A History Of Malawi 1859 1966 A History Of Malawi 1859 1966:

A History of Malawi, 1859-1966 John McCracken, 2012 This title features a general history of Malawi focusing mainly on the colonial period when it was known as Nyassaland but placing that period in the context of the pre colonial past

A Malawi Church History 1860 - 2020 Kenneth R. Ross, Klaus Fiedler, 2025-02-15 This is the first attempt to comprehend the whole of Malawi's church history in a single volume It aims to unfold this history from beginning to end considering every expression of Christianity and taking account of its every dimension This revised edition includes additional material to take account of developments in Malawi church historiography between 2020 and 2025 A great achievement offering a comprehensive analysis of the history of Christianity in Malawi a must have book for institutional and personal libraries in Malawi and for all those interested in the impact of Christianity in Africa Isabel Apawo Phiri Vice Chancellor University of Blantyre Synod The significance of this book cannot be over emphasised a one stop account for understanding Malawi's church history captivating and refreshingly informative Wapulumuka O Mulwafu Deputy Vice Chancellor Mzuzu University

Malawian Migration to Zimbabwe, 1900-1965 Zoë R. Groves, 2020-11-24 This book explores the culture of migration that emerged in Malawi in the early twentieth century as the British colony became central to labour migration in southern Africa Migrants who travelled to Zimbabwe stayed for years or decades and those who never returned became known as machona the lost ones Through an analysis of colonial archives and oral histories this book captures a range of migrant experiences during a period of enormous political change including the rise of nationalist politics and the creation and demise of the Central African Federation Following migrants from origin to destination and in some cases back again this book explores gender generation ethnicity and class and highlights life beyond the workplace in a racially segregated city Malawian men and women shaped the culture and politics of urban Zimbabwe in ways that remain visible today Ultimately the voluntary movement of Africans within the African continent raises important questions about the history of diaspora communities and the politics of belonging in post colonial Africa

Politics, Christianity and Society in Malawi Ross, Kenneth R., Mulwafu, Wapulumuka O., 2020-02-27 With the death of John McCracken in 2017 Malawi lost a pre eminent historian This book celebrates McCracken's contribution to the study of Malawi's history and seeks to build on his legacy Part of his genius was that he identified themes that hold the key to understanding the history of Malawi in its broader perspective The authors contributing to this volume address these themes assessing the progress of historiography and setting an agenda for the further advance of historical studies The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and all who are interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Malawi's past and present

Churchill and Africa C. Brad Faught, 2023-09-30 This timely book fills a lacuna in the extensive literature on Churchill's life and times It covers his long relationship with Africa during the most important period in Anglo African history from nineteenth century imperial rule to independence and the emergence of modern Africa Churchill first went to Africa during the British reconquest of Sudan in 1898 and would spend almost the next sixty years dealing with Africa as soldier journalist government minister and finally prime minister Churchill's story is one of transition from the height of late Victorian British imperialism to the acceptance of African nationalism in the middle years of the twentieth century He helped to shape British colonial policy in Africa from the first decade of the twentieth century through the Second World War and colonial Kenya's Mau Mau crisis of the 1950s Few British leaders were as closely involved with Africa as was Churchill

Fertilizer subsidies in Malawi: From past to present Benson, Todd, De Weerd, Joachim, Duchoslav, Jan, Masanjala, Winford, 2024-02-12 Malawi has been at the center of the debate on agricultural input subsidies in Africa ever since it significantly expanded its fertilizer subsidy program about two decades ago When it did so Malawi was a trailblazer receiving international attention for seemingly leveraging the subsidy program to move the country from a situation characterized by food deficits and widespread hunger to crop production surpluses In this paper we trace the history of Malawi's subsidy program over the past 70 years describing how the country arrived at that watershed moment earlier this century and how the subsidy program has developed since We show how donor support for the program has wavered and how external pressure to remove the subsidy has repeatedly been unsuccessful We also demonstrate how over the years the program's total fiscal burden has fluctuated significantly However we find that since the expansion of the subsidy program in 2004 the fiscal costs of the program have shown little correlation with the maize harvest that same agricultural season We show that the subsidy program has succeeded in raising awareness about the value of the fertilizer for increased crop productivity However despite its continued prominence in the country's agricultural policy most Malawian smallholders do not manage to grow sufficient maize to feed their households throughout the year and every year millions depend on food assistance during the worst months of the lean season

