Torpor Chris Kraus, 2017-05-04 The latest novel from the author of cult super hit I LOVE DICK It's Summer 1991 the dawning of the New World Order a post MTV pre AOL generation Jerome Shafir and Sylvie Green two former New Yorkers who can no longer afford an East Village apartment set off on a journey across the entire former Soviet Bloc with the intention of adopting a Romanian orphan Unflinchingly dark hilarious and moving Torpor is at once a satire and philosophy of cultural history social identity and failing relationships Dipping into the trajectory of a life at different moments Kraus interrogates convention and emotion creating characters that are flawed witty and altogether true to life Part prequel part sequel Torpor continues a project of life writing personal unsparing and triumphant If I Love Dick is the book of your 20s Torpor is the book of your 30s I Love Dick Chris Kraus, 2015-11-05 When Chris Kraus an unsuccessful artist pushing 40 spends an evening with a rogue academic named Dick she falls madly and inexplicably in love enlisting her husband in her haunted pursuit Dick proposes a kind of game between them but when he fails to answer their letters Chris continues alone transforming an adolescent infatuation into a new form of philosophy Blurring the lines of fiction essay and memoir Chris Kraus's novel was a literary sensation when it was first published in 1997 Widely considered to be the most important feminist novel of the past two decades I Love Dick is still essential reading as relevant fierce and funny as ever Social Practices Chris Kraus, 2018-10-30 Essays on and around art and art practices by the author of I Love Dick A border isn't a metaphor Knowing each other for over a decade makes us witnesses to each other's lives My escape is his prison We meet in a bar and smoke Marlboros from Social Practices Mixing biography autobiography fiction criticism and conversations among friends with Social Practices Chris Kraus continues the anthropological exploration of artistic lives and the art world begun in 2004 with Video Green Los Angeles Art and the Triumph of Nothingness Social Practices includes writings from and around the legendary Chance Event Three Days in the Desert with Jean Baudrillard 1996 and Radical Localism an exhibition of art and media from Puerto Nuevo's Mexicali Rose that Kraus co-organized with Marco Vera and Richard Birkett in 2012 Attuned to the odd and the anomalous Kraus profiles Elias Fontes an Imperial Valley hay merchant who has become an important collector of contemporary Mexican art and chronicles the demise of a rural convenience store in northern Minnesota She considers the work of such major contemporary artists as Jason Rhoades Channa Horowitz Simon Denny Yayoi Kusama Henry Taylor Julie Becker Ryan McGinley and Leigh Ledare Although Kraus casts a skeptical eye at the genre that's come to be known as social practice her book is less a critique than a proposition as to how art might be read through desire and circumstance delirium gossip coincidence and revenge All art she implies is a social practice Selected Amazon Reviews Kevin Killian, 2024-11-26 A book length selection from Kevin Killian's legendary corpus of more than two thousand product reviews posted on Amazon.com An enchanting roll of duct tape Love Actually on Blu-ray Disc The Toaster Oven Cookbook The Biography of Stevie Nicks and an anthology of poets who died of AIDS In this only book length selection from his legendary corpus of more than two thousand product reviews posted on Amazon.com sagacious shopper Kevin Killian holds forth on these household essentials and many many many others The beloved author of more than a dozen volumes of innovative poetry fiction drama and scholarship Killian was for decades a charismatic participant in San Francisco's New Narrative writing circle From 2003-2019 he was also one of Amazon's most prolific reviewers rising to rarefied Top 100 and Hall of Fame status on the site Alternately hilarious and heartfelt Killian's commentaries consider an incredible variety of items each review a literary escapade hidden in plain sight amongst the retailer's endless pages of user-generated content Selected Amazon Reviews at last gathers an appropriately wide swath of this material between two covers revealing the project to be a unified whole and always more than a lark Some for verified purchases others for products enjoyed in theory Killian's reviews draw on the influential strategies of New Narrative his unrivaled fandom for both elevated and popular culture and the fine art of fabulation Many of them are ingeniously funny flash fictional riffs on the commodity as talismanic object written by a cast of personas worthy of Pessoa And many others are serious even scholarly earnest tributes to contemporaries and to small press books that may not have received attention elsewhere offered with exemplary attention All of Killian's reviews subvert the Amazon platform queering it to his own play with language identity genre critique Killian's prose is a consistent pleasure throughout Selected Amazon Reviews brimming with wit lyricism and true affection As the Hall of Famer himself reflected on this form of his own invention shortly before his untimely passing in 2019 They're reviews of a sort but they also seem like novels They're poems They're essays about life I get a lot of my kinks out there on Amazon

