A History Of The British Museum Library 1753 1973:

A History of the British Museum Library, 1753-1973 Philip Rowland Harris, 1998 The first comprehensive history of a world renowned repository of knowledge and scholarship this volume deals primarily with the growth of the library's collections their cataloguing and the reading rooms in which they are housed The appendices includes a list of some of the better known persons who have used the reading rooms 100 illustrations Joseph Banks and the British Museum Neil Chambers, 2015-09-30 Concentrating on the explorer and naturalist Joseph Banks 1743 1820 this book explores the early history of collections at the British Museum Taking Banks extraordinary career as its basis it examines the changes that took place during a period of transition that led to collecting on an increasingly global scale Institutions of Literature, 1700-1900 Jon Mee, Matthew Sangster, 2022-07-21 This collection provides students and researchers with a new and lively understanding of the role of institutions in the production reception and meaning of literature in the period 1700 1900 The period saw a fundamental transition from a patronage system to a marketplace in which institutions played an important mediating role between writers and readers a shift with consequences that continue to resonate today Often producers themselves institutions processed and claimed authority over a variety of cultural domains that never simply tessellated into any unified system The collection's primary concerns are British and imperial environments with a comparative German case study but it offers encouragement for its approaches to be taken up in a variety of other cultural contexts From the Post Office to museums from bricks and mortar to less tangible institutions like authorship and genre this collection opens up a new field for literary studies British Librarianship and Information Work 1991-2000 J.H. Bowman, 2017-07-28 This important reference volume covers developments in almost every aspect of British library and information work during the ten year period 1991 2000 Some forty contributors all of whom are experts in their subject provide a robust overview of their specialities along with extensive further references which act as a starting point for further research The book provides a comprehensive record of what took place in library and information management during a decade of considerable change and challenges It is an essential reference resource for librarians and information professionals The First Modern Museums of Art Carole Paul, 2012-11-16 In the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries the first modern public museums of art civic state or national appeared throughout Europe setting a standard for the nature of such institutions that has made its influence felt to the present day Although the emergence of these museums was an international development their shared history has not been systematically explored until now Taking up that project this volume includes chapters on fifteen of the earliest and still major examples from the Capitoline Museum in Rome opened in 1734 to the Alte Pinakothek in Munich opened in 1836 These essays consider a number of issues such as the nature display and growth of the museums collections and the role of the institutions in educating the public The introductory chapters by art historian Carole Paul the volume's editor lay out the relationship among the various museums and discuss their evolution from private noble and royal collections to public institutions In concert the accounts of the individual museums give a comprehensive overview providing a basis for understanding how the collective emergence of public art museums is indicative of the cultural social and political shifts that mark the transformation from the early modern to the modern world The fourteen distinguished contributors to the book include Robert G W Anderson former director of the British Museum in London Paula Findlen Ubaldo Pierotti Professor of Italian History at Stanford University Thomas Gaehtgens director of the Getty Research Institute and Andrew McClellan dean of academic affairs and professor of art history at Tufts University Show more Show less

Empire, the British Museum, and the Making of the Biblical Scholar in the Nineteenth Century Gregory L. Cuéllar, 2019-08-23 Since the modern period the field of biblical studies has relied upon libraries museums and archives for its evidentiary and credentialing needs Yet absent in biblical scholarship is a thorough and critical examination of the instrumentality of the discipline s master archives for elite power structures Addressing this gap in biblical scholarship lies central to this book Interrogated here is a premier repository or master archive of the discipline the British Museum Using an assemblage of critical theories from archival discourse to postcolonial studies space theory to governmentality studies the focal point of this book is at the intersections of the Museum s rise to scientific prominence the British Empire and the conferring of scientific authority to modern biblical critics in the nineteenth century Gregory L Cuéllar initiates a season of historicization of the master archives of biblical studies and archival criticism

