizations The sources are arranged according to the Dewey Decimal Classification used by many libraries This book is comprised of 17 chapters and begins with an overview of modern economics and guides to careers in economics The following chapters focus on sources of employment registers and careers advice in economics career and vocational guidance in the United States and career patterns for economists The discussion then turns to two categories of information relating to economics bibliographical sources such as books periodicals abstracts and similar printed documents and non bibliographical sources such as organizations and societies formed for example by economists or persons having an interest in economics The book also considers libraries and their functions guides to library resources sources of education for careers in economics and sources of economic history business history and biography This monograph will be a useful resource for students and others interested in embarking on a career in economics      Bibliographies for African Studies, 1970-1975, 1977 Annotated bibliography of bibliographies and similar publications concerning Africa      Foreign Acquisitions Newsletter, 1975      Sources in British Political History, 1900-1951 C. Cook, P. Jones, J. Sinclair, Jeffrey Weeks, 2015-12-30 From 1970 to 1977 a major project to uncover source material for students of contemporary British history and politics was undertaken at the British Library of Political and Economic Science Financed by the Social Science Research Council and under the direction of Dr Chris Cook this project has attempted a unique and systematic operation to locate and then to make readily available those archives that provide the indispensable source material for the contemporary historian This volume the fifth in the series provides a guide to the papers of propagandists who were influential in British public life Included in this volume are the papers of such persons as newspaper editors leading economists social reformers socialist thinkers trade unionists industrialists and a variety of theologians and philanthropists In all this volume not only completes the findings of the project but opens up the archive sources of a hitherto neglected area of research into contemporary social and political history      Bibliographies for African Studies, 1970-1986 Yvette Scheven, 1988      History of the Church in South Africa J. W. Hofmeyr, J. A. Millard, 1990

The Boer War Fred R. van Hartesveldt, 2000-05-30 One hundred years after the Boer War the British continue to debate what went wrong while the war has significant nationalist overtones in today's South Africa This book examines changes in interpretations of the war and provides a bibliography of major sources on the Boer War now sometimes called the South African War The bibliography focuses on the military history but also includes some historical accounts of the political debate The first part of the book provides an extended historiographical essay while part two provides an annotated bibliography of the titles discussed in part one Historiographical questions concerning the Boer War are numerous Discussions of military operations focus on the early use of modern weaponry and the effect of guerrilla tactics on a traditional force while other historians debate the question of British military leadership and organization Questions also revolve around British imperialism and the scramble for Africa Frequently called the second war for freedom by South African authors the war was the reason that South Africa unlike other British colonies gained independence without majority rule This makes the war of continuing relevance to the turmoil in South Africa the collapse of the minority government and the continuing problems of the current government This book will provide a useful tool for those wishing to research the war
