Turning Hearts By Deanne Blackhurst:

Turning Hearts Deanne Blackhurst, 2009-03-28 Jake and I have called off the wedding Amanda's mother doing dishes at the sink froze at Amanda's words Her father stared at her in dismay But why her mother asked You both seem so happy together Is it a worthiness issue her father turned a grim eye on Jake who blushed No sir he said It's nothing like that Then why her mother repeated Amanda took a deep breath Because I'm going on a mission Amanda knows there's a certain family out there that needs the gospel and she also knows she's the one who's supposed to bring it to them Her recurring dream makes it seem urgent the dream with the shiny gold frame and the vaguely familiar faces smiling down at her The dream in which her grandmother says You must find them You're the only one who can When Amanda gets to California and starts teaching she wonders which family she was sent there to find What happens next is something she never would have expected Turning Hearts is an inspiring story of faith love and the bittersweet struggles of missionary work that you won't want to miss Books in Print Supplement ,2002
