A History Of Family Planning In Twentieth Century Peru:

A History of Family Planning in Twentieth-century Peru Raúl Necochea López, 2014 History of Family Planning in Twentieth Century Peru Itinerant Ideas Joanna Crow, 2022-09-10 This book explores how ideas about race travelled across national borders in early twentieth century Latin America It builds on a vast array of scholarly works which underscore the highly contingent and flexible nature of race and racism in the region The framework of the nation state dominates much of this scholarship in part because of the important implications of ideas about race for state policies This book argues that we need to investigate the cross border elaboration of ideas that informed and fed into these policies It is organized around three key policy areas labour cultural heritage and education and focuses on conversations between Chilean and Peruvian intellectuals about the indigenous question Most historical scholarship on Chile and Peru draws attention to the wars fought in the nineteenth century and their long term consequences which reverberate to this day Relations between the two countries are therefore interpreted almost exclusively as antagonistic and hostile Itinerant Ideas challenges this dominant historical narrative Contraception and Modern Ireland Laura Kelly, 2023-02-23 The first history of contraception in twentieth century Ireland to explore the lived experiences of Irish men and women and activists

Offshore Attachments Chelsea Schields, 2023-05-23 In this highly original work historian Chelsea Schields illuminates how the contested management of sex and race transformed the Caribbean into a crucial site in the global oil economy By the mid twentieth century the Dutch islands of Curaçao and Aruba housed the world's largest oil refineries To bolster this massive industrial experiment oil corporations and political authorities offshored intimacy circumventing laws regulating sex reproduction and the family in a bid to maximize profits and turn Caribbean subjects into citizens Offshore Attachments reveals that from boom to bust Caribbean people challenged and embraced efforts to alter intimate behaviors in service of the energy economy molding the industry from the ground up Moving from Caribbean oil towns to European metropolises and examining such issues as sex work contraception kinship and the constitution of desire Schields narrates a surprising story of how racialized concern with sex shaped hydrocarbon industries as the age of oil met the end of empire Building the Population Bomb Emily Klancher Merchant, 2021 Building the Population Bomb carefully examines how the rise of the world's human population came to be understood as problematic by scientists and governments across the globe It challenges our assumption of population growth as inherently problematic by demonstrating how it is our anxieties over population growth and not population growth itself that have detracted from the pursuit of economic environmental and reproductive justice The Planning Moment Sarah Blacker, Emily Brownell, Anindita Nag, Martina Schlünder, Sarah Van Beurden, 2024-05-07 Empires and their aftermaths were massive planning institutions in the past two hundred years the natural and social sciences emerged at least in part as modes of knowledge production for imperial planning Yet these connections are frequently under emphasized in the history of science and its corollary fields The Planning Moment explores the myriad ways plans and planning practices pervade recent global history The book is built around twenty seven brief case studies that explore the centrality of planning in colonial and postcolonial environments relationships and contexts through a range of disciplines the history of science science and technology studies colonial and postcolonial studies urban studies and the history of knowledge If colonialism made certain landscapes populations and institutions legible while obscuring others The Planning Moment reveals the frequently disruptive and violent processes of erasure in imperial planning by examining how common sense was produced and how the intransigence of planning persists long after decolonization In recognizing the resistance and subversion that often met colonial plans the book makes visible a range of strategies and techniques by which planning was modified and reappropriated and by which decolonial futures might be imagined Contributors Itty Abraham Benjamin Allen Sarah Blacker Emily Brownell Lino Camprub John DiMoia Mona Fawaz Lilly Irani Chihyung Jeon Robert Kett Monika Kirloskar Steinbach Karen McAllister Laura Mitchell Gregg Mitman Aaron Moore Nada Moumtaz Tahani Nadim Anindita Nag Ra l Necochea L pez Tamar Novick Benjamin Peters Juno Salazar Parre as Martina Schl nder Sarah Van Beurden Helen Verran Ana Carolina Vimieiro Gomes Alexandra Widmer and Alden Young

Medicine and Public Health in Latin America Marcos Cueto, Steven Paul Palmer, 2015 This book provides a clear broad and provocative synthesis of the history of Latin American medicine

