A Hard Saying The Gospel And Culture Scripture:

"A Hard Saying" Francis J. Moloney, 2001 In this collection of essays Moloney focuses upon aspects of the New Testament especially from the story of Jesus and the four Gospels which raise issues of contemporary concern John 4:1-42 among the Biblical Well Encounters Eric John Wyckoff, 2020-11-24 In this volume Eric John Wyckoff examines four biblical texts which narrate encounters between a woman and a man at a well The episodes in Genesis 24 and 29 Exodus 2 and John 4 share similar literary features but the contrasts are revealing Their complex interrelation represents an interpretive key

Retelling Scripture Ruth Sheridan, 2012-01-05 Using narrative rhetorical methodologies including characterisation theory this book offers a close reading of the Old Testament citations found in John 1 19 12 15 as they are addressed to the Jews in the narrative shedding new light upon the issue of Johannine anti Judaism Johannine Studies 1975-2017 Francis J. Moloney, 2017-03-13 The voice of Francis J Moloney has been heard in Johannine studies for many decades This volume gathers shorter journal articles from a publishing career that began in 1975 placing them together with new studies that appear for this first time and thus complementing Moloney's already well known commentary and scholarly monographs on the Fourth Gospel The author's work has encompassed all areas of Johannine scholarship the world that produced and first received the Fourth Gospel its theology and Christology and critical analysis of much discussed passages Well known for his extensive use of narrative and reader response criticism Francis J Moloney has in more recent years developed an interpretation of the gospel which suggests that the author's of this narrative regarded their work as the completion of scripture This unique collection therefore not only provides the past publications of a significant Johannine scholar but also reflects the development of Johannine scholarship from 1975 until today The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark

Gregg S Morrison, 2015-02-26 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter's confession 8 27 38 and the Transfiguration 9 2 13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus like manner enabling the reader to see the author's main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter's confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1 1 13 and functions as a mid course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end course conclusion 14 61 62 15 39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8 31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow The Bible in Culture Larry W. Caldwell, 2025-07-08 How to Read and Interpret Scripture Across Cultures How can believers across cultures faithfully read and apply Scripture in a way that honors both the biblical text and their unique cultural contexts In The Bible in Culture

Larry Caldwell introduces ethnohermeneutics a revolutionary yet biblical approach to reading Scripture with rather than for the world Drawing from decades of experience living overseas Caldwell demonstrates that every culture has its own tools for understanding meaning and shows how God uses these to communicate the truth of his word This approach is rooted in observing how Jesus Paul and others in the early church interpreted Scripture and in following their examples Through real life illustrations interactive activities and case studies readers will discover how they can also read and interpret God s word in their own cultures This book will challenge your assumptions about the interpretive task encouraging and equipping you to rethink how the Bible can be understood across every people group in various cross cultural multicultural and multigenerational contexts

Narrative Discipleship Jeffrey W. Aernie, 2018-07-26 Narrative Discipleship examines the thematic and theological impact of women in the Gospel of Mark Using narrative analysis Aernie explores how Mark intentionally crafts the narratives of women in the Gospel to extend his portrait of discipleship Mark portrays these women as exemplars of four key aspects of discipleship restored life kingdom speech sacrificial action and cruciformity These portraits of discipleship provide a transformative paradigm for Mark s audience Mark creates a portrait of narrative discipleship as a means to encourage his audience toward embodied discipleship and faithful participation in God s in breaking kingdom

The Gospel of Mark Francis J. Moloney, SDB, 2012-05-01 The Gospel of Mark addressed to an early Christian community perplexed by failure and suffering presents Jesus as suffering Messiah and Son of God Recognizing that failure and suffering continue to perplex Christians today world renowned New Testament scholar and theologian Francis Moloney marries the rich contributions of traditional historical scholarship with the contemporary approach to the Gospels as narrative Now in paperback this commentary combines the highest level scholarship with pastoral sensitivity It offers an accessible and thoughtful reading of Mark s narrative to bring the Gospel s story to life for contemporary readers

