Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1898 Magic and the Dignity of Man Brian P. Copenhaver,2019-11-19 This book is nothing less than the definitive study of a text long considered central to understanding the Renaissance and its place in Western culture James Hankins Harvard University Pico della Mirandola died in 1494 at the age of thirty one During his brief and extraordinary life he invented Christian Kabbalah in a book that was banned by the Catholic Church after he offered to debate his ideas on religion and philosophy with anyone who challenged him Today he is best known for a short speech the Oration on the Dignity of Man written in 1486 but never delivered Sometimes called a Manifesto of the Renaissance this text has been regarded as the foundation of humanism and a triumph of secular rationality over medieval mysticism Brian Copenhaver upends our understanding of Pico s masterwork by re examining this key document of modernity An eminent historian of philosophy Copenhaver shows that the Oration is not about human dignity In fact Pico never wrote an Oration on the Dignity of Man and never heard of that title Instead he promoted ascetic mysticism insisting that Christians need help from Jews to find the path to heaven a journey whose final stages are magic and Kabbalah Through a rigorous philological reading of this much studied text Copenhaver transforms the history of the idea of dignity and reveals how Pico came to be misunderstood over the course of five centuries Magic and the Dignity of Man is a seismic shift in the study of one of the most remarkable thinkers of the Renaissance Old England's Worthies Henry Brougham Baron Brougham and Vaux,1862 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1898 The Works of John Webster John Webster,1995 Second volume of plays in this edition of the works of John Webster The Age of Faith Will Durant,2011-06-07 The Story of Civilization Volume IV A history of medieval civilization Christian Islamic and Judaic from Constantine to Dante A D 325 1300 This is the fourth volume of the classic Pulitzer Prize winning series Historia and Fabula Peter G. Bietenholz,1994 Examining a variety of texts ranging from the Ancient Near East to the nineteenth century this book deals with the inevitable presence of both fact and fiction in historical thought and investigates when where and to what degree they were distinguished

The Dictionary Historical and Critical of Mr. Peter Bayle Pierre Bayle,1738 The Copernican Question Robert Westman,2020-04-21 In 1543 Nicolaus Copernicus publicly defended his hypothesis that the earth is a planet and the sun a body resting near the center of a finite universe But why did Copernicus make this bold proposal And why did it matter The Copernican Question reframes this pivotal moment in the history of science centering the story on a conflict over the credibility of astrology that erupted in Italy just as Copernicus arrived in 1496 Copernicus engendered enormous resistance when he sought to protect astrology by reconstituting its astronomical foundations Robert S Westman shows that efforts to answer the astrological skeptics became a crucial unifying theme of the early modern scientific movement His interpretation of this long sixteenth century from the 1490s to the 1610s offers a new framework for understanding the great transformations in natural philosophy in the century that followed Borderland William Thomas Stead,1893
