American Studies In A Moment Of Danger Critical American Studies:

American Studies in a Moment of Danger George Lipsitz, 2001 The America that seems to be disappearing before our very eyes is George Lipsitz argues actually the cumulative creation of yesterday's struggles over identity culture and power At a critical moment this book offers a richly textured historical perspective on where our notions of national knowledge have come from and where they may lead Showing how American studies has been shaped by the social movements of the 1930s 1960s and 1980s Lipsitz identifies the ways in which the globalization of commerce and culture are producing radically new understandings of politics performance consumption knowledge and nostalgia Book jacket

American Studies Janice A. Radway, Kevin Gaines, Barry Shank, Penny Von Eschen, 2009-03-09 American Studies is a vigorous bold account of the changes in the field of American Studies over the last thirty five years Through this set of carefully selected key essays by an editorial board of expert scholars the book demonstrates how changes in the field have produced new genealogies that tell different histories of both America and the study of America Charts the evolution of American Studies from the end of World War II to the present day by showcasing the best scholarship in this field An introductory essay by the distinguished editorial board highlights developments in the field and places each essay in its historical and theoretical context Explores topics such as American politics history culture race gender and working life Shows how changing perspectives have enabled older concepts to emerge in a different context

States of Emergency Russ Castronovo,Susan Gillman,2009-12-01 The contributors to this volume argue that for too long inclusiveness has substituted for methodology in American studies scholarship The ten original essays collected here call for a robust comparativism that is attuned theoretically to questions of both space and time States of Emergency asks readers to engage in a thought experiment imagine that you have an object you want to study Which methodologies will contextualize and explain your selection What political goals are embedded in your inquiry This thought experiment is taken up by contributors who consider an array of objects the weather cigarettes archival material AIDS the enemy extinct species and torture The essayists recalibrate the metrics of time and space usually used to measure these questions In the process each contributes to a project that redefines the object of American studies reading its history as well as its future across against even outside the established grain of interdisciplinary practice Contributors Srinivas Aravamudan Duke University Ian Baucom Duke University Chris Castiglia The Pennsylvania State University Russ Castronovo University of Wisconsin Madison Wai Chee Dimock Yale University Nan Enstad University of Wisconsin Madison Susan Gillman University of California Santa Cruz Rodrigo Lazo University of California Irvine Robert S Levine University of Maryland Anne McClintock University of Wisconsin Madison Kenneth W Warren University of Chicago

The Exhaustion of Difference Alberto Moreiras,2001-09-26 A sophisticated theoretical reconsideration of Latin American studies critiquing past work and proposing new frameworks for the discipline The Routledge Companion to Inter-American Studies Wilfried Raussert, 2017-01-06 An essential overview of this blossoming field The Routledge Companion to Inter American Studies is the first collection to draw together the diverse approaches and perspectives on the field highlighting the importance of Inter American Studies as it is practiced today Including contributions from canonical figures in the field as well as a younger generation of scholars reflecting the foundation and emergence of the field and establishing links between older and newer methodologies this Companion covers Theoretical reflections Colonial and historical perspectives Cultural and political intersections Border discourses Sites and mobilities Literary and linguistic perspectives Area studies global studies and postnational studies Phenomena of transfer interconnectedness power asymmetry and transversality within the Americas Post-Nationalist American Studies John Carlos Rowe, 2000-12-04 Post Nationalist American Studies seeks to revise the cultural nationalism and celebratory American exceptionalism that tended to dominate American Studies in the Cold War era The goal of the book s contributors is a less insular more trans national comparative approach to American Studies one that questions dominant American myths rather than canonizes them Articulating new ways to think about American Studies these essays demonstrate how diverse the field has become Contributors are concerned with cross cultural communication race and gender global and local identities and the complex tensions between symbolic and political economies Their essays explore among other topics the construction of foreign peoples and cultures the notion of borders territorial racial economic and sexual the multilingual reality of the United States the place of the Mexican American War in U S history and the significance of Tiger Woods in today s global market of consumption Together the essays propose a renewed vision of the United States role in the world and how American Studies scholarship can address that vision Each contributor includes a sample syllabus showing how the issues discussed in individual essays can be brought into the classroom
