Vermeer and the Invention of Seeing Bryan Jay Wolf, 2001-12 The result is a Vermeer we have not seen before a painter whose serene spaces and calm subjects incorporate within themselves however obliquely the world's troubles Vermeer abandons what his predecessors had labored so carefully to achieve legible spaces a world of moral clarity defined by the pressure of a hand against a table or the scatter of light across a bare wall Instead Vermeer complicated Dutch domestic art and invented what has puzzled and captivated his admirers ever since the odd daubs of white pigment dancing across the plane of the canvas patches of blurred surface contradicting the painting's illusionism without explanation and the querulous silence that endows his women with secrets they dare not reveal Restorative Christ Geoff Broughton, 2015-02-26 Erik Erikson best known for his life cycle theory and concept of the identity crisis proposed that we are comprised of a number of selves In several earlier books including At Home in the World Donald Capps has suggested that the emotional separation of young children especially boys from their mothers results in the development of a melancholy self In this book Capps employs Erikson's assignment of an inherent strength to each stage of the life cycle and proposes that the life enhancing strengths of the childhood years hope will purpose and competence are central to the development of a resourceful self and that this self counters the life diminishing qualities of the melancholy self Focusing on Erikson's own writings Capps identifies the four primordial resources that Erikson associates with childhood humor play dreams and hope and shows how these resources assist children in confronting life's difficulties and challenges Capps further suggests that the resourceful self that develops in childhood is central to Jesus' own vision of what we as adults may become if

Teeuw, 2013-04-17 In this book I have aimed at completeness in the sense that all publications known to me which are wholly or partly devoted to Malay and Bahasa Indonesia B I or are important for the study of these languages have been included Popular publications in non professional periodicals have been included only exceptionally All the publications mentioned in the text are incorporated in the Bibliography p 91 157 The countless articles in four post war semi professional periodicals in 1 alaya and Indonesia Dewan Bahasa Pembina Bahasa Indonesia 11 1 edan Bahasa Bahasa dan Budaja are not mentioned separately in the Bibliography but sections 33 to 36 contain a survey as complete and systematic as possible of the contents of these periodicals in so far as they pertain to the Malay language nor have I discussed in the text or incorporated in the Bibliography several hundreds of titles of practical textbooks or school books of Malay or B I which are of no importance to the scientific study of these language These titles have been entered in a separate Appendix p 158 171 The fact that completeness was aimed at certainly does not mean that it has been achieved Especially various recent writings from Indonesia and Malaya may have escaped my attention Experience has also proved that publications on Malay sometimes appear in the most unexpected places The qualification above publications devoted to or impor tant for the study of Malay and B I has been taken in a wide sense Masterworks of American Impressionism William H. Gerdts, 1990 Impressionism the interpretation of nature through color and light was the most powerful influence on American painters until after World War II William H Gerdts offers here an overview of the movement followed by 66 superb full page colorplates each accompanied by an informative commentary He begins with Mary Cassatt and moves to John Singer Sargent Discussed next are the artists who worked in Giverny France under the influence of Money Theodore Robinson John Leslie Breck and Dawson Dawson Watson Gerdts then considers Childe Hassam Julian Alden Weir William Merritt Chase and John Twachtman as well as various groups such as the Old Lyme Connecticut art colony the Society of Ozark Painters and artists working on the West Coast He concludes with the second generation of Americans in Giverny Frederick Frieseke and Richard Miller Form publisher s description The Burlington Magazine for Connoisseurs ,1910 Vermeer und die Schärfung
