Walter, 2001 A call to action for libraries serving children Honouring the accomplishments of children's services pioneers of the past Virginia Walter evaluates the current situation and envisions futures where children technology and libraries intersect Making the Match Teri S. Lesesne, 2003 Explains how teachers and librarians can steer students to the literature they love by focusing on three key areas knowing the readers knowing the books and knowing the strategies to motivate students to read Women Characters in Baseball Literature Kathleen Sullivan, 2005-05-25 Since the early 20th century American writers have both recorded and fictionalized the real life activities of great athletes as well as created original characters for sports stories How have women fared in this literature Women Characters in Baseball Literature is the first comprehensive evaluation of the women characters of baseball literature including women's crucial roles on and off the field of play Applying several feminist theories and examining the works in the context of both myth and psychology the author discusses baseball fiction written by both men and women Among the topics discussed are the literary implications of motherhood how patterns of behavior in women characters often recall Greek goddesses and how women characters and the feminist imagination enrich the literature of this apparently masculinized sport Authors covered include Bernard Malamud Mark Harris August Wilson Lamar Herrin Nancy Willard Silvia Tennenbaum Karen Joy Fowler and others Young Adult Literature: From Romance to Realism, Third Edition Michael Cart, 2017-11-21 All that Remains Bruce Brooks, 2001 Three novellas explore the effects of death on young lives The Newbery and Caldecott Awards Association for Library Service to Children, 2001 With its vivid annotations for all winning medal and honor books since the inception of the awards Newbery in 1922 and Caldecott in 1938 librarians and teachers everywhere rely on this indispensable guide for quick reference collection and curriculum development and readers advisory Indexed by title and author illustrator the 2001 edition includes background on the awards and photos of the new medalists and their books If you serve young people the 2001 edition will help you to introduce children to outstanding literature and illustration in creative ways and to make literature selections on your own from the criteria used for these distinguished awards New to this edition is an essay Reflections and Thoughts of the 2000 Newbery Committee by Carolyn Brodie who in collaboration with her fellow judges reminisces about an intense year of reading for this esteemed appointment Young Adult Literature Michael Cart, 2010-09 Helps YA librarians who want to freshen up their readers advisory skills teachers who use novels in the classroom and adult services librarians who increasingly find themselves addressing the queries of teen patrons Children's Writer's and Illustrator's Market 1994 Christine Martin, 1994 This annual brings together the two key aspects of children's from pre schoolers through teenagers publishing the writing and the illustrating in one handy volume of markets including book publishers magazines audio visual and audiotape markets and scriptwriting markets What Else Should I Read? Matthew L. Berman, 1996-08-15 In answer to the perennial question What else should I read these innovative resources go beyond linear listings of suggestions to help students find books through a variety of directions including subject author and genre Each guide contains approximately 30 displayable bookwebs that can be used as posters with reproducible bookmarks that list related titles and fit into pockets on the posters Each web leads users to 8 to 14 related topics that have lists of relevant books with their authors and brief LC descriptions Detailed author title and subject indexes make further exploration easy Hundreds of the best fiction books for young readers titles commonly found in school library collections are covered in the webs The visual nonlinear features of these books make them unique and user friendly tools for educators and students alike Perfect for the bulletin board the bookwebs are a great way to stimulate reading Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1954 Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children s literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself

The Publishers Weekly, 1893 Children's Literature Diana Mitchell, Pamela Waterbury, Rose Casement, 2003 Children s Literature An Invitation to the World is written and organized in a manner that engages the readers and that will instill confidence in teachers when selecting and using literature in their teaching Readers are asked to take a world view of literature what it is how to recognize one s own how to recognize an author s and encouraged to see children s literature through a lens that includes people not like themselves The book tackles tough issues such as gender and racial bias and how they can be insidiously promoted in literature No other book on the market engages readers more than this one Rather than just presenting topics the book asks What can we learn from them In addition the first person narrative involves readers in the discussion rather than simply presenting content to them

Elementary and middle school teachers curriculum developers and anyone interested in children s literature Today I Will Jerry Spinelli, Eileen Spinelli, 2014-10-29 Reassuring advice for every day of the year From an esteemed husband and wife team comes a book of daily advice and insight In dated entries meant to be read one per day the Spinellis open with a brief quote from children s literature write a paragraph of lively advice inspired by that quote and end with a Today I will promise The entries range from the broad self esteem the environment gratitude and openmindedness to the simple and specific Today I will call a grandparent smile at a new kid take a walk and send a snail mail letter With wide appeal to fans of both children s literature and advice books this cozy page a day volume with black and white spot art offers inspiring quotes gentle guidance and 366 Today I will promises to thoughtful readers everywhere

Exploring Diversity Jean E. Brown, Elaine C. Stephens, 1996-04-15 Help students explore their own identity through fiction biographies and autobiographies examine their most significant relationships i e with family members and friends and learn about different racial ethnic and cultural traditions through contemporary realistic fiction and historical fiction Brown and Stephens also describe outstanding books and authors that enhance the perspective of diversity and they address controversial issues related to the use of multicultural literature Grades 4 8
