Waslala By Gioconda Belli:

Woman Seeking Mother Karisa Saori Shiraki, 2020 Motherhood and maternity are common themes in Nicaraguan author Gioconda Belli's 1948 writings but in Waslala 2006 her exploration of the mother figure dives further into what a relationship with such a figure provides Through a development narrative parallel to that of female Bildungsroman and quest romance the protagonist Melisandra grows in maternal history and culture in her search for mother This thesis uses the theories of Carol Christ Dana Heller Joseph Campbell and others to see Melisandra's odyssey through the lens of a quest narrative Along this journey two maternal figures play an important role in preparing her for her climactic reunion with her own biological mother They both teach and give examples of female strength and authority that Melisandra then emulates As Melisandra discovers and forms her own identity she finds herself in a pivotal position that intertwines her quest with that of her community's Upon leaving the utopian Waslala where she meets her mother it becomes apparent that the mother has become central for both Melisandra's personal identity and that of her community Ultimately the trajectory of Melisandra's journey shows the archetype and figure of the mother as paramount for growth development and self actualization

Socio-Environmental Crisis in Women's Novels and Films in The Americas Victoria Jara, 2025-03-31 The climate crisis has reached a critical point necessitating urgent global action Women's activism against environmental dispossession in the Americas manifests not only in protests and classrooms but also through artistic filmmaking and writing This book focuses on the overlooked contributions of women filmmakers and novelists highlighting how their work reveals the connections between environmental dispossession and various injustices related to gender ethnicity age class and labor It demonstrates that contemporary women in the Americas engage deeply with ecological issues analyzing their representations and identifying common principles across texts Using an interdisciplinary approach from environmental humanities gender and Indigenous studies and film and literary studies the author compares works from Canada and Latin America Three poetics emerge environmental destruction critiques harmful development care expands notions of reciprocity beyond the human and insurgency showcases struggles against extractivist models These works invite readers to understand the complex interconnections of environmental justice within society

Writing Women in Central America Laura Barbas-Rhoden, 2003 What is the relationship between history and fiction in a place with a contentious past And of what concern is gender in the telling of stories about the past This study explores these questions as it considers key Central American texts

La donna in prima linea: L'opera letteraria di Gioconda Belli Claudio Prencis, 2017-11-26 Uno studio d'approfondimento sulla vita e le opere letterarie di Gioconda Belli straordinaria scrittrice nicaraguense e autrice di toccanti poesie e romanzi che inducono alla riflessione più profonda Uno sguardo sul mondo sulle problematiche delle società latino americane e soprattutto sulle donne di ieri e di oggi che continuano a lottare per ottenere quei diritti e privilegi che per l'universo maschile sono sempre dati per scontati Un personaggio d'eccellenza che ha ancora tanto da dire intorno al

