

I thought nothing of it at first.
The ocean looked a little closer to our hotel than usual. That was all. It was our friend Orlantha who alerted me. A short while before, she'd knocked on our door to ask if we were ready to leave.

We almost were.

Wave By Sonali Deraniyagala:

Wave Sonali Deraniyagala, 2013-03-05 A brave intimate beautifully crafted memoir by a survivor of the tsunami that struck the Sri Lankan coast in 2004 and took her entire family On December 26 Boxing Day Sonali Deraniyagala her English husband her parents her two young sons and a close friend were ending Christmas vacation at the seaside resort of Yala on the south coast of Sri Lanka when a wave suddenly overtook them She was only to learn later that this was a tsunami that devastated coastlines through Southeast Asia When the water began to encroach closer to their hotel they began to run but in an instant water engulfed them Sonali was separated from her family and all was lost Sonali Deraniyagala has written an extraordinarily honest utterly engrossing account of the surreal tragedy of a devastating event that all at once ended her life as she knew it and her journey since in search of understanding and redemption It is also a remarkable portrait of a young family's life and what came before with all the small moments and larger dreams that suddenly and irrevocably ended

Wave Sonali Deraniyagala, 2013-03-12 The book opens and we are inside the wave thirty feet high moving at twenty five mph racing two miles inland And from there into the depths of the author's despair how to live now that her life has been undone Sonali Deraniyagala tells her story the loss of her two boys her husband and her parents without artifice or sentimentality In the stark language of unfathomable sorrow anger and guilt she struggles through the first months following the tragedy someone always at her side to prevent her from harming herself her whole being furiously clenched against the reality she can't face and then reluctantly emerging and over the ensuing years slowly allowing her memory to function again Then she goes back through the rich and joyous life she's mourning from her family's home in London to the birth of her children to the year she met her English husband at Cambridge to her childhood in Colombo while learning the balance between the almost unbearable reminders of her loss and her fundamental need to keep her family somehow still with her

Discrepant Solace David James, 2019 Consolation has always played an uncomfortable part in the literary history of loss But in recent decades its affective meanings and ethical implications have been recast by narratives that appear at first sight to foil solace altogether Illuminating this striking archive Discrepant Solace considers writers who engage with consolation not as an aesthetic salve but as an enduring problematic one that unravels at the centre of emotionally challenging works of late twentieth and twenty-first century fiction and life writing The book understands solace as a generative yet conflicted aspect of style where microelements of diction rhythm and syntax capture consolation's alternating desirability and contestation With a wide-angle lens on the contemporary scene David James examines writers who are rarely considered in conversation including Sonali Deraniyagala Colson Whitehead Cormac McCarthy W G Sebald Doris Lessing Joan Didion J M Coetzee Marilynne Robinson Julian Barnes Helen Macdonald Ian McEwan Colm Toibin Kazuo Ishiguro Denise Riley and David Grossman These figures overturn critical suppositions about consolation's kinship with ideological complaisance superficial mitigation or dubious distraction producing unsettling perceptions of solace that shape the formal and political contours of their writing Through intimate readings of novels and memoirs that explore seemingly indescribable experiences of grief trauma remorse and dread James demonstrates how they turn consolation into a condition of expressional possibility without ever promising us relief He also supplies vital traction to current conversations about the stakes of thinking with contemporary writing to scrutinize affirmative structures of feeling revealing unexpected common ground between the operations of literary consolation and the urgencies of cultural critique Discrepant Solace makes the close reading of emotion crucial to understanding the work literature does in our precarious present

Women, Subalterns, and Ecologies in South and Southeast Asian Women's Fiction Chitra Sankaran,2021-11-01 In recent decades East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis as they affect these two regions have been overlooked Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women's relationships to human and nonhuman worlds *HOLY SH*T, THEY'RE GONE: Navigating the F*cking Aftermath of Loss Without the Bullsh*t* Cassandra Crossno, 2025-03-10 THE BOOK GRIEF DOESN'T WANT YOU TO READ So they're gone And now everything is fucked Your entire fucking world just got obliterated One second they were here your person your anchor your goddamn reason for breathing and now they're just fucking gone Reduced to memories ashes a gaping screaming HOLE in the fabric of your goddamn existence The world SHATTERS doesn't it One minute they're breathing laughing living and the next NOTHING Just a void that swallows everything whole leaving you choking on the dust of what used to be Everything you knew is a smoldering crater a wasteland of what ifs and never agains And the infuriating soul crushing reality The goddamn sun STILL rises Traffic STILL crawls People STILL bitch about their lattes The fucking AUDACITY of the world to keep turning when yours has stopped DEAD Meanwhile you're drowning in this soul crushing brain melting rage inducing hellscape called grief People start talking and 95% of what they say is the most tone deaf ignorant rage inducing and straight up offensive bullshit you'll ever hear in your life Oh they're in a better place Better place my ass Their place was right the fuck here with you Everything happens for a reason Say that again and you might catch hands Grief isn't just sadness It's a goddamn onslaught It's a neurochemical shitstorm that hijacks your brain making you forget your own address and put the remote in the fridge It's a physical assault that leaves you exhausted nauseous shaky like you got hit by a truck and then dragged for miles You expect the big days to hurt birthdays anniversaries holidays But it's the tiny everyday gut punches that fuck you up the most Looking at their side of the bed and feeling like the air just got knocked out of your lungs Seeing their favorite coffee mug Hearing their laugh in a goddamn dream Yeah those And then there's the pressure to move on to find meaning to be some kind of goddamn poster child of grief instead of the broken furious drowning mess you actually are Guess what You don't have to play by their rules This is not a soft hand holding guide to healing This is not a collection of gentle affirmations This is not a breathe deeply and let go pile of spiritual bypassing THIS IS A GODDAMN WAR MANUAL FOR THE SOUL UNDER SIEGE A brass knuckled battle scarred no holds barred roadmap through the hellscape of grief This book is going to rip grief open lay it the fuck out and force it to look you in the eye It will not tell you to move on It will not pat you on the head and tell you it gets better It will tell you the brutal ugly completely unfair truth about what it means to keep breathing when the one person who made life worth living isn't here anymore WHAT'S INSIDE THIS LITERARY GRENADE THE TRUTH THE WHOLE TRUTH AND NOTHING BUT THE FUCKING TRUTH No sugarcoating No silver linings Just the unfiltered gut wrenching reality of loss the moments when you actually get mad at your person for dying The way grief makes you feel like a fucking burden The guilt when you catch yourself laughing for the first time in weeks The deep bone shaking loneliness that makes you feel like you're screaming into a void A BATTLE PLAN FOR YOUR BRAIN Grief isn't just an emotion It's a complete biological hijacking Your brain is in full