The Eyes of Faith Ormond Rush, 2009 Winner of the 2010 Lynlea Rodger Australia Theological Form ATF Press Theological Book Prize The Eyes of Faith presents a systematic theology of the sense of the faithful sensus fidelium and shows the fundamental and necessary interrelationship between sensus fidelium tradition Scripture theology and the magisterium Ormond Rush provides fresh perspectives on a number of issues He proposes that tradition and Scripture are the products of the sensus fidelium and that the inspiration of Scripture is best understood in terms of the Holy Spirit working through the sensus fidelium In addressing the role of the sensus fidei in the lives of individual believers the book provides a unique approach to the way Christians make sense of their faith within the diverse contexts of daily life It shows how the imaginative capacity of the sensus fidei forms a foundational notion for understanding the diversity of spiritualities inculturations and contextualizations of the Gospel in the history of the church up to the present This ecclesial activity of interpreting the Christ event through the sensus fidelium enables the church to proclaim the Gospel in new times and cultures throughout history The Eyes of Faith proposes that for an effective teaching of the faith to contemporary Christians the distinctive roles of the magisterium and of theology must be conceived primarily in terms of and in relationship to the ecclesial Spirit given capacity of the sensus fidelium

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ormond Rush is lecturer of theology and former president of St Paul's Theological College in Banyo Australia and is president of the Australian Catholic Theological Association. He is the author of Still Interpreting Vatican II: Some Hermeneutical Principles and The Reception of Doctrine: An Appropriation of Hans Robert Jauss' Reception Aesthetics and Literary Hermeneutics.

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK In addition to its internal argumentation, the book's extensive footnotes, Scriptural references and Church documents will make it a tremendously valuable tool for advanced researchers in several theological areas including pneumatology, ecclesiology, Scripture studies and hermeneutics. Highly recommended.

C. A. Montevecchio, Choice Some works of scholarship stand out providing a point of reference and showing the way forward. Ormond Rush's study is in this class and it is not surprising that its first release by CUA Press is a splendid hardback volume. This work makes a significant contribution to Catholic Theology.

Rev. John Thornhill, SM, The Australasian Catholic Record Rush provides a theologically perceptive panorama of the sensus fidelium at work in the church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. In addition to offering numerous insights, usually beneficial and sometimes provocative, Rush's study is extraordinarily well researched. This volume is an outstandingly creative and comprehensive theological study of the grace of the Holy Spirit acting through the sensus fidelium in the reception of revelation in the church.

John Ford, C.S.C., Theological Studies Rush has here provided us with a sophisticated study of theological hermeneutics as well as a foundational work in ecclesiology.

Lawrence S. Cunningham, Commonweal This detailed and well argued book explores the phenomenon of reception in both the Bible and in contemporary Roman Catholic tradition. An insightful study for those interested in the newest wave of Roman Catholic dogmatic theology which tends to draw deeply from biblical sources as well as Vatican teaching, this book genuinely advances discussions of the doctrine of reception.

Understanding the Bible as a Scripture in History, Culture, and Religion James W. Watts, 2021-04-26

UNDERSTANDING THE BIBLE AS A SCRIPTURE IN HISTORY, CULTURE AND RELIGION The Bible is a popular subject of study and research, yet biblical studies gives little attention to the reason for its popularity: its religious role as a scripture. Understanding the Bible as a Scripture in History, Culture and Religion integrates the history of the religious interpretation and ritual uses of biblical books into a survey of their rhetoric, composition and theology in their ancient contexts. Emphasizing insights from comparative studies of different religious scriptures, it combines discussion of the Bible's origins with its cultural history into a coherent understanding of its past and present function as a scripture. A prominent expert on biblical rhetoric and the ritualization of books, James W. Watts describes how Jews and Christians ritualize the Bible by interpreting it by expressing it in recitations, music, art and film, and by venerating the physical scroll and book. The first two sections of the book are organized around the Torah and the Gospels, which have been the focus of Jewish and Christian ritualization of scriptures from ancient to modern times, and treat the history of other biblical books in relation to these two.

central blocks of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament In addition to analyzing the semantic contents of all the Bible s books as persuasive rhetoric Watts describes their ritualization in the iconic and expressive dimensions in the centuries since they began to function as a scripture as well as in their origins in ancient Judaism and Christianity The third section on the cultural history and scriptural function of modern bibles concludes by discussing their influence today and the controversies they have fueled about history science race and gender Innovative and insightful Understanding the Bible as a Scripture in History Culture and Religion is a groundbreaking introduction to the study of the Bible as a scripture and an ideal textbook for courses in biblical studies and comparative scripture studies

