The River King By Alice Hoffman:

The River King Alice Hoffman, 2001 For a century the town of Haddan Massachusetts has been divided as if by a line separating those born and raised in the village from those who attend the prestigious Haddan School But sudden death is an equalizer and a revealer of secrets The River King Alice Hoffman, 2000 The River King Alice Hoffman, 2013-03-31 For more than a century the small town of Haddan Massachusetts has been divided as if by a line drawn down the centre of Main Street separating those born and bred in the village from those who attend the prestigious Haddan School But one October night the two worlds are thrust together by an inexplicable death and the town's divided history is revealed in all its complexity The lives of everyone involved are unravelled from Carlin Leander the fifteen year old scholarship girl who is as loyal as she is proud to Betsy Chase a woman running from her own destiny from August Pierce a loner and a misfit at school who unexpectedly finds courage in his darkest hour to Abel Grey the police officer who refuses to let unspeakable actions both past and present slide by without notice The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource The Novel Cure Ella Berthoud, Susan Elderkin, Indrajit Hazra, 2014-08-01 Whether you have a stubbed toe or a stubborn case of the blues within these pages you'll find a cure in the form of a novel or a combination of novels to help ease your pain You'll also find advice on how to tackle common reading ailments such as what to do when you feel overwhelmed by the number of books in the world or if you have a tendency to give up halfway through When read at the right moment in your life a novel can quite literally change it and The Novel Cure is a reminder of that power Written with authority passion and wit here is a fresh approach to finding new books to read and an enchanting way to revisit the books on your shelves Blackbird House Alice Hoffman, 2013-01-31 From the great May storm in 1778 when John Hadley and his sons slip the British blockade off the coast of Massachusetts only to disappear at sea the lives of the inhabitants of the wooden farmhouse on the cape stranded amid fields of sweet peas and wild fruit vines and red pear trees coil and weave around each other right up to the present Young Isaac Hadley is more interested in his pet blackbird and the star charts in The Practical Navigator than in helping to build the house and Violet a century later with her stained face and her own ghostly bird reads the same book and finds that it's easy enough to trick a learned man though harder to catch one Larkin Howard is ready to sell his soul to buy the farm but meets a woman who hears the whales cry on the beach while in another century the young Farrell boy sees more than he should on a snowy night and the pond out back is still dark and unforgiving beneath its deceptively golden lilies By the 1950s the farmhouse is part of a community of steady men and wayward boys and women who make jam but still feel the ghostly breath of Cora Hadley with her green fingers As a second century draws to a close and summer visitors from the cities take over the countryside the house can barely hold all its ghosts but the tragedies are not over With a sense of place that is uncanny and vividly real characters whose lives don't run smooth and whose stories loop together across space and time this is a remarkable haunting and accomplished work from a favourite novelist an irresistible fiction about a house for all seasons My Son Wears

Heels Julie Tarney, 2016-09-06 A loving mother shares her journey of parenting a gender creative child from toddler to adult

The Probable Future Alice Hoffman, 2013-01-31 When the women in the Sparrow family reach thirteen they develop a unique ability In young Stella's case the gift which is both a blessing and a curse is the ability to see a person's probable future Stella foresees a gruesome murder and tells her charming feckless father about it but it is too late the murder has already been committed and suspicion falls on him Hoffman unlocks the caskets of family life and the secret history of a community in this magical story about young love and old love about making choices usually the wrong ones about foresight and consequences all suffused with the haunting scent of roses and wisteria and the hum of bees on a summer evening

Conversations with Heaven Theresa Cheung, 2016-07-05 From the Sunday Times bestselling author of An Angel Healed Me comes a riveting collection of true life accounts of people who have had contact with departed loved ones Based on her own personal experiences and the experiences of ordinary people bestselling author Theresa Cheung has assembled a collection of comforting and startling stories about contact with the departed The book reaffirms that the spirit world is ever present in our lives and it is possible to reconnect with those we have loved and lost Using first hand accounts from people whose lives have been transformed by communication from those who have passed on Theresa shows that you can begin your own dialogue with heaven offering comfort to those grappling with the loss of a loved one The book concludes with a how to section to help readers find their own way to talk to heaven Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim
