The White Bone By Barbara Gowdy:

The White Bone Barbara Gowdy, 2000 A classic moving quest of elephants memory and the will to survive Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth-Century Canada Alice Higgs, 2023-11-09 Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth Century Canada fulfils a vital contribution to the conversation surrounding animal representation as a point of continuity in national narratives and supports the idea that focusing on narratives of responsibility and care influences better relations with both non human animals and across settler Indigenous boundaries Alice Higgs engages with on going debates regarding reconciliation by demonstrating that it is imperative to critique settler colonial environmental frameworks and place autonomy back into Indigenous communities by bringing Indigenous practices of custodianship and relationality to bear more generally This book also develops a number of conversations in animal studies in relation to the politics of representation Higgs studies a range of canonical Canadian authors demonstrating a progress across the period in which it is possible to identify the emergence of a literary pro animal turn Literature and Nature Tawhida Akhter, Tariq Ahmad Bhat, 2022-01-27 During the last few decades there has been remarkable progress in research on various aspects of literature and nature Different fields have been explored in this regard though there remain many fields yet to be explored This book explores how nature plays an important role in the development of personality looking at both its positive and negative effects It also considers how literature has rightly portrayed the reality of a culture through its fictitious characters The book will fulfil the needs of students teachers researchers and all stakeholders who are engaged in eco feminist studies Women and Nature? comprehensively explore how engaging with creatures of various kinds alters our understanding of what it means to write and read and why this is important for thinking about a series of cultural ethical political and scientific developments and controversies The first part of the book offers historically rooted arguments about medieval metamorphosis early modern fleshiness eighteenth century imperialism Romantic sympathy Victorian racial politics modernist otherness and contemporary forms The second part poses questions that cut across periods concerning habitat and extinction captivity and spectatorship race and post coloniality sexuality and gender religion and law health and wealth In doing so this companion places animals at the centre of literary studies and literature at the heart of urgent debates in the growing field of animal studies

Animals in Literary Education John Drew, 2025-09-24 This book examines the complicated place of animals in literary analysis and education and shows how an ethically engaged approach to animals representation could be pursued to challenge anthropocentrism and cultivate multispecies empathy Other species are represented in the literary education canon including farmed animals Yet the animals are typically anthropomorphized to guide students toward humanist readings and away from consideration of animals experiences or subjectivities This reproduces the idea that animals are mere objects meant to be exploited for human purposes even metaphorical and educational ones John Drew develops the term anthropo allegory to capture and critique the process through which students are taught to read animal literary representations exclusively as symbolic analogues for humans and human themes The concept serves as an analytical lens for critically interrogating significant texts taught across educational levels and exposing the deeply engrained educational anthropocentrism that silences animal issues even when animals are represented Crucially Drew identifies texts and pedagogical strategies that can help cultivate a literary educational animal ethic that simultaneously encourages analytical rigour and multispecies concern

Postcolonial Lack Gautam Basu Thakur, 2020-03-16 Postcolonial Lack reconvenes dialogue between Lacanian psychoanalysis and postcolonial theory in order to expand the range of cultural analyses of the former and make the latter theoretically relevant to the demands of contemporary narratives of othering exclusion and cultural appropriation Seeking to resolve the mutual suspicion between the disciplines Gautam Basu Thakur draws out the connections existing between Lacan's teachings on subjectivity and otherness and writings of postcolonial and decolonial theorists such as Gayatri Spivak Frantz Fanon and Homi Bhabha By developing new readings of the marginalized other as radical impasse and pushing the envelope on neoliberal identity politics the book moves postcolonial studies away from the perennial topic of identity and difference and into examining the form and function of the other as excess surplus and or lack in colonial and postcolonial literature film and social discourse Looking at writings by Mahasweta Devi Amitav Ghosh Leila Aboulela Narayan Gangopadhyay Katherine Boo and films by Gillo Pontecorvo Clint Eastwood Ryan Coogler Black Panther and Tony Gatlif Basu Thakur highlights a new set of ethical and political considerations emerging as a direct result of this shift and stakes a fundamental rethinking of postcoloniality through what he calls the politics of ontological discordance