The Taste of Nostalgia Amy Cox Hall, 2024-11-26 An exploration of gender race and food in Peru in the 1950s and 1960s and today From the late 1940s to the mid 1960s Peru s rapid industrialization and anti communist authoritarianism coincided with the rise of mass produced cookbooks the first televised cooking shows glossy lifestyle magazines and imported domestic appliances and foodstuffs Amy Cox Hall s The Taste of Nostalgia uses taste as a thematic and analytic thread to examine the ways that women race and the kitchen were foundational to Peruvian longings for modernity both during the Cold War and today Drawing on interviews personal stories media images and archival and ethnographic research Cox Hall considers how elite European descended women and the urban home were central to Peru s modernizing project and finds that all women who labored within the deeply racialized and gendered world of food helped set the stage for a Peruvian food nationalism that is now global in the twenty first century Cox Hall skillfully connects how the sometimes unsavory tastes of the past are served again in today s profitable and pervasive gastronostalgia that helps sell Peru and its cuisine both at home and abroad

Contraception Donna J. Drucker, 2020-04-07 The development manufacturing and use of contraceptive methods from the late nineteenth century to the present viewed from the perspective of reproductive justice The beginning of the modern contraceptive era began in 1882 when Dr Aletta Jacobs opened the first birth control clinic in Amsterdam The founding of this facility and the clinical provision of contraception that it enabled marked the moment when physicians started to take the prevention of pregnancy seriously as a medical concern In this volume in the MIT Press Essential Knowledge series Donna Drucker traces the history of modern contraception outlining the development manufacturing and use of contraceptive methods from the opening of Dr Jacobs s clinic to the present Drucker approaches the subject from the perspective of reproductive justice the right to have a child the right not to have a child and the right to parent children safely and healthily Drucker describes contraceptive methods available before the pill including the diaphragm dispensed at the Jacobs clinic and condom spermicidal jellies and periodic abstinences She looks at the development and dissemination of the pill and its chemical descendants describes technological developments in such non hormonal contraceptives as the cervical cap and timing methods including the rhythm method favored by the Roman Catholic church and explains the concept of reproductive justice Finally Drucker considers the future of contraception the adaptations of existing methods new forms of distribution and ongoing efforts needed to support contraceptive access worldwide

Empires of the Dead Christopher Heaney, 2023 This book explains why Inca mummies and ancient Peruvian skulls filled museums around the world from 1532 to the present and why they tell us more about the colonial violence of science than their more famous Egyptian cousins forum for inter-american research Vol 4 Wilfried Raussert, 2023-07-20 Volume 4 of 6 of the complete premium print version of journal forum for inter american research fiar which is the official electronic journal of the International Association of Inter American Studies IAS fiar was established by the American Studies Program at Bielefeld University in 2008 We foster a dialogic and interdisciplinary approach to the study of the Americas fiar is a peer reviewed online journal Articles in this journal undergo a double blind review process and are published in English French Portuguese and Spanish Reproductive Rights in Modern France Maud Anne Bracke, 2025-07-09 The introduction of the principle of women s reproductive liberty in France tentatively by the family planning movement after 1960 and explicitly by the women s liberation movement after 1970 marked a deep shift transforming public discourses Yet this principle remained fiercely contested and moderate and conservative actors responded by foregrounding notions of reproductive responsibility or the expectation that individuals perform the right sexual and family making behaviour benefiting not only themselves and their families but the nation at large Such responsabilisation underpinned the legal reforms of the 1960s 70s framing a notion of reproductive citizenship based on a tension between individual rights and social norms This book breaks new ground by taking an intersectional approach to the defining moments of this period the legalisation of contraception the laws of 1967 and 1974 and the liberalisation of abortion 1975 1979 Drawing on a wide range of sources and actors including feminist and family planning movements government actors demographers medical professional organisations disability rights groups and key actors in the overseas departments Maud Bracke demonstrates how the discourse of responsabilisation allowed actors to distinguish between citizens worthy of reproductive rights and those seen as less worthy Bracke analyses the distinct regulations regarding contraception in the overseas departments of Guadeloupe and Martinique framed by racialised anti natalism The book also demonstrates that disability rights organisations contributed to the discrediting of the notion of eugenic abortion used among experts and policy makers until the early 1970s Furthermore Bracke goes on to highlight the silence in the feminist movement around both disability rights and race as part of its universalisation of women s conditions of oppression and analyses the emergence of Black Feminism in late 1970s France In so doing the book offers a major contribution to the history of sex gender family life healthcare demography and political debate in post war France and more generally

