Hong Kong's Tortuous Democratization Ming Sing, 2004-08-02 This book raises interesting questions about the process of democratization in Hong Kong It asks why democracy has been so long delayed when Hong Kong's level of socio economic development has become so high It relates democratization in Hong Kong to wider studies of the democratization process elsewhere and it supplements the received wisdom that democracy was delayed because of colonial rule and by the opposition of China with new thinking for example that its quasi bureaucratic authoritarian political structure vested power in bureaucrats who refused to have top down democratization a politically weak civil society and a non participant political culture that crippled bottom up democratization plus the division between pro democratic civil society and political society

World Is Awry R. Kevin Lacey, 2021-12-01 Free thinking poet grammarian social critic and satirist Ab al Ma'arr 973 1057 CE remains one of the more celebrated and intriguing personalities in the history of Arab Islamic civilization Although the controversies surrounding his skepticism cynicism and anticlericalism have never been completely resolved his more disquieting writings are commonly available in the Arab world cited in standard histories of Arabic literature and the subject of scholarly studies Al Ma'arr is universally recognized as a giant among the litterateurs of Islam deservedly famous for the role that he played in the development of Arabic verse as a more serious vehicle of religious political thought and social criticism The centrality attributed to al Ma'arr as innovator has been linked to a strain of inquiry that has been particularly paramount to Westerners To what extent did al Ma'arr and other unconventional thinkers stray from the course of mainstream Islamic thought In this book R Kevin Lacey places al Ma'arr within the broader context of Arab Islamic political and intellectual history up to the mid eleventh century and identifies the coherencies and incoherencies within his overall thought in an effort to determine the extent to which he deviated from his inherited faith Al Ma'arr and his like were hardly representative and their imprint on their co religionists may be questionable but they must be taken into consideration in order to do full justice to the intellectual history of Islam Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Ebony, 2005-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest
