challenges facing Afghan children across class gender and region but also offers solutions to the problems they face With nearly half of the population under the age of fifteen the future of the country no doubt lies with its children Those who seek peace for the region must find solutions to the host of crises that have led the United Nations to call Afghanistan the worst place on earth to be born The authors of Children of Afghanistan provide child centered solutions to rebuilding the country's cultural social and economic institutions Back cover

In Arabian Nights Tahir Shah, 2009-06-30 Shortly after the 2005 London bombings Tahir Shah was thrown into a Pakistani prison on suspicion of spying for Al Qaeda What sustained him during his terrifying weeks long ordeal were the stories his father told him as a child in Morocco Inspired by this on his return to his adopted homeland he embarked on an adventure worthy of the mythical Arabian Nights going in search of the stories and storytellers that have nourished this most alluring of countries for centuries Wandering through the medinas of Fez and Marrakech criss crossing the Saharan sands and tasting the hospitality of ordinary Moroccans he collected a treasury of traditional stories recounted by a vivid and eccentric cast of characters from master masons who work only at night to Sufi wise men who write for soap operas and Tuareg guides addicted to reality TV Himself a link in the chain of scholars and teachers who have passed such tales down from father to son mother to daughter Shah reveals a world and a way of thinking that most visitors to Morocco barely know exist
