A History Of Christianity In Asia Vol Ii 1500 19:

A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. II Samuel Hugh Moffett,2014-07-30 The story of Christianity in the West has often been told but the history of Christianity in the East is not as well known The seed was the same the good news of Jesus Christ for the whole world which Christians call the gospel But it was sown by different sowers it was planted in different soil it grew with a different flavor and it was gathered by different reapers It is too often forgotten that the faith moved east across Asia as early as it moved west into Europe Western church history tends to follow Paul to Philippi and to Rome and on across Europe to the conversion of Constantine and the barbarians With some outstanding exceptions only intermittently has the West looked beyond Constantinople as its center It was a Christianity that has for centuries remained unashamedly Asian A History of Christianity in Asia makes available immense amounts of research on religious pluralism of Asia and how Christianity spread long before the modern missionary movement went forth in the shelter of Western military might Invaluable for historians of Asia and scholars of mission it is stimulating for all readers interested in Christian history

The Non-Western Jesus M. E. Brinkman, Henry Jansen, Lucy Jansen, 2014-12-18 The centre of gravity of contemporary Christianity has shifted to the southern hemisphere where with the exception of Latin America almost all Christians are minorities in their home countries Christians in Asia live amongst Muslim Hindu Buddhist Shamanist or Taoist majorities and this context shapes the local Christian theology The same is true in Africa where traditional religions and beliefs influence African Christians Central to this change in both Africa and Asia is the creation of a new Jesus one who accretes local beliefs and concerns and who in that process is transformed The Non Western Jesus reveals how a new theology with its own images and concepts is coming into being A wide range of embodiments of Jesus is examined Jesus as Avatara and Guru in the Indian context as Bodhisattva in the Buddhist context and Jesus within Asian Chinese Japanese Korean African and Indonesian religious contexts The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia Asian Christianities Phan, Peter C., 2018-08-23 The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church

Gerard Mannion, Lewis S. Mudge, 2007-12-12 Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues

Envisioning Religion, Race, and Asian Americans David K. Yoo, Khyati Y. Joshi, 2020-08-31 In Envisioning Religion Race and Asian Americans David K Yoo and Khyati Y Joshi assemble a wide ranging and important collection of essays documenting the intersections of race and religion and Asian American communities a combination so often missing both in the scholarly literature and in public discourse Issues of religion and race ethnicity undergird current national debates around immigration racial profiling and democratic freedoms but these issues as the contributors document are longstanding ones in the United States The essays feature dimensions of traditions such as Islam Hinduism and Sikhism as well as how religion engages with topics that include religious affiliation or lack thereof the legacy of the Vietnam War and popular culture The contributors also address the role of survey data pedagogy methodology and literature that is richly complementary and necessary for understanding the scope and range of the subject of Asian American religions These essays attest to the vibrancy and diversity of Asian American religions while at the same time situating these conversations in a scholarly lineage and discourse This collection will certainly serve as an invaluable resource for scholars students and general readers with interests in Asian American religions ethnic and Asian American studies religious studies American studies and related fields that focus on immigration and race South Asia's Christians Chandra Mallampalli, 2023 South Asia is home to more than a billion Hindus and half a billion Muslims But the region is also home to substantial Christian communities some dating almost to the earliest days of the faith The stories of South Asia's Christians are vital for understanding the shifting contours of World Christianity precisely because of their history of interaction with members of these other religious traditions In this broad accessible overview of South Asian Christianity Chandra Mallampalli shows how the faith has been shaped by Christians location between Hindus and Muslims Mallampalli begins with a discussion of South India's ancient Thomas Christian tradition which interacted with West Asia's Persian Christians and thrived for centuries alongside their Hindu and Muslim neighbours He then underscores efforts of Roman Catholic and Protestant missionaries to understand South Asian societies for purposes of conversion The publication of books and tracts about other religions interreligious debates and aggressive preaching were central to these endeavours but rarely succeeded at yielding converts Instead they played an important role in producing a climate of religious competition which ultimately marginalized Christians in Hindu Muslim and Buddhist majority countries of post colonial South Asia Ironically the greatest response to Christianity came from poor and oppressed Dalit formerly untouchable and tribal communities who were largely indifferent to missionary rhetoric Their mass conversions poetry theology and embrace of Pentecostalism are essential for understanding South Asian Christianity and its place within World Christianity today The Rowman & Littlefield
