A Little Night Magic:

A Little Night Magic Angie Fox, 2017-01-01 A Little Night Magic Selene Kismet, 2015-01-11 A wizard tries to convince a witch that she's not the only one hot and bothered when they're spending time together. Magic and mischief ensue. Sean Verin has had a crush on his friend Lori Price since they were in Somerset. Witch, the only long-term relationship he's had since the Academy days, has been he's had with another wizard and to his shame he's never bothered to correct their assumptions. When Lori shows up at Sean's door heartbroken over Adrian's betrayal, Sean comforts her and longs to show her how he really feels. Can he convince her he wants to be more than just a temporary fix? A Little Night Magic is a novelette of 11,000 words.

A Little Night Magic Lucy March, 2013-12-31 Delightful and delicious. Every word I devoured had me craving more. Tobias and Olivia's journey was touching, magical, and utterly romantic. I cannot recommend this book enough. Lucy March is destined to be a superstar. Darynda Jones, author of the Charley Davidson series, Olivia Kiskey has been working at the same waffle house since she was a teenager. She's been in love with the same man for the last four years; he's never made a move. Every Saturday night she meets up with the same friends over the same margaritas for the same old stories. But now everything is about to change because magic is coming to Olivia's town. It's time to discover who she really is, time to let loose the talents she's held in check for so long. A sweet, funny tale of self-discovery, friendship, and trust. It's the down-to-earth humour and humanity of a fiercely loyal and likable clique of smalltowners who'll keep new fans waiting for March's next trick. Publishers Weekly. A page-turning plot held together with a cast of quirky and unusual characters who help to make this a most enjoyable read. Part urban fantasy, part paranormal romance, all mixed together with a soft scoop of southern hospitality. Serendipity Reviews.

A Little Night Music Ruskin Bond, 2004 This first-time collection of poems by India's most-loved author of the Hills is quintessential Ruskin Bond: lucid, effortless, and beautifully written. The collection brings together some heartwarming poems about nature and wildlife, imaginative almost cinematic forays into the poet's dreams and nightmares, and some humorous interludes about his driving skills or lack thereof. These and many other poems make for an absorbing and deeply satisfying read for poetry and Ruskin Bond buffs of all ages. The poems are accompanied by vivid and intelligent pen and ink sketches.
