

A dark, moody photograph of a tree branch with a reflection in water. The branch is dark and gnarled, extending from the left side of the frame. The water is dark and still, reflecting the branch and the sky. The sky is a mix of dark blue and purple, suggesting a twilight or night scene. The overall tone is somber and mysterious.

The Other Side Of Darkness By Derrick Jensen

Derrick Jensen

The Other Side Of Darkness By Derrick Jensen:

A Language Older Than Words Derrick Jensen, 2004-03-01 At once a beautifully poetic memoir and an exploration of the various ways we live in the world A Language Older Than Words explains violence as a pathology that touches every aspect of our lives and indeed affects all aspects of life on Earth This chronicle of a young man's drive to transcend domestic abuse offers a challenging look at our worldwide sense of community and how we can make things better

Anarcho-primitivism , The Culture of Make Believe Derrick Jensen, 2004-03-30 Derrick Jensen takes no prisoners in The Culture of Make Believe his brilliant and eagerly awaited follow up to his powerful and lyrical A Language Older Than Words What begins as an exploration of the lines of thought and experience that run between the massive lynchings in early twentieth century America to today's death squads in South America soon explodes into an examination of the very heart of our civilization The Culture of Make Believe is a book that is as impeccably researched as it is moving with conclusions as far reaching as they are shocking

Walking on Water Derrick Jensen, 2005-04-30 Remember the days of longing for the hands on the classroom clock to move faster Most of us would say we love to learn but we hated school Why is that What happens to creativity and individuality as we pass through the educational system Walking on Water is a startling and provocative look at teaching writing creativity and life by a writer increasingly recognized for his passionate and articulate critique of modern civilization This time Derrick Jensen brings us into his classroom whether college or maximum security prison where he teaches writing He reveals how schools perpetuate the great illusion that happiness lies outside of ourselves and that learning to please and submit to those in power makes us into lifelong clock watchers As a writing teacher Jensen guides his students out of the confines of traditional education to find their own voices freedom and creativity Jensen's great gift as a teacher and writer is to bring us fully alive at the same moment he is making us confront our losses and count our defeats It is at the center of Walking on Water a book that is not only a hard hitting and sometimes scathing critique of our current educational system and not only a hands on method for learning how to write but like Julia Cameron's The Artist's Way a lesson on how to connect to the core of our creative selves to the miracle of waking up and arriving breathless but with dry feet on the far shore

Thought to Exist in the Wild Derrick Jensen, 2007 Provides a history of zoos examines the faults of zoos and argues for their dissolution

Dreams Derrick Jensen, 2011-01-04 Jensen's furthest reaching book yet Dreams challenges the destructive nihilism of writers like Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris who believe that there is no reality outside what can be measured using the tools of science He introduces the mythologies of ancient cultures and modern indigenous peoples as evidence of alternative ways of understanding reality informed by thinkers such as American Indian writer Jack Forbes theologian and American Indian rights activist Vine Deloria Shaman Martin Prechtel Dakota activist and scholar Waziyatawin and Okanagan Indian writer Jeannette Armstrong He draws on the wisdom of Dr Paul Stamets author of Mycelium Running How Mushrooms Can Help Save the World sociologist Stanley Aronowitz who discusses science's lack of accountability to the earth and many more. As in his other books, Jensen draws heavily from his own life experience living alongside the frogs, redwoods, snails, birds, and bears of the upper northwest about which he writes with exquisite tenderness. Having taken on the daunting task of understanding one's dreams as a source of knowledge, Jensen achieves the near impossible in this breathtakingly brave and ambitious new work.

How Shall I Live My Life? Derrick Jensen, 2011-01-26

In this collection of interviews, Derrick Jensen discusses the destructive dominant culture with ten people who have devoted their lives to undermining it. Whether it is Carolyn Raffensperger and her radical approach to public health or Thomas Berry on perceiving the sacred, be it Kathleen Dean Moore reminding us that our bodies are made of mountains, rivers, and sunlight or Vine Deloria asserting that our dreams tell us more about the world than science ever can, the activists and philosophers interviewed in How Shall I Live My Life each bravely present a few of the endless forms that resistance can and must take. Interviews include George Draffan, Jesse Wolf Hardin, Vine Deloria, David Abram, Steven Wise, Jan Lundberg, David Edwards, Thomas Berry, Carolyn Raffensperger, and Kathleen Dean Moore.

