Anime from Akira to Howl's Moving Castle Susan Jolliffe Napier, 2005 Anime from Akira to Howl's Moving Castle Susan J. Napier, 2016-03-29 Updated and expanded edition of Susan Napier's cult classic in depth sophisticated look at Japanese animation Anime from Akira to Princess Mononoke S. Napier, 2003-05-02 With the popularity of Pokemon still far from waning Japanese animation known as anime to its fans has a firm hold on American pop culture However anime is much more than children's cartoons It runs the gamut from historical epics to sci fi sexual thrillers Often dismissed as fanciful entertainment anime is actually quite adept at portraying important social and cultural issues like alienation gender inequality and teenage angst This book investigates the ways that anime presents these issues in an in depth and sophisticated manner uncovering the identity conflicts fears over rapid technological advancement and other key themes present in much of Japanese animation Rape in Art Cinema Dominique Russell, 2011-11-03 Art cinema has always had an aura of the erotic with the term being at times a euphemism for European films that were more explicit than their American counterparts This focus on sexuality whether buried or explicit has meant a recurrence of the theme of rape nearly as ubiquitous as in mainstream film This anthology explores the representation of rape in art cinema Its aim is to highlight the prevalence and multiple functions of rape in this prestigious mode of filmmaking as well as to question the meaning of its ubiquity and versatility Rape in Art Cinema takes an interdisciplinary approach bringing together recognized figures such as historian Joanna Burke philosopher Ann J Cahill and film scholars Martin Barker Tanya Horeck and Scott Mackenzie alongside emerging voices It is international in scope with contributors from Canada the U S and Britain coming together to investigate the representation of rape in some of cinema's most cherished films Film, Architecture and Spatial Imagination Renée Tobe, 2016-08-25 Films use architecture as visual shorthand to tell viewers everything they need to know about the characters in a short amount of time Illustrated by a diverse range of films from different eras and cultures this book investigates the reciprocity between film and architecture Using a phenomenological approach it describes how we the viewers can learn how to read architecture and design in film in order to see the many inherent messages Architecture's representational capacity contributes to the plausibility or reality possible in film The book provides an ontological understanding that clarifies and stabilizes the reciprocity of the actual world and a filmic world of illusion and human imagination thereby shedding light on both film and architecture The Palgrave Handbook of Utopian and Dystopian Literatures Peter Marks, Jennifer A. Wagner-Lawlor, Fátima Vieira, 2022-03-15 The Palgrave Handbook of Utopian and Dystopian Literatures celebrates a literary genre already over 500 years old Specially commissioned essays from established and emerging international scholars reflect the vibrancy of utopian vision and its resiliency as idea genre and critical mode Covering politics environment geography body and mind and social organization the volume surveys current research and maps new areas of study The chapters include investigations of anarchism biopolitics and postcolonialism and study film art