Canada in the Frame Philip J. Hatfield, 2018-06-18 Canada in the Frame explores a photographic collection held at the British Library that offers a unique view of late nineteenth century and early twentieth century Canada The collection which contains in excess of 4 500 images taken between 1895 and 1923 covers a dynamic period in Canada s national history and provides a variety of views of its landscapes developing urban areas and peoples Colonial Copyright Law was the driver by which these photographs were acquired unmediated by curators but rather by the eye of the photographer who created the image they showcase a grass roots view of Canada during its early history as a Confederation Canada in the Frame describes this little known collection and includes over 100 images from it The author asks key questions about what it shows contemporary viewers of Canada and its photographic history and about the peculiar view these photographs offer of a former part of the British Empire in a post colonial age viewed from the old Heart of Empire Case studies are included on subjects such as urban centres railroads and migration which analyse the complex ways in which photographers approached their subjects in the context of the relationship between Canada the British Empire and photography

John Donne and the Conway Papers Daniel Starza Smith, 2014 John Donne and the Conway Papers examines the archive of the Conway family and considers how the archive came to contain a concentration of manuscript poetry by Donne and what this tells us in terms of seventeenth century politics patronage and culture

The Country House Library Mark Purcell, 2019-09-03 Beginning with new evidence that cites the presence of books in Roman villas and concluding with present day vicissitudes of collecting this generously illustrated book presents a complete survey of British and Irish country house libraries Replete with engaging anecdotes about owners and librarians the book features fascinating information on acquisition bordering on obsession the process of designing library architecture and the care and neglect of collections The author also disputes the notion that these libraries were merely for show arguing that many of them were profoundly scholarly assembled with meticulous care and frequently used for intellectual pursuits For those who love books and the libraries in which they are collected and stored The Country House Library is an essential volume to own Readers in a

Revolution David McKitterick,2022-06-30 This book traces a revolution in values that transformed nineteenth century attitudes to second hand books bibliography and collecting Ancient Knowledge Networks Eleanor Robson,2019-11-14

Ancient Knowledge Networks is a book about how knowledge travels in minds and bodies as well as in writings It explores the forms knowledge takes and the meanings it accrues and how these meanings are shaped by the peoples who use it Addressing the relationships between political power family ties religious commitments and literate scholarship in the ancient Middle East of the first millennium BC Eleanor Robson focuses on two regions where cuneiform script was the predominant writing medium Assyria in the north of modern day Syria and Iraq and Babylonia to the south of modern day Baghdad She investigates how networks of knowledge enabled cuneiform intellectual culture to endure and adapt over the course of five world empires until its eventual demise in the mid first century BC In doing so she also studies Assyriological and historical method both now and over the past two centuries asking how the field has shaped and been shaped by the academic concerns and fashions of the day Above all Ancient Knowledge Networks is an experiment in writing about Mesopotamian science as it has often been known using geographical and social approaches to bring new insights into the intellectual history of the world s first empires Revolution and the Antiquarian Book Kristian Jensen,2011-01-06

Examines the late eighteenth century preoccupation with the acquisition of old books and the new historical discipline created by traders The Royal Musical Association Leanne Langley,2024-12-10 Charting the history of the Royal Musical Association over 150 years from scientific roots and the long resistance of British universities to music study to bringing UK musicology to worldwide recognition This book is the first comprehensive history of the Royal Musical Association Drawing on extensive archival material and exploring a host of colourful people it paints an absorbing picture of scholarly achievement in Britain across 150 years Founded in London in 1874 as a learned society for musical research the Association emulated the venerable Royal Society in welcoming diverse backgrounds but went further by including women Charting its scientific roots and the long resistance of British universities to music study the narrative shows how the Association published a strong body of research independently blossoming from 170 members in the 1870s to more than 1400 today Early joiners included the scientists William Pole and John Tyndall a founder of climate science the art historian Elizabeth Eastlake and musicians from John Stainer to Agnes Zimmermann Their goal was to investigate and discuss music rather than perform it or give concerts Because no member was yet trained in what would later be called musicology the papers covered an eclectic range of scientific ethnographic and historical questions broad in scope and responsive to heard music Whether measuring acoustic phenomena studying popular music or deciphering manuscripts of early polyphony the Association promoted wide engagement as well as the establishment of academic musicology Meanwhile members including W B Squire Edward J Dent Thurston Dart and Stanley Sadie transformed public understanding Their work in music library development opera Musica Britannica early music criticism and music lexicography helped gain global recognition for British scholarship With arts study under pressure in the current uncertain climate the Association s recent concern for real world issues in diversity practice based research and the vital role of music in schools remains true to its founding spirit