Songs of the Dead Derrick Jensen, 2009-03-01

A serial killer stalks the streets of Spokane, acting out a misogynist script from the dark heart of this culture. Across town, a writer named Derrick has spent his life tracking the reasons: political, psychological, spiritual, for the sadism of modern civilization. And through the grim nights, Nika, a trafficked woman, tries to survive the grinding violence of prostitution. Their lives and the forces propelling them are about to collide. Derrick's current project is a book called Possession, which asks the ontological question of who is responsible for the culture of domination that's destroying the earth. Who actually benefits from a dead planet, the endgame that's fast approaching? What if the answer is something way bigger than humans? Meanwhile, with motivations opposite to Derrick's, the serial killer is asking much the same question of the women he kidnaps as his final act of possession, and Nika is next. Derrick's metaphysical explorations suddenly take on more urgency as visions, both terrifying and sacred, begin to intrude, and past and future collapse without warning. All Derrick knows is Nika's name and her impending death. The only person who believes him is his partner, Allison, a woman with both strengths and scars whose past has led her to a commitment to justice, no matter what the cost. As the visions intensify and the killer draws nearer, Derrick and Allison are compelled to act, making themselves the next targets. Derrick must learn to negotiate a world of spirits and demons, living and dead, before it's too late. And what hangs in the balance is not just their lives but also the fate of life on earth. With Songs of the Dead, Derrick Jensen has written more than a thriller. This is a story lush with rage and tenderness on its way to being a weapon.

policy issues Truths Among Us Derrick Jensen, 2011-09-01 From Derrick Jensen acclaimed author of Endgame and The Culture of Make Believe comes a prescient thought provoking collection of interviews with ten leading writers philosophers teachers and activists To function in this society we are asked to live by lies that humans have the right to take what they want from the earth without giving back that knowledge is limited to that which can be quantified that corporations and governments know what is best for our future Our instinctive outrage at environmental collapse political conspiracy and corporate corruption is stifled by the double speak of popular opinion telling us that the progress of civilization demands unquestioning allegiance to those in power But the brave voices in Truths Among Us seek to help us acknowledge the values we know in our hearts are right and inspire within us the courage to act on them Among those who share their wisdom here is acclaimed sociologist Stanley Aronowitz who shows us that science is but one lens through which we can discover knowledge Luis Rodriguez poet and peacemaker asks us to embrace gang members as people instead of stereotypes while the brilliant Judith Herman helps us gain a deeper understanding of the psychology of abusers in whatever form they may take Paul Stamets reveals the power of fungi whose intelligence like that of so many nonhumans is often ignored And writer Richard Drinnon reminds us that our spiritual paths need not be narrowed by the limiting mythologies of Western civilization Following How Shall I Live My Life and Resistance Against Empire Jensen s third collection of interviews reinforces a simple premise with which he has long challenged his readers if we shut our ears and eyes to the cacophony of consumption oriented distractions and pause to listen to the wisdom of our own hearts the truths among us will reveal themselves Interviewees include George Gerbner Stanley Aronowitz Luis Rodriguez Judith Herman John Keeble Richard Drinnon Paul Stamets Marc Ian Barasch Mart n Prechtel and Jane Caputi Monsters Derrick Jensen, 2017-10-01 Monsters is an illustrated collection of wild weird and whimsical tales with a twist These stories are not about mythical creatures here the creatures speak for themselves There s an orc who hates Tolkien a young demon awash in teenage angst an angel abandoned by Jesus who finds the Fates Jensen creates a world both delicately dreamlike and all too real where the villain is sometimes the victim and evil is not always what we thought If stories teach us how to be human then the stories in Monsters are the ones we need now These are fractured fairy tales for grown ups where the roots of sadism are laid bare and the horrors of human supremacism are firmly faced But as in all of Jensen s work love is both always possible and also a call to action By turns macabre melancholy and magical these stories and their accompanying images will leave you wondering who the real monsters are and how they can be defeated Listening to the Land Derrick Jensen, 2004-03-01 In this far ranging and heartening collection Derrick Jensen gathers conversations with environmentalists theologians Native Americans psychologists and feminists engaging some of our best minds in an exploration of more peaceful ways to live on Earth Included here is Dave Foreman on biodiversity Matthew Fox on Christianity and nature Jerry Mander on technology and Terry Tempest Williams on an erotic connection to the land With intelligence and compassion Listening to the Land moves