Health in the Highlands David Carey, 2023-07-11 In the early to mid twentieth century the governments of Ecuador and Guatemala sought to expand Western medicine within their countries with the goals of addressing endemic diseases and improving infant and maternal health These efforts often clashed with indigenous medical practices particularly in the rural highlands Drawing on extensive original archival research historian David Carey Jr shows that indigenous populations embraced a syncretic approach to health combining traditional and new practices At times the governments of both nations encouraged or at least allowed such a synthesis yet they also attacked indigenous lifeways going so far as to criminalize native medical practitioners and to conduct medical experiments on indigenous people without consent Health in the Highlands traces the experiences of curanderos midwives bonesetters witches doctors and nurses and the indigenous people they served Carey interrogates the relationship between progressive public health policy and indigenous well being offering lessons from the past that remain relevant in the present Our best way forward this history suggests may be a compassionate syncretism that joins indigenous approaches to healing with science and a pursuit of environmental and social justice

Abortion and Contraception in Modern Greece, 1830-1967 Violetta Hionidou, 2020-05-15 The book examines the history of abortion and contraception in Modern Greece from the time of its creation in the 1830s to 1967 soon after the Pill became available It situates the history of abortion and contraception within the historiography of the fertility decline and the question of whether the decline was due to adjustment to changing social conditions or innovation of contraceptive methods The study reveals that all methods had been in use for other purposes before they were employed as contraceptives For example Greek women were employing emmenagogues well before fertility was controlled they did so in order to put themselves right and to enhance their fertility When they needed to control their fertility they employed abortifacients some of which were also emmenagogues while others had been used as expellants in earlier times Curettage was also employed since the late nineteenth century as a cure for sterility once couples desired to control their fertility curettage was employed to procure abortion Thus couples did not need to innovate but rather had to repurpose old methods and materials to new birth control methods Furthermore the role of physicians was found to have been central in advising and encouraging the use of birth control for health reasons thus facilitating and speeding fertility decline in Greece All this occurred against the backdrop of a state and a church that were at times neutral and at other times disapproving of fertility control The Sexual Question Paulo Drinot, 2020-03-12 Exploring the links between sexuality society and state formation this is the first history of prostitution and its regulation in Peru Scholars and students interested in Latin American history the history of gender and sexuality and the history of medicine and public health will find Drinot s study engaging and thoroughly researched Critical Medical Anthropology Jennie Gamlin, Sahra Gibbon, Paola M. Sesia, Lina Berrio , 2020-03-12 Critical Medical Anthropology presents inspiring work from scholars doing and engaging with ethnographic research in or from Latin America addressing themes that are central to contemporary Critical Medical Anthropology CMA This includes issues of inequality embodiment of history indigeneity non communicable diseases gendered violence migration substance abuse reproductive politics and judicialisation as these relate to health The collection of ethnographically informed research including original theoretical contributions reconsiders the broader relevance of CMA perspectives for addressing current global healthcare challenges from and of Latin America It includes work spanning four countries in Latin America Mexico Brazil Guatemala and Peru as well as the trans migratory contexts they connect and are defined by By drawing on diverse social practices it addresses challenges of central relevance to medical anthropology and global health including reproduction and maternal health sex work rare and chronic diseases the pharmaceutical industry and questions of agency political economy identity ethnicity and human rights Laboring for the State Rachel Hynson, 2020-01-23 The Cuban revolutionary government engaged in social engineering to redefine the nuclear family and organize citizens to serve the state Intimate Politics Cassia Roth, Diana Paton, 2024-08-23 This book places the intimate experience of fertility control at the heart of political and social approaches toward women s bodies Across the globe women have always controlled their fertility through intimate efforts ultimately tied to larger political processes and gendered power dynamics Women s biological reproductive capabilities have been contested sites of power struggles shaping the formation rule and dissolution of political regimes throughout history Yet these intersections between the intimate and the political remain understudied in the historical literature This book explores these questions from the perspective of multiple time periods geographic locations actors and methods Chapters analyze how women s individual practices of fertility control including contraception abortion and infanticide alongside methods for achieving conception and birth intersected with larger political economic and cultural trends Others problematize the ideas of control in history What did it mean to control one s fertility in different historical periods and geographical regions How did historical actors understand and practise what we now call fertility control How can we expand conventional definitions of fertility control to interrogate ideas related to infertility menstruation and heteronormativity Contributors also highlight how race ethnicity and class intersect with gender to shape if and how women and men approached fertility control This book will be of great value to students and scholars of history including the history of the body women s rights and health equity as well as the intersectionality of gender and health The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Women s History Review Magic Misoprostol Cordelia

Freeman,2025-09-12 This book develops three conceptual lenses around abortion access reproductive justice mobility politics and geographies of knowledge to tell the story of the success of the misoprostol pill