Comparative Criticism: Volume 23, Humanist Traditions in the Twentieth Century E. S. Shaffer, 2001-10-04 Comparative Criticism addresses itself to the questions of literary theory and criticism This new volume looks at the Humanist Tradition in the Twentieth Century and articles will include The Book in the Totalitarian Context Lorenzo Valla and Changing Perceptions of Renaissance Humanism Hitler s Berlin Civilisation and barbarism an anthropological approach Walter Pater to Adrian Stokes psychoanalysis and humanism Art History and Humanist Tradition in the Stefan George Circle The winning entries in the 1999 2000 BCLA BCLT translation competition are also published

Production and Provenance, 2025-01-15 The aim of this volume is to re evaluate some of the temporal intermedial and geographical boundaries built around a long established discipline the study of incunabula This volume starts by setting out the past and future landscapes of incunabula studies looking particularly at copy specific features Subsequent chapters use research on specific editions or subjects in order to engage with the two key themes of the book production and provenance of early printed books By examining a wide range of copy specific aspects of individual books the volume showcases how printed books were produced in the fifteenth century and subsequently used and transformed by readers and owners during their long journeys till they fell into their current owners hands

Archives and Archivists in 20th Century England Elizabeth Shepherd, 2016-04-08 Archives have the potential to change people s lives They are a fundamental bulwark of our democracy our culture our community and personal identity National Council of Archives Archives and Archivists in 20th Century England innovatively focuses on the multifunctional reasons behind the creations of archives they enable the conduct of business and support accountability whilst also meeting the demands of a democratic society s expectations for transparency and the protection of rights They are the raw material of our history and memory while archivists and records managers are the professionals responsible for ensuring that these qualities are protected and exploited for the public good This volume will be of key interest to anyone working with archives

The Victorians and the Eighteenth Century Francis O'Gorman, Katherine Turner, 2017-07-05 Disrupting the common assumption that the Victorians regarded their eighteenth century predecessors with little interest or with disdain this volume re examines these relationships exposing some of the significant and complex ways in which key aspects and texts of the eighteenth century were situated read and transacted with during the post Romantic nineteenth century The contributors challenge long held assumptions about Victorian uses of the past and offer new insights into how the literature and culture of the eighteenth century helped shape the culture and identity of the nineteenth This collection of essays by an impressive array of scholars with a Preface by David Fairer offers a sharply new assessment of the energizing place of eighteenth century literature and culture in the nineteenth century While obviously of great interest to students of eighteenth century and Victorian literature the collection will also appeal to readers broadly concerned questions of literary influence periodization and historiography

The Invention of Rare Books David McKitterick, 2018-07-12 Explores how the idea of rare books was shaped by collectors traders and libraries from the sixteenth to the nineteenth centuries Using examples from across Europe David McKitterick looks at how rare books developed from being desirable objects of largely private interest to become public and even national concerns

Books and Their Readers in 18th Century England Isabel Rivers, 2003-06-01 This collection of eight new essays investigates ways in which significant kinds of 18th century writings were designed and received by different audiences Rivers explores the answers to certain crucial questions about the contemporary use of books This new edition contains the results of important new research by well known specialists in the field of book and publishing history over the last two decades