Cartographies of Empire Myka Tucker-Abramson, 2025-03-18 The road novel is often dismissed as a mundane nostalgic genre Jack Sal and other tedious white men on the road trying to recapture an authentic youth and American past that never existed Yet new road novels appear every year tackling unexpected questions and spanning new geographies from Mexico Brazil Bulgaria Palestine Ukraine and former Yugoslavia Why did the road novel emerge and why does it persist What does it do and why has it traveled so widely Myka Tucker Abramson draws from an archive of more than 140 global road novels from over twenty countries challenging dominant conceptions of the road novel as primarily concerned with American experiences and subjectivities Grounding her analysis in materialist theories of genre world ecology and commodity frontier frameworks and post-45 American literary studies Tucker Abramson persuasively argues that the road novel is a genre specific to coterminous with and revealing of US hegemony's global trajectory Shifting our focus from Americanness to the fraught geopolitics of US Empire from the car to the built environment through which it moves and from passengers to those left behind Tucker Abramson remaps the road novel elucidating the genre's unique ability both to reveal the violent and vertiginous processes of capitalist modernization and to obfuscate these harsh truths through seductive narratives of individual success and failure

Matrilineal Dissent Annie Atura Bushnell, Lori Harrison-Kahan, Ashley Walters, 2024-05-07 Collectively contributors reframe Jewish American literary history through feminist approaches that have revolutionized the field from intersectionality and the MeToo movement to queer theory and disability studies Examining both canonical and lesser known texts this collection asks what happens to conventional understandings of Jewish American literature when we center women's writing and acknowledge women as dominant players in Jewish cultural production The American Politics of French Theory Jason Demers, 2019-01-01 Working from the premise that May 68 is a shorthand that delimits an intensive decade of global revolt Jason Demers documents the cross pollination of French philosophy international activist movements and American countercultures From the assassinations of Martin Luther King Jr and George Jackson to the revolt at Columbia University the 1968 Democratic National Convention Woodstock and the Weather Underground Demers writes French theory into a constellation of American events and icons uncontained by national borders More than a compelling new take on the history of theory The American Politics of French Theory develops concepts gleaned from the work of Derrida Deleuze Guattari and Foucault providing new tools for thinking about translation theory and politics By recontextualizing French theory within a complex fabric of mass communication and global revolt Demers demonstrates why it is politically potent and methodologically necessary to think of translation associatively Subjects Barbarian, Monstrous, and Wild Maria Boletsi, Tyler Sage, 2017-11-20 Subjects Barbarian Monstrous and Wild responds to a contemporary political climate in which historically invested figures of otherness barbarians savages monsters have become common discursive currency Through questionable historical comparisons politicians and journalists evoke barbaric or primitive forces threatening civilization in order to exacerbate the fear of others diagnose civilizational decline or feed nostalgic restorative projects These evocations often demand that forms of oppression discrimination and violence be continued or renewed In this context the collected essays explore the dispossessing effects of these figures but also their capacities for reimagining subjectivity agency and resistance to contemporary forms of power Emphasizing intersections of the aesthetic and the political these essays read canonical works alongside contemporary literature film art music and protest cultures They interrogate the violent histories but also the subversive potentials of figures barbarous monstrous or wild while illustrating the risks in affirmative resignifications or new mobilizations Contributors Sophie van den Bergh Maria Boletsi Siebe Bluijs Giulia Champion Cui Chen Tom Curran Andries Hiskes Tyler Sage Cansu Soyupak Ruby de Vos Mareen Will The Believer, The Four Spent the Day Together Chris Kraus, 2025-10-07 The intelligence and honesty and total originality of Chris Kraus make her work not just great but indispensable I read everything Chris Kraus writes she softens despair with her brightness and with incredible humor too Rachel Kushner author of Creation Lake An unforgettable new novel from the powerfully original Dwight Garner The New York Times author of the cult classic I Love Dick a stark witty journey into a fractured violent America culminating in the investigation of a teenage murder on Minnesota's Iron Range On the Iron Range of northern Minnesota at the end of the last decade three teenagers shot and killed an older acquaintance after spending the day with him In a cold depressed town on the fringes of the so called meth community the three young people were quickly
