The Philosopher's Guide to Parenthood Teresa Baron, 2023-01-05 Our understanding of what it means to be a parent in any given context is shaped by our biological social legal and moral concepts of parenthood These are themselves subject to the influence of changing expectations as new technologies are produced cultural views of the family are transformed and laws shift in response In this book Teresa Baron provides a detailed and incisive overview of the key questions widespread presuppositions and dominant approaches in the field of philosophy of parenthood Baron examines paradigm cases and problem cases alike through an interdisciplinary lens bringing philosophy of parenthood into dialogue with research on family making and childrearing from across the social sciences and humanities Her book aims to answer old questions draw out new questions and interrogate notions that we often take for granted in this field including the very concept of parenthood itself

The Cambridge Companion to American Utopian Literature and Culture

since 1945 Sherryl Vint, 2024-05-16 Providing a comprehensive overview of American thought in the period following World War II after which the US became a global military and economic leader this book explores the origins of American utopianism and provides a trenchant critique from the point of view of those left out of the hegemonic ideal Centring the voices of those oppressed by or omitted from the consumerist American Dream this book celebrates alternative ways of thinking about how to create a better world through daily practices of generosity justice and care The chapters collected here emphasize utopianism as a practice of social transformation not as a literary genre depicting a putatively perfect society and urgently make the case for why we need utopian thought today With chapters on climate change economic justice technology and more alongside chapters exploring utopian traditions outside Western frameworks this book opens a new discussion in utopian thought and theory

Speculations of War Annette M. Magid, 2021-03-01 Late 19th century science fiction stories and utopian treatises related to morals and attitudes often focused on economic sociological and at times Marxist ideas More than a century later science fiction commonly depicts the inherent dangers of capitalism and imperialism Examining a variety of conflicts from the Civil War through the post 9 11 era this collection of new essays explores philosophical introspection and futuristic forecasting in science fiction fantasy utopian literature and film with a focus on the warlike nature of humanity

The Road from Gap Creek Robert Morgan,2013-08-27 One of America s most acclaimed writers returns to the land on which he has staked a literary claim to paint an indelible portrait of a family in a time of unprecedented change In a compelling weaving of fact and fiction Robert Morgan introduces a family s captivating story set during World War II and the Great Depression Driven by the uncertainties of the future the family struggles to define itself against the vivid Appalachian landscape The Road from Gap Creek explores modern American history through the lives of an ordinary family persevering through extraordinary times

Feminism as World Literature Robin Truth Goodman,2022-11-03 The conventional lineage of World Literature starts with Goethe and moves through Marx Said Moretti and Damrosch among others What if there is another way to trace the lineage starting with Simone de Beauvoir and moving through Hannah Arendt Assia Djebar Octavia Butler Donna Haraway Karen Barad and Gayatri Spivak What ideas and issues get left out of the current foundations that have institutionalized World Literature and what can be added challenged or changed with this tweaking of the referential terminology Feminism as World Literature redefines the thematic and theoretical contents of World Literature in feminist terms as well as rethinking feminist terms analyses frameworks and concepts in a World Literature context Other ideas built into World Literature and its criticism are viewed here by feminist framings including the environment technology immigration translation work race governance image sound religion affect violence media future and history The authors recognize genres strategies and themes of World Literature that demonstrate feminism as integral to the world making gestures of literary form and production In other words this volume looks to readings and modes of reading that expose how the historical worldliness of texts allows for feminist interventions that might not sit clearly or comfortably on the surfaces
