Literature Suppressed on Social Grounds Dawn B. Sova, 2014-05-14 Literature Suppressed on Social Grounds Revised Edition discusses writings that have been banned over the centuries because they offended or merely ignored official truths challenged widely held assumptions or contained ideas or language unacceptable to a state religious institution or private moral watchdog The entries new to this edition include the Captain Underpants series We All Fall Down by Robert Cormier and Jake and Honeybunch Go to Heaven by Margaret Zemach Also included are updates to the censorship histories of such books as To Kill a Mockingbird and Of Mice and Men Whale Talk Chris Crutcher, 2009-09-22 A truly exceptional book Washington Post There s bad news and good news about the Cutter High School swim team The bad news is that they don t have a pool The good news is that only one of them can swim anyway Bestselling author Chris Crutcher s controversial and acclaimed novel follows a group of outcasts as they take on inequality and injustice in their high school Crutcher s superior gifts as a storyteller and his background as a working therapist combine to make magic in Whale Talk The thread of truth in his fiction reminds us that heroes can come in any shape color ability or size and friendship can bridge nearly any divide Washington Post T J Jones hates the blatant preferential treatment jocks receive at his high school and the reverence paid to the varsity lettermen When he sees a member of the wrestling team threatening an underclassman T J decides he s had enough He recruits some of the biggest misfits at Cutter High to form a swim team They may not have very much talent but the All Night Mermen prove to be way more than T J anticipated As the unlikely athletes move closer to their goal these new friends might learn that the journey is worth more than the reward For fans of Andrew Smith and Marieke Nijkamp Crutcher offers an unusual yet resonant mixture of black comedy and tragedy that lays bare the superficiality of the high school scene The book s shocking climax will force readers to re-examine their own values and may cause them to alter their perception of individuals pegged as losers Publishers Weekly An American Library Association Best Book for Young Adults New York Public Library Books for the Teen Age Features a new afterword by Chris Crutcher Chris Crutcher Michael A. Sommers, 2004-12-15 A recipient of the 2000 Margaret A Edwards Award Chris Crutcher is best known for his books featuring athletic male protagonists on the cusp of adulthood This volume takes a look at his life and work Chris Crutcher Bryan Gillis, Pam B. Cole, 2012-08-17 Chris Crutcher is a literary icon in the field of young adult literature With his first book Running Loose published in 1983 Crutcher established a reputation for giving young adults a voice in realistic fiction Since then Crutcher has written a number of books with spot on depictions of young adults growing through hard times including Ironman Whale Talk Staying Fat for Sarah Byrnes and Stotan In Chris Crutcher A Stotan for Young Adults Bryan Gillis and Pam B Cole examine the life career and works of this young adult advocate This volume opens with a never before published comprehensive portrait of the author s life gleaned from numerous conversations with Crutcher The authors explore Crutcher s childhood his adolescent years his life as an adult and his career as a family counselor and examine how those experiences became fodder for his stories. The authors also discuss Crutcher's encounters with censorship and his philosophical stance. Gillis and Cole also analyze Crutcher's novels, short stories, and novellas, examining his literary craft and such social themes as bigotry, identity, sexuality, relationships, and loss, themes almost always positioned within a sports story. The most comprehensive study of Crutcher's life and work to date, this book benefits tremendously from the cooperation of Crutcher himself. Generally reserved about private matters, Crutcher talks candidly about his life and how his experiences helped shape his character and his stories. His cooperative spirit gives voice to a book that will appeal not only to teachers and librarians but to students who have been enthralled by the works of this generous writer.

Forbidden Fruit Sarah McNicol, 2008. Forbidden Fruit: The Censorship of Literature and Information for Young People was a two-day conference held in Southport, UK, in June 2008. This collection of papers from the conference will be of interest to teachers, school and public librarians, publishers, and other professionals involved in the provision of literature and information resources for young people, as well as to researchers and students. The proceedings draw together some of the latest research in this area from a number of fields, including librarianship, education, literature, and linguistics. The topics covered include translations and adaptations, pre-censorship by authors, publishers, and editors, LGBT, lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, and trans materials, and the views of young people themselves. The papers included in the proceedings deal with a wide range of issues.