Culture, Creativity and Environment, 2007-01-01 Culture Creativity and Environment New Environmentalist Criticism is a collection of new work which examines the intersection between philosophy literature visual art film and the environment at a time of environmental crisis This book is unusual in the way in which the imaginative creative element is privileged notwithstanding the creativity of rigorous cultural criticism Genuinely interdisciplinary this book aims to be inclusive in its discussions of diverse cultural media different literary genres art forms and film for instance which offer thoughtful and thought provoking critiques of our relationships with the environment Our ability to transcend the ethical and aesthetic categories and discourses that have contributed to our alienation from our environment is dependant upon an enlargement of our imaginative capacities In a modest way this book might contribute to what Ted Hughes speaking of the imagination of each new child described as nature s chance to correct culture s error Gorgeous Beasts Joan B. Landes, Paula Young Lee, Paul Youngquist, 2012 A collection of essays examining the place of animals in history and culture and their influence on life and art from the Renaissance to the present Provided by publisher The Kindred of the Wild Charles G. D. Roberts, 2013-09-07 Charles G D Roberts was a distinguished poet and novelist whose claim to fame rests on a series of very popular animal stories Although not a professional naturalist Roberts based his stories on observations made during time spent in natural surroundings experiences that began with his boyhood in New Brunswick Futures of the Study of Culture Doris Bachmann-Medick, Jens Kugele, Ansgar Nünning, 2020-08-10 Die Reihe widmet sich zentralen neueren Konzepten und Methoden im Feld der kulturwissenschaftlichen Grundlagenforschung und inhaltlichen Fragestellungen Sie zielt darauf die gegenw rtige Diskussion in den Kulturwissenschaften weiter zu profilieren und sie zugleich f r die Arbeit in den Disziplinen fruchtbar zu machen durch die Ausarbeitung interdisziplin rer Schl sselkonzepte und die Entwicklung einer transkulturellen study of culture Die B nde gehen berwiegend aus den Literatur Geschichts und Kulturwissenschaften hervor aber auch aus der Politikwissenschaft der Soziologie und den Medienwissenschaften The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2017-06-08 A fully revised second edition of this multi author account of Canadian literature from Aboriginal writing to Margaret Atwood Ecocriticism in the Modernist Imagination Kelly Sultzbach, 2016-08-24 Sultzbach s book provides a wide ranging investigation into how the works of Forster Woolf and Auden helped shape our environmental imagination Is Canada Postcolonial? Laura Moss, 2009-08-01 How can postcolonialism be applied to Canadian literature In all that has been written about postcolonialism surprisingly little has specifically addressed the position of Canada Canadian literature or Canadian culture Postcolonialism is a theory that has gained credence throughout the world it is be productive to ask if and how we as Canadians participate in postcolonial debates It is also vital to examine the ways in which Canada and Canadian culture fit into global discussions as our culture reflects how we interact with our neighbours allies and adversaries This collection wrestles with the problems of situating Canadian literature in the ongoing debates about culture identity and globalization and of applying the slippery term of postcolonialism to Canadian literature The topics range in focus from discussions of specific literary works to general theoretical contemplations The twenty three articles in this collection grapple with the recurrent issues of postcolonialism including hybridity collaboration marginality power resistance and historical revisionism from the vantage point of those working within Canada as writers and critics While some seek to confirm the legitimacy of including Canadian literature in the discussions of postcolonialism others challenge this very notion

