Last of the Summer Wine Andrew Vine, 2010-09-25 An insider s look at story behind the longest running situation comedy in British television history Quite simply Last of the Summer Wine is the longest running comedy programme in the world It premiered thirty seven years ago in 1973 and after thirty one series it finally came to an end even though all its original protagonists Compo Foggy even Nora Batty are now dead Remarkably for a series of such longevity and international appeal it is all about elderly people has little action or plot and is set and filmed in and around the small Yorkshire town of Holmfirth Now Andrew Vine the deputy editor of Yorkshire s daily newspaper has written the definitive history of this television phenomenon It covers the show s inauspicious beginnings with low ratings its endless reinvention as participants like Bill Owen Michael Bates Brian Wilde and Kathy Staff retired or died the appearance of a string of guest stars from John Cleese and Norman Wisdom to Thora Hird and Russ Abbott both of whom soon found themselves fixtures in the cast and the ingenious plot contrivances as the protagonists became too old and frail to attempt any of the slapstick stunts with runaway prams indeed any outdoor action The town of Holmfirth is now a year round tourist attraction and the endless availability of the show via streaming ensures that Last of the Summer Wine and the book it inspired will live on for generations of fans

All in the Best Possible Taste Tom Bromley, 2010-08-19 Television past as LP Hartley might have once said is another country And in the early 1980s it certainly was a different beast There were still only three channels to watch the evening s programmes finished with the playing of the national anthem and the biggest prize on TV was not Chris Tarrant s million pounds but a speedboat on Bullseye But as Tom Bromley suggests in this funny and warming memoir all that was about to change The 1980s saw the end of the original golden era of television and the beginnings of TV as we know it today In 1982 Channel 4 became the first new terrestrial channel for almost twenty years and by the end of the decade Rupert Murdoch s Sky Television was vying to become Britain s first multi channel provider The result of all this was that slowly but surely British viewers had more choice than ever before and the cost of this choice was the erosion of television as a shared national event And no one felt this change more deeply than Tom Bromley Television played a large part in Tom s childhood His first word was two as in BBC Two and his earliest childhood memory is seeing Johnny Ball at a church fete With great humour and affection Tom Bromley tells the story of a childhood spent with his three siblings and that other all important family member the television set WineSpeak Bernard Klem,2009-07-01 If you read wine reviews you re already either amused or confused by the soaring language wine writers often use to describe what they re smelling and tasting But do you always know what they mean Have you ever sipped a complex white and sensed what s so colorfully described as a peacock s tail Have you ever savored a full bodied red only to detect the ripe acrid smell of a horse stall If not you re in for a treat because these terms and thousands more are all here to amuse dismay enlighten inspire puzzle and utterly shock you Welcome to the rich linguistic universe of wine speak a world where words and wine intersect in an uncontrolled riot of language guaranteed to keep you entertained for hours The author a lifelong lover of both wine and words has compiled and organized this unique thesaurus of 36 975 wine tasting descriptors into 20 special collections extracted from 27 categories so you can locate exactly the right term or phrase to express yourself clearly or to understand others May your path across the galaxy of wine be paved only with labels from the very best bottles on earth Or much more cautiously with wines that could introduce you to angel pee citronella eastern European fruit soup Godzilla iodine ladies underwear mustard gas old running shoes rawhide hot tar roads bubblegum sweaty saddles crushed ants kitchen drains or even turpentine The Horticulturist and Journal of Rural Art and Rural Taste ,1874 Shepard's Guide to Mastering French Wines William S.