Research student Lucy Pearson takes a historical perspective, considering the differences in the way in which two titles, Young Mother in the 1960s and Forever in the 1970s, handle the theme of teenage sexuality. John Harer from the United States and Elizabeth Chapman and Caroline Wright from the UK also deal with the controversial issue of teenage sexuality. Both papers are concerned with the censorship of LGBT, lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, and trans materials for young people, especially referring to issues faced by librarians in dealing with such resources in their respective countries.

Another writer to examine the issue from a librarianship perspective is Wendy Stephens, who reports on her action research into students' reactions to book banning and censorship in the context of a twelfth-grade English literature research project. Taking one step back from the question of access to controversial materials, Cherie Givens reports on her doctoral research examining the often-neglected issue of pre-censorship, that is, restrictions which take place usually as a result of pressure from editors and publishers before materials reach the library shelves. Showing a different side of the publishing industry, Christopher Gruppetta writes from the perspective of a publisher keen to promote young adult fiction in Malta. His article demonstrates the huge strides which can take place in a relatively short period of time, even in a religiously conservative country. Talks by young adult authors were also included in the conference programme. Ioanna Kaliakatsou considers how self-censorship is exercised by authors and how attitudes have changed since the early twentieth century. Yet another point at which works might be censored is when they are translated or adapted. Evangelia Moula focuses on censorship in adaptations of classic Greek tragedies, while Helen T. Frank examines Australian children's fiction translated into French to highlight the process of purification or sanitization.

Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane,2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history Talking through Reading and Writing Daniel Rose,Christine Walsh,2020-11-11 In this book you will read many examples of rich literacy conversations between a teacher and his 8th grade students that never would have occurred face to face in the classroom These conversations take place online when 8th graders write to their teacher about the books they're interested in reading and choosing to read independently. Students write about what happens when they read or don't read, how they feel about reading, how they're connecting with characters and ideas, why they don't have enough time to read, and what their reading goals are. And their teacher writes back to them. Every week. After each conversation, you will read some meta-talk that shines a light on what the conversation has taught us about this language learner and how this data is informing our beliefs and practices. Embedded within the chapters are suggested resources, articles, book recommendations, links, websites, blogs, etc. you can follow should you want to read more in that chapter. What these students reveal about their own literacy development, their successes, their challenges, their lives, and how their teacher nudges them along socially, emotionally, and academically, teach us the value and power of one practical, authentic literacy tool: the Reading Conversation Journal. Talking Book Topics, 2003. Includes audio versions and annual title/author index. Thematic Guide to Young Adult Literature, Alice L. Trupe, 2006-05-30.

Contemporary young adult literature is a relatively new genre. This guide provides an overview of the burgeoning field, focusing primarily on fiction. Each of the 32 chapters is devoted to a theme of special significance to young adults and provides brief critical discussions of several related literary works. Chapters close with lists of fiction for further reading. An appendix groups works according to additional themes, and a selected bibliography cites relevant critical studies.

Adolescent Literature as a Complement to the Content Areas, Paula Greathouse, Joan F. Kaywell, Brooke Eisenbach, 2017-10-05. This text offers 6th-12th grade educators guided instructional approaches for including young adult (YA) literature in the social sciences and humanities classroom in order to promote literacy development while learning content. Chapters are co-authored, pairing content experts with literacy experts to ensure that both content and literacy standards are met in each approach. Each chapter spotlights the reading of one YA novel and offers pre-reading and after-reading activities that guide students to a deeper understanding of the content while increasing their literacy practices. While each chapter focuses on a specific content topic, readers will discover the many opportunities reading YA literature in the content area has in encouraging cross-disciplinary study. Sports, Gail Fay, 2012-11-21. This volume looks at a wide variety of topics related to high school sports, everything from choosing a sport to preparing to play at the college level. Book Review Index, 2003. Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation.

"Unsuitable" Books, Caren J. Town, 2014-07-18. Focusing on the attempted and successful banning of young adult fiction from media centers and classrooms, this book treats the legal and experiential history of censorship in libraries and public schools. It also looks closely at young adult novels from the early 1970s until today that have been the subject of book challenges. The authors discussed include Judy Blume, S. E. Hinton, Chris Crutcher, Jean Craighead George, M. E. Kerr, Mildred Taylor, and Sherman Alexie. This book offers parents, teachers, and librarians arguments against censorship based on literary merit and societal benefit. Virginia Journal of Education, 2006.