Animal Subjects Caroline Hovanec,2018-09-06 Animal Subjects finds a new understanding of animal life in the literature and science of the early twentieth century Animalia Americana Colleen Glenney Boggs,2013-01-08 Colleen Glenney Boggs puts animal representation at the center of the making of the liberal American subject Concentrating on the formative and disruptive presence of animals in the writings of Frederick Douglass Edgar Allan Poe and Emily Dickinson Boggs argues that animals are critical to the ways in which Americans enact their humanity and regulate subjects in the biopolitical state Biopower or a politics that extends its reach to life thrives on the strategic ambivalence between who is considered human and what is judged as animal It generates a space of indeterminacy in which animal representations intervene to define and challenge the parameters of subjectivity The renegotiation of the species line produces a tension that is never fully regulated Therefore as both figures of radical alterity and the embodiment of biopolitics animals are simultaneously exceptional and exemplary to the biopolitical state An original contribution to animal studies American studies critical race theory and posthumanist inquiry Boggs thrillingly reinterprets a long and highly contentious human animal history Postcolonial Ecocriticism Graham Huggan,Helen Tiffin,2015-04-17 This second edition of Postcolonial Ecocriticism a book foundational for its field has been updated to consider recent developments in the area such as environmental humanities and animal studies Graham Huggan and Helen Tiffin examine transverse relations between humans animals and the environment across a wide range of postcolonial literary texts and also address key issues such as global warming food security human over population in the context of animal extinction queer ecology and the connections between postcolonial and disability theory Considering the postcolonial first from an environmental and then a zoocritical perspective the book looks at Narratives of development in postcolonial writing Entitlement belonging and the pastoral Colonial asset stripping and the Christian mission The politics of eating and the representation of cannibalism Animality and spirituality Sentimentality and anthropomorphism The changing place of humans and animals in a posthuman world With a new preface written specifically for this edition and an annotated list of suggestions for further reading Postcolonial Ecocriticism offers a comprehensive and fully up to date introduction to a rapidly expanding field Keywords for Environmental Studies Joni Adamson,William A. Gleason,David Pellow,2016-02-26 Keywords for Environmental Studies analyzes the central terms and debates currently structuring the most exciting research in and across environmental studies including the environmental humanities environmental social sciences sustainability sciences and the sciences of nature Sixty essays from humanists social scientists and scientists each written about a single term reveal the broad range of quantitative and qualitative approaches critical to the state of the field today From ecotourism to ecoterrorism from genome to species this accessible volume illustrates the ways in which scholars are collaborating across disciplinary boundaries to reach shared understandings of key issues such as extreme weather events or increasing global environmental inequities in order to facilitate the pursuit of broad collective goals and actions This book underscores the crucial realization that every discipline has a stake in the central environmental questions of our time and that interdisciplinary conversations not only enhance but are requisite to environmental studies today pub desc

Regina's Secret Spaces University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2006 Regina s Secret Spaces Love and Lore of Local Geography is an anthology of essays and poems by eighty writers artists architects musicians patrons of the arts and cultural theorists who were inspired by and answered the call of editors Lorne Beug Anne Campbell and Jeannie Mah to share their favourite Regina secret Some submissions were quirky and whimsical delighting in those things small yet significant which bring joy and connect us to the place we live others were more serious and more theoretical examining power structures both past and present and how these have shaped and are yet shaping the city Reflective engaging and insightful all express an abiding fondness for the city of Regina

Other Animals in Twenty-First Century Fiction Catherine Parry, 2017-07-19 This book is about ordinary animals and how they are imagined in twenty first century fiction Examining contemporary animal representations and the fraught and potent distinctions humans fashion between themselves and all other animals it asks how a range of novels make re make or unmake traditional conceptions of the creatures we love admire eat vilify and abuse Other Animals detailed readings of horses an animalised human a donkey ants chickens and chimpanzees develop new critical practices in Literary Animal Studies They explore the connections between fictional animal representation narrative form ethics and the lives and warm bodies of the real world creatures that precede and exceed our imagination Human animal relationships are conditioned by our imaginative shapings of other animals and by our sense of distinction from them and Other Animals opens out how fictional animal forms and tropes respond to participate in or challenge the ways animals lives are lived out in consequence of human imaginings of them