Malawi Zoë Groves, Jessica Johnson, 2025-06-27 This book explores Malawi's recent history in light of longer term historical developments contributing important new insights to debates about migration citizenship chieftaincy language cultural practice anti colonialism and nationalism The book is organised around five key themes Rethinking Kamuzu Banda's Malawi Rural Development and Agricultural Production Power and Politics from pre to post colony Malawi and the Southern African Region and Culture and Cultural Production The focus on a single country facilitates consideration of local particularities as well as identification of similarities in the trajectories and challenges shared with other countries in Africa This book provides a nuanced understanding of Hastings Kamuzu Banda Malawi's first Prime Minister and President 1964-94 and the legacy of his rule Chapters analyse decolonisation in a political and a cultural sense and show how the beginning and end of colonial rule were gradual processes rather than sharp ruptures Individual chapters expand our knowledge of the history of public health development rural livelihoods food production and agricultural policy as well as prompting new debate on migration citizenship chieftaincy language cultural practice anti colonialism and nationalism This book will be of particular interest to scholars of Malawi and the wider Southern African region Nine of the chapters were originally published in a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies volume 46 issue 2 2020 This volume contains a revised Introduction five additional chapters all previously published in JSAS and a new Afterword The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa Normann Carr Alistair Tough, 2024-09-16 Norman Carr 1912 1997 devoted his life to the conservation of wildlife and their habitat He saw that this could only be achieved with the involvement and support of the local people who should benefit from it He was the founder of game viewing safaris in Zambia In the 1950s he enabled the establishment of a game reserve which became the Nsefu Sector of South Luangwa National Park and with Chief Nsefu he established the first camp for tourists within it He was also influential in the development of the Kafue National Park Carr skilfully manipulated central and local bureaucracies before and after Zambia's Independence established a safari company which outlived him and now runs five lodges in the Luangwa Valley pioneered walking safaris wrote several books and raised two lion cubs which were successfully returned to the wild

Malawi's First Presbyterian Ministers Kenneth Ross, 2024-01-23 Malawi's first two Presbyterian ministers Harry Kambwiri Matecheta and Stephen Kundecha were ordained in March 1911 Ecclesiastically this made them fully equal with their European fellow ministers There were however subtle and not so subtle racial codes that reminded them that they were expected to occupy a subordinate position This Occasional Paper explores how they discovered their identity and vocation in a challenging context Indigenization Discourse in Social Work Koustab Majumdar, Rajendra Baikady, Ashok Antony D'Souza, 2023-11-09 This contributed volume provides an in depth understanding of contemporary debates discussions and insights on Indigenous social work theory education and practice across the globe Based on theoretical and empirical perspectives authors collectively contribute to a comprehensive critical and up to date discussion about Indigenous social work theories decolonization of social work education Indigenous social work curriculum Indigenous social work practice and cultural perspectives towards enhancing Indigenous social work education and practice The key features of this book are Critical insights into the historical evolution of Indigenous social work Global debates on the westernization and indigenization of social work education An overview of Indigenous social work and its practice in diverse cultural contexts

Critical perspective of Indigenous social work education and Coverage of a diverse range of geographical areas

Indigenization Discourse in Social Work International Perspectives is an indispensable resource for students scholars independent researchers academicians policymakers and practitioners who are working in the field of social work especially those who are interested in Indigenous social work issues Moreover it is an invaluable text for students scholars and academicians who are interested in international social work with a special focus on Indigenous social work In addition students and scholars in sociology development studies public policy and economics working with Indigenous people and who are interested in Indigenous studies will find this book useful as an interdisciplinary reference

Malawian Missionaries in Tanzania's Southern Highlands 1916-1928 Kenneth Ross,2023-09-17 Opportunities for Malawians to demonstrate their leadership skills were severely limited during the colonial period Even the Missions like Livingstonia and Blantyre that provided a high level of education often frustrated their graduates by requiring them to work under European supervision on an indefinite basis This study shows how some early Malawian church leaders took advantage of an unexpected opportunity that arose during the First World War European missionaries were not allowed to enter Tanzania but African staff were permitted to cross the border to help the Tanzanian churches to regroup after the devastation caused by the war For such remarkable figures as Yoram Mphande George Nyasulu and Jones and Catherine Chikoga this was a chance to show their mettle

