The Moons A Balloon By David Niven:

The Moon's a Balloon David Niven, 1994 Takes readers back to David Niven's childhood days his humiliating expulsion from school and to his army years and wartime service After the war he returned to America and there came his Hollywood success in films such as Wuthering Heights and Around the World in 80 Days The Other Side of the Moon Sheridan Morley, 1985 This compassionate account goes past the blithe persona Niven presented both on screen and in his memoirs into his failings disappointments and tragedies Born in London in 1910 the future suave performer tempted expulsion with schoolboy devilry he later served in the British army before emigrating to the U S His film career started in 1934 and lasted nearly to his death in 1983 but he failed to achieve stardom The terrible sorrow of Niven's life was the death of his wife Primula killed in a fall during her 20s when their sons were babies His second marriage to a Swedish model was unhappy There were other romantic involvements in Niven's life and many facets to his career that Morley reveals During World War II for instance he gave up Hollywood and returned to his homeland to fight for England yet was so afraid of poverty that throughout his career he accepted demeaning parts in many movies The moon's other side was darkest at the end when Niven succumbed to amyotrophic lateral sclerosis or Lou Gehrig's disease The Moon's a Balloon David Niven, 1971
