Rambles of a Runaway from Southern Slavery tells of an extraordinary life in and out of slavery in the United States and Canada Born Elijah Turner in the Virginia Tidewater circa 1810 the author eventually procured freedom papers from a man he resembled and took the man s name Henry Goings His life story takes us on an epic journey traveling from his Virginia birthplace through the cotton kingdom of the Lower South and upon his escape from slavery through Tennessee and Kentucky then on to the Great Lakes region of the North and to Canada His Rambles show that slaves were found not only in fields but also on the nation s roads and rivers perpetually in motion in massive coffles or as solitary runaways A freedom narrative as well as a slave narrative this compact yet detailed book illustrates many important developments in antebellum America such as the large scale forced migration of enslaved people from long established slave societies in the eastern United States to new settlements on the cotton frontier the political economic processes that framed that migration and the accompanying human anguish Goings s life and reflections serve as important primary documents of African American life and of American national expansion the Civil War and Reconstruction This edition features an informative and insightful introduction by Calvin Schermerhorn Gender, Race and Family in Nineteenth Century America Rebecca Fraser,2012-11-16 Sarah Hicks Williams was the northern born wife of an antebellum slaveholder Rebecca Fraser traces her journey as she relocates to Clifton Grove the Williams slaveholding plantation presenting her with complex dilemmas as she reconciled her new role as plantation mistress to the gender script she had been raised with in the North The Heritage of Blacks in North Carolina Linda Simmons-Henry,Philip N. and the self made man has its origins in an American slavery predicated on the abhorrent notion that human beings could be legally owned and compelled to work under force of violence Drawing on the expertise of sixteen scholars who are at the forefront of rewriting the history of American economic development Slavery s Capitalism identifies slavery as the primary force driving key innovations in entrepreneurship finance accounting management and political economy that are too often attributed to the so called free market Approaching the study of slavery as the originating catalyst for the Industrial Revolution and modern capitalism casts new light on American credit markets practices of offshore investment and understandings of human capital Rather than seeing slavery as outside the institutional structures of capitalism the essayists recover slavery s importance to the American economic past and prompt enduring questions about the relationship of market freedom to human freedom Contributors Edward E Baptist Sven Beckert Daina Ramey Berry Kathryn Boodry Alfred L Brophy Stephen Chambers Eric Kimball John Majewski Bonnie Martin Seth Rockman Daniel B Rood Caitlin Rosenthal Joshua D Rothman Calvin Schermerhorn Andrew Shankman Craig Steven Wilder History and Genealogy of the Boykin Family Anne Jacobs Boykin Murphy,1964 Edward Boykin an early Virginia settler was born in 1650 North Carolina Faces the Freedmen Roberta Sue Alexander,1985 North Carolina Architecture Catherine W.