Africa. What Lies Ahead Dunduzu Kaluli Chisiza,2023-04-30 Dunduzu Kaluli Chisiza s Africa What Lies Ahead represents an early effort by a Malawian nationalist to craft a vision for the country and Africa s progress in the areas of politics economy religion and culture Republished at a time when Malawi struggles with corruption economic stagnation regional and ethnic challenges it offers refreshing ideas about what needs to be done to contain these vices

Beyond Impunity R. Ross,Lorraine Chiweza,2022-01-09 This comprehensive compelling accessible and timely volume should be compulsory reading to academics policy makers social activists and the general public in Malawi and elsewhere on the continent The accounts the authors present of the pervasive dysfunctions of Malawi s troubled experiment with multiparty democracy since the mid 1990s and the endlessly deferred dreams of development are often dispiriting Yet their bleak diagnoses are often accompanied by ameliorative prescriptions that are simultaneously bold and pragmatic The book exudes a sense of hope that the struggles for a better future will continue In itself the book represents a testament to the possibilities of the country s democratic dispensation the need to unflinchingly confront the country s debilitating political and socioeconomic pathologies Such a text would have been unthinkable during the dictatorship of the founding president Dr Hastings Kamuzu Banda

Towards Democratic Development States in Southern Africa Kanyenze, Godfrey,Jauch, Herbert,2016-12-14 The dawn of the twenty first century heralded an apparent change of fortunes for most sub Saharan African economies with annual growth averaging over 5% for fifteen years However this was not accompanied by structural transformation poverty food insecurity unemployment and inequality persist Structural transformation has not been and indeed cannot be delivered by market forces and neoliberal economic policies it requires a state committed to development and to achieving it in a democratic way To what extent do the countries of Southern Africa exhibit the characteristics of such a developmental state What steps if any do they need to take in order to become one The book answers the questions with respect to South Africa Botswana Namibia Zimbabwe Angola and Malawi Godfrey Kanyenze and his colleagues have assembled a distinguished team of writers to take the temperature of the regional political economy and chart a path for its future development New Media and the Mediatization of Religion Gabriel Faimau, William O. Lesitaokana, 2018-10-01

New media including digital and social media play a central role in producing and reproducing socio cultural and religious practices Its presence has not only resulted in changes to the ways in which religious beliefs are practiced but has also altered the way religious meanings are expressed How has new media technology informed and influenced religious engagement and participation In what ways has new media technology enabled religious groups to practice and preach their religious beliefs to a broader audience To what extent has the emergence of social media and social networking sites shaped religious discourses and religious practices This volume offers a unique Africa centred perspective in response to these questions While presenting new scholarly developments in the fields of media religion and culture in Africa this book also provides empirical and theoretical insights into the intersection between new media and religion Visions for Racial

Equality Harri Englund, 2022-02-17 A rich and innovative look at the rise and demise of a unique vision for racial equality in nineteenth century Africa The Cultural Politics of Obeah Diana Paton, 2015-08-10 A study of the importance of debates about obeah and state suppression of it for Caribbean struggles about freedom and citizenship The Winds of History

Andreas Zeman, 2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clichés of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people's room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside Crisis Yet Continuity Kenneth R. Ross, 2025-04-13 Studies on the history of the Blantyre Mission in Malawi often suggest that 1881 marked a turning point in the mission's tradition following a crisis triggered by a series of scandals that resulted in the dismissal of its top leadership Kenneth Ross challenges this interpretation arguing that while a crisis did occur it did not significantly disrupt the mission's work Ross maintains that there was a strong element of continuity between the earlier and later phases of the mission largely sustained by African missionaries trained for the work a core group of dedicated missionary personnel and female staff who played a vital role in maintaining the Mission's stability Through a thorough and detailed examination of archival records Ross's work offers a fresh and deeper understanding of the Blantyre Mission and its enduring influence insights that previous accounts have not fully captured Gift Wasambo Kayira Head of the Department of History Archaeology and Heritage Studies University of Malawi In this book Kenneth Ross enables readers to step into the footsteps of our ancestors and to closely experience the travails they endured From this treasure trove we can discover where we are coming from where we are and where we want to be tomorrow As Blantyre Synod marks its 150th anniversary in 2026 I commend this volume to all Presbyterians and to all who cherish our Malawian history Anderson Lovemore Jester Juma Chulu General Secretary CCAP Blantyre Synod