meraviglioso privilegio di sentirsi donna rivendicando con forza e orgoglio il diritto di vivere senza complessi la propria femminilità e può indicare la rotta da seguire per vivere finalmente in un mondo unito equo e solidale. Contiene un'intervista esclusiva dell'autore con la scrittrice Dividing the Isthmus Ana Patricia Rodríguez, 2009-05-01. In 1899 the United Fruit Company UFCO was officially incorporated in Boston Massachusetts beginning an era of economic diplomatic and military interventions in Central America. This event marked the inception of the struggle for economic political and cultural autonomy in Central America as well as an era of homegrown inequities injustices and impunities to which Central Americans have responded in creative and critical ways. This juncture also set the conditions for the creation of the Transisthmus a material cultural and symbolic site of vast intersections of people products and narratives. Taking 1899 as her point of departure Ana Patricia Rodríguez offers a comprehensive comparative and meticulously researched book covering more than one hundred years between 1899 and 2007 of modern cultural and literary production and modern empire building in Central America. She examines the grand narratives of anti imperialism revolution subalternity globalization impunity transnational migration and diaspora as well as other discursive historical and material configurations of the region beyond its geophysical and political confines. Focusing in particular on how the material productions and symbolic tropes of cacao coffee indigo bananas canals waste and transmigrant labor have shaped the transisthmian cultural and literary imaginaries Rodríguez develops new methodological approaches for studying cultural production in Central America and its diasporas. Monumental in scope and relentlessly impassioned this work offers new critical readings of Central American narratives and contributes to the growing field of Central American studies. The Natural World in Latin American Literatures Adrian Taylor Kane, 2014-01-10. From the Popol Vuh to postmodernism imagery of the natural world has played an important role in Latin American literature. In contrast to the rise of ecocritical scholarship in Anglophone literary studies Latin American literary ecocriticism has been slower to take root. This volume of eleven essays seeks to advance the ecocritical conversation among Latin Americanists furthering insight into the relationship between humans and their environments. The essays address regions as diverse as Patagonia and the Chihuahua Desert. La mujer en primera línea: La obra literaria de Gioconda Belli Claudio Prencis, 2018-11-25. Una biografía sobre la vida y la obra política y narrativa de la extraordinaria escritora nicaragüense Gioconda Belli un punto de referencia para todas las mujeres del mundo y sus reclamaciones. Contiene una entrevista exclusiva con la autora. Trans/Forming Utopia - Volume II Elizabeth Russell, 2009. Is the utopian project dead? Is it possible to imagine a utopian society or a utopian world in the aftermath of the collapse of ideologies? This book contains eighteen essays which are the result of the 7th International Conference of Utopian Studies held in Spain in 2006 either debating the subject or suggesting alternative readings to some of the theoretical ideas raised within utopian studies. This volume focuses on the importance of narratives in utopian literature. They define the world we live in and the world we wish to live in. Through narratives of confession and indeed through silence itself the unconscious emerges and desire is articulated The articles in this volume question and challenge the power of the word the stability of meaning and the relationship between thought and action in the construction of utopia and dystopia They also point to the various literary frameworks of utopian and dystopian narratives thus connecting stories from the past present and future of both real and imaginary and communities América, n° 32, 2004 Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics Jens Andermann, Gabriel Giorgi, Victoria Saramago, 2023-09-05 The Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics offers a comprehensive overview of Latin American aesthetic and conceptual production addressing the more than human environment at the intersection between art activism and critique Fields include literature performance film and other audiovisual media as well as their interactions with community activisms Scholars who have helped establish environmental approaches in the field as well as emergent critical voices revisit key concepts such as ecocriticism post extractivism and multinaturalism while opening new avenues of dialogue with areas including critical race theory and ethnicity energy humanities queer trans studies and infrastructure studies among others This volume both traces these genealogies and maps out key positions in this increasingly central field of Latin Americanism at the same time as they relate it to the environmental humanities at large By showing how artistic and literary productions illuminate critical zones of environmental thought articulating urgent social and material issues with cultural archives historical approaches and conceptual interventions this volume offers cutting edge critical tools for approaching literature and the arts from new angles that call into question the nature culture boundary Ökologische Genres Evi Zemanek, 2017-12-04 Obwohl der Ecocriticism international floriert verzeichnet er kaum systematische gattungstheoretische Beiträge die sich einem Kerninteresse der kologisch orientierten Literaturwissenschaft widmen der Frage nach den Affinitäten verschiedener literarischer Gattungen für kologisches Wissen und kologische Strukturen Dieser Band untersucht die generisch bedingten Dispositionen und Funktionen einer Vielzahl von Genres hinsichtlich der Repräsentation kologischer Relationen und Transformationen Ergänzend zu dem in der Forschung vorherrschenden Fokus auf kologisch engagierte Literatur schärft dieser Band den Blick für die kologisch konzipierte Literatur und plant für eine genauere Untersuchung der Verschränkung beider Aspekte Bezüge zur biologischen sowie zur angewandten Kologie kennzeichnen die betrachteten Genres nicht nur auf der thematischen sondern auch auf der strukturellen Ebene Betrachtet werden daher neben der Modellierung des Mensch-Natur-Verhältnisses und der Auseinandersetzung mit kologischen Fragen oder gar einer kologischen Krise der je spezifische Texthaushalt der einzelnen Genres ihre Rhetorik und Modi der Wissenspopularisierung Der Band stellt ein breites Spektrum kologischer Genres aus verschiedenen Epochen Literaturen und Kulturen vor und analysiert das jeweils charakteristische Zusammenspiel von Naturästhetik Umweltethik und Wissenspoetik Somit zeigt er anschaulich dass ein Zuwachs kologischen Wissens ebenso wie natürliche und anthropogene kologische Transformationen verschiedenster Art Transformationen des literarischen Gattungssystems bewirkt haben und bewirken Resistance and Survival Ann González, 2022-08-23 In her analysis of some of the most interesting and important children's literature from Central America and the Caribbean Ann Gonz lez uses postcolonial narrative theory to expose and decode what marginalized peoples say when they tell stories to their children and how the interpretations children give these stories today differ from the ways they have read them in the past Gonz lez reads against the grain deconstructing and critiquing dominant discourses to reveal consistent narrative patterns throughout the region that have helped children maneuver in a world dominated by powerful figures from parents to agents of social control political repression and global takeover Many of these stories are in some way lessons in resistance and survival in a world where the toughest kid on the block often an outsider demands that a group of children play or pay on his terms Gonz lez demonstrates that where traditional strategies have proposed the model of the trickster or the paradoxically astute fool to mock the pretensions of the would be oppressor new trends indicate that the region's children and those who write for them show increasing interest in playing the game on their own terms getting to know the Other embracing difference and redefining their identity and role within the new global culture Resistance and Survival emphasizes the hope underlying this contemporary children's literature for a world in which all voices can be heard and valued the hope of an authentic happy ending