Remembering a Dream Francis J. Moloney, 2024-04-01

In order to mark the bicentenary of the foundational dream that Saint John Bosco experienced when only nine years of age 1824 this book offers readers reflections on a number of biblical and theological themes that emerge from the simplicity yet depth of that dream In the first place certain elements from the life and person of Jesus are presented as the model for a so called Salesian spirituality and life style Those elements are outlined as an awareness that Jesus never abandons his fragile disciples and that a genuinely Christian education writes on the hearts of the young They are never abandoned in the challenging all pervasive secularity of contemporary society It closes with a summons to a deeper awareness of the universal possibility of the perfection of love as Saint Francis de Sales 1567 1622 taught well before his fellow Savoyard John Bosco 1815 1888

Cultural Christianity Andrew McKinney, 2023-05-03 There is a messy secret within the Western evangelical church and it is starting to get out We re not who we think we are and it is becoming painfully obvious to the rest of the world around us The secret We have abandoned the preaching of the true gospel and as a result admitted thousands of people into our local assemblies who are lost and dead in their sin This has landed the evangelical church in utter ruin and devastation Rather than hearing the cross and the gospel of Christ proclaimed in our churches we now hear the relative gospel a gospel of ceremonial works that cannot save anyone And we are facing judgment because of this Scandals wreck whole denominations Sin plagues our congregations and pulpits People remain dead in their sin and the testimony of Christ suffers shame The church is now almost indistinguishable from the secular culture that we are called to reach We have wholly embraced cultural Christianity It is time to face the ugly truth in the mirror and return to the preaching of the true biblical gospel as revealed in Holy Scripture We must return to preaching the fundamental truths of God s Word God is holy in His righteousness Man is dead in his sin and incapable of saving himself Hell awaits any who would dare to trust in anything other than Christ to save them for He alone is our atonement and propitiation Trusting in His death and resurrection is the only means of salvation from sin and hell We must call people to repent of their sin submit to Jesus as Lord trust in Him alone and follow Him It is time to condemn the relative gospel in all of its forms for what it is a false gospel Salvation is not found in a ceremonial ritual politician political party or ideology It is found in Christ alone We must repent turn back to the Bible preach it unashamedly and trust God alone to save It is time to condemn cultural Christianity

Davis, Richard B. Hays, 2003-10-02 The difficulty of interpreting the Bible is felt all over today Is the Bible still authoritative for the faith and practice of the church If so in what way What practices of reading offer the most appropriate approach to understanding Scripture The church s lack of clarity about these issues has hindered its witness and mission causing it to speak with an uncertain voice to the challenges of our time This important book is for a twenty first century church that seems to have lost the art of reading the Bible attentively and imaginatively The Art of Reading Scripture is written by a group of eminent scholars and teachers seeking to recover the church's rich heritage of biblical interpretation in a dramatically changed cultural environment Asking how best to read the Bible in a postmodern context the contributors together affirm up front Nine Theses that provide substantial guidance for the church The essays and sermons that follow both amplify and model the approach to Scripture outlined in the Nine Theses Lucidly conceived carefully written and shimmering with fresh insights The Art of Reading Scripture proposes a far reaching revolution in how the Bible is taught in theological seminaries and calls pastors and teachers in the church to rethink their practices of using the Bible Contributors Gary A Anderson Richard Bauckham Brian E Daley Ellen F Davis Richard B Hays James C Howell Robert W Jenson William Stacy Johnson L Gregory Jones Christine McSpadden R W L Moberly David C Steinmetz Marianne Meyers Thompson ,

African Pentecostalism, the Bible, and Cultural Resilience Biri, Kudzai, 2020-04-30 This volume based on a PhD thesis submitted to the University of Zimbabwe investigates the resilience of Shona religion and culture among ZAOGA Pentecostal Christians Whereas the Pentecostal ideology suggests that old things have passed away it appears that old things continue to have high significance for the new The book demonstrates how belief in avenging spirits witches and witchcraft value of words spoken prior to death the role status and significance of women belief in unnatural events liturgy and salvation have remained relevant to the lives of ZAOGA Shona converts The patterns of continuity discontinuity extension collaboration contradiction re interpretation and rejection between Shona traditional religion and culture and ZAOGA are explored challenging the framing of African Pentecostalism as a mere imitation and parroting of US theology The conclusion is that while ZAOGA self consciously presents itself as a sophisticated trans national and progressive Pentecostal movement members continue to wrestle with Shona indigenous beliefs and practices An African womanist framework is adapted to challenge ZAOGA to promote the well being of women
