1850 Literary Trails of the North Carolina Mountains Georgann Eubanks, 2015-12-01 This guidebook is the first of three regional volumes that invite residents and out of state visitors to explore North Carolina while reading literature from our state's finest writers. Organized geographically through a series of eighteen half day and day long tours in the western part of the state, the book directs curious travelers to the historic sites where Tar Heel authors have lived and worked. Along the way, travelers can read outstanding excerpts from the writers evoking the places, customs, colloquialisms, and characters that figure prominently in their poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction, and plays. More than 170 writers from the past and present are featured in this volume, including Sequoyah, Elizabeth Spencer, Fred Chappell, Charles Frazier, Kathryn Stripling Byer, Robert Morgan, William Bartram, Gail Godwin, O. Henry, Thomas Wolfe, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Anne Tyler, Lillian Jackson Braun, Nina Simone, and Romulus Linney. Each tour provides information about the libraries, museums, colleges, bookstores, and other venues open to the public where writers regularly present their work or are represented in exhibits, events, performances, and festivals.

America in Quotations Bahman Dehgan, 2015-08-31 America is a land of wonders in which everything is in constant motion and every change seems an improvement. No natural boundary seems to be set to the efforts of man, and in his eyes, what is not yet done is only what he has not yet attempted to do. Alexis de Tocqueville, Democracy in America, 1835. Americans will pay a big price for an invention that will help them save time they don't know what to do with. Anonymous. This collection of quotations, both serious and humorous about America, is divided into 19 main topics: The Nation, The American People, Places, Nature, Mind, The Individual, Human Relations, Social Life, Culture, and Media, Literature, and Language, Religion, and Belief, Past and Future, History, War and the Military, International Relations, Politics and Government, Law and Order, Business and Economy, and Food. Each main topic is divided into subtopics; for example, Culture and Media has these: Architecture, Art, Charlie Chaplin, Dance, Fashion, Intellectuals, Marilyn Monroe, Movies, Music, Elvis Presley, and Television. The author attributes each quote to its speaker, author, or composer, and wherever possible, provides the date of the quote and the name of the work in which it was published. In the case of uncertainty about the exact date of a quote, the author provides the birth and death dates of the person to whom the quote is attributed. Also included are a keyword and subject index and a speaker index.

Sixteen Modern American Authors Jackson R. Bryer, 1989 Praise for the earlier edition: Students of modern American literature have for some years turned to Fifteen Modern American Authors, 1969, as an indispensable guide to significant scholarship and criticism about twentieth-century American writers. In its new form, Sixteenth Modern American Authors, it will continue to be indispensable. If it is not a desk book for all Americanists, it is a book to be kept in the forefront of the bibliographical compartment of their brains. American Studies.

The Expression of Emotion in the Visual Arts: A Philosophical Inquiry Benjamin R. Tilghman, 1970-07 The philosophy of art/aesthetics is here understood to be something distinct from both art appreciation and art criticism. The philosophy of art is nevertheless dependent upon the existence of appreciation and criticism, because it is out of reflection upon these that the uniquely philosophical problems of art arise problems that reflect puzzlement about what is involved in understanding enjoying describing and evaluating works of art Hence the philosophy of art must presuppose at least some measure of understanding and appreciation of particular works of art and if such understanding and appreciation are lacking the philosopher is in no position to supply them It can not be a philosophical task to undertake a Defense of Poesie against either the philistine or the tyrant The philosopher is not the one to convince us that art is a Good Thing that paintings are worth looking at poems worth reading and music worth listening to if for no other reason than that philosophical theory and argument are no substitute for taste and sensibility My position here is the now unexceptional one that philosophical problems are essentially conceptual problems and while the philosopher of art cannot produce aesthetic sensibility and appreciation where these do not exist he can give us understanding of the concepts relevant to artistic appreciation and thereby help us to see our way through the conceptual confusions that have generated the philosophical puzzles surrounding art its appreciation and criticism New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement ,1940-12