Visualizing Loss in Latin America Gisela Heffes, 2023-05-19 Visualizing Loss in Latin America engages with a varied corpus of textual visual and cultural material with specific intersections with the natural world arguing that Latin American literary and cultural production goes beyond ecocriticism as a theoretical framework of analysis Gisela Heffes poses the following crucial question How do we construct a conceptual theoretical apparatus to address issues of value meaning tradition perspective and language that contributes substantially to environmental thinking and that is part and parcel of Latin America The book draws attention to ecological inequality and establishes a biopolitical ethics based reading of Latin American art film and literature that operates at the intersection of the built environment and urban settings Heffes suggests that the aesthetic praxis that emerges in from Latin America is permeated with a rhetoric of waste a significant trait that overwhelmingly defines it

Utopian Dreams, Apocalyptic Nightmares Miguel López-Lozano, 2008

Utopian Dreams Apocalyptic Nightmares traces the history of utopian representations of the Americas first on the part of the colonizers who idealized the New World as an earthly paradise and later by Latin American modernizing elites who imagined

Western industrialization cosmopolitanism and consumption as a utopian dream for their independent societies Carlos Fuentes Homero Aridjis Carmen Boullosa and Alejandro Morales utilize the literary genre of dystopian science fiction to elaborate on how globalization has resulted in the alienation of indigenous peoples and the deterioration of the ecology This book concludes that Mexican and Chicano perspectives on the past and the future of their societies constitute a key site for the analysis of the problems of underdevelopment social injustice and ecological decay that plague today s world Whereas utopian discourse was once used to justify colonization Mexican and Chicano writers now deploy dystopian rhetoric to interrogate projects of modernization contributing to the current debate on the global expansion of capitalism The narratives coincide in expressing confidence in the ability of Latin American and U S Latino popular sectors to claim a decisive role in the implementation of enhanced measures to guarantee an ecologically sound ethnically diverse and just society for the future of the Americas

Blast, Corrupt, Dismantle, Erase Brett Josef Grubisic, Gisèle M. Baxter, Tara Lee, 2014-06-16 What do literary dystopias reflect about the times In Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase contributors address this amorphous but pervasive genre using diverse critical methodologies to examine how North America is conveyed or portrayed in a perceived age of crisis accelerated uncertainty and political volatility Drawing from contemporary novels such as Cormac McCarthy s The Road Neil Gaiman s American Gods and the work of Margaret Atwood and William Gibson to name a few this book examines dystopian literature produced by North American authors between the signing of NAFTA 1994 and the tenth anniversary of 9 11 2011 As the texts illustrate awareness of and deep concern about perceived vulnerabilities ends of water oil food capitalism empires stable climates ways of life non human species and entire human civilizations have become central to public discourse over the same period By asking questions such as What are the distinctive qualities of post NAFTA North American dystopian literature and What does this literature reflect about the tensions and contradictions of the inchoate continental community of North America Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase serves to resituate dystopian writing within a particular geo social setting and introduce a productive means to understand both North American dystopian writing and its relevant engagements with a restricted mapped reality

The Return of the Contemporary Nicolás Campisi, 2024-12-17 In The Return of the Contemporary Nicolás Campisi combines the fields of post dictatorship studies and environmental humanities to analyze Latin American cultural production in the neoliberal age Each chapter pairs two authors from different parts of Latin America and the Caribbean who create a common vocabulary in which to frame the various crises of the region s present and recent past such as climate change forced migration the collapse of state institutions and the afterlives of slavery By situating his argument at the intersection of ecocritical and environmental humanities affect studies and the politics of memory and postmemory Campisi presents new comparative methods to show how Latin America s neoliberal crisis prompted significant changes in how the novel as a form imagines a different future
