selecting PhD examiners How should examiners assess a doctoral thesis and conduct the viva The doctoral examination process has been shrouded in mystery and has been a source of anxiety and concern for students supervisors and examiners alike But now help is at hand This book sheds new light on the process providing constructive ways of understanding the doctoral examination preparing for it and undertaking it This book stands alone in the field due to the extensive research undertaken by the authors Over a four year period surveys and interviews were undertaken with candidates and academics from a wide range of disciplines throughout Britain Outcomes and ideas from the research have been united to provide the most comprehensive information available Real life accounts and case studies are combined with useful advice tasks and checklists to create an illuminating handbook This user friendly book is a vital resource for anyone involved in the doctoral process No doctoral candidate examiner or supervisor should be without it Enhancing the Doctoral Experience Steve Hutchinson, Helen Lawrence, 2017-03-02 One of the major intangible benefits associated with the postgraduate research experience is precisely that the experience And more specifically for an increasing number of international research students the British doctoral experience This experience is often largely defined and shaped by their relationship with and support from their supervisor Enhancing the Doctoral Experience brings together the authors experience and research frameworks and models as well as pragmatic feedback and understanding This synthesis of scholarly theory and pragmatic sampling has produced a book that provides a scaffold for students and supervisors to have conversations about their expectations to discuss what supervision is to articulate clearly what both parties need in order for a successful relationship to occur and to build a mutually beneficial endeavour In many cases these conversations can be complicated by cultural and linguistic differences so the text explicitly addresses these and other sources of misunderstanding Against a challenging background of growing numbers of students but also increasing pressures on time and costs Enhancing the Doctoral Experience offers an approach to improve the effectiveness of the doctoral student and increase the professionalization of research supervision It does so by providing both with an awareness of and a toolkit to approach student diversity Handbook for Supervisors of Doctoral Students in Evangelical Theological Institutions Ian J. Shaw, Kevin E. Lawson, 2015-10-30 Theological education is a vital aspect of Christian mission The training of evangelical doctoral students in theological subject areas is therefore an important part of the mission of God This handbook presents doctoral supervision as a task involving both academic and spiritual formation Designed to be practical and relevant and to encourage self reflection at both individual and institutional levels it combines theological foundations with educational theory accompanied by questions exercises and case studies to develop doctoral level skills Central to the theme of this handbook is the promotion of excellence in academic training combined with a strong focus on the spiritual and pastoral dynamics of supervision a combination that evangelical students desperately need from their supervisors How to Get a PhD - 4th Edition Estelle M. Phillips, Estelle Phillips, Derek. S. Pugh, 2005-06 This book examines everything students need to know about getting a PhD through research in any subject It also helps supervisors and examiners to better understand their role in the process Doctoral Supervision and Research Culture Karen Clegg, Gillian Houston, Owen Gower, 2024-05-29 Drawing on original survey data reflective accounts and case studies of supervisory practice in different disciplines Doctoral Supervision and Research Culture explores the supervisor experience and demonstrates the craft compassion and consistency required of supervisors in responding to different researcher's needs Based on empirical data and using the voice of research supervisors the authors throw a spotlight on the challenges and opportunities supervisors face in supporting doctoral researchers through to successful PhD completion This book acts as an invitation to institutions funders industry and academics to review what and how they support PhD provision and to elevate the status of supervision practice It shows how research cultures disciplinary institutional and individual affect the supervisory experience and highlight the challenges that supervisors face as well as the rewards that successful supervisory relationships bring It is also a celebration of the contribution that doctoral researchers and all those who support research make to society Designed to provide opportunities for sharing of practice across disciplines and the sector Doctoral Supervision and Research Culture will be of interest to both new and experienced supervisors to staff and researcher developers in institutions and to funders policy makers and senior management in universities who seek to improve and enhance the supervisory experience for all agents Doctoral Supervision in Southern Africa Kakoma Luneta, Jennie Golding, Hileni M.
