

A LOVELY LOVE STORY

by Edward Monkton

The fierce Dinosaur was trapped inside his cage of ice.
Although it was cold he was happy in there. It was, after all, his cage.

Then along came the Lovely Other Dinosaur.
The Lovely Other Dinosaur melted the Dinosaur's cage with kind words and loving thoughts.

"I like this Dinosaur," thought the Lovely Other Dinosaur.
"Although he is fierce he is also tender and he is funny.
He is also quite clever though I will not tell him this for now."

"I like this Lovely Other Dinosaur," thought the Dinosaur.
"She is beautiful and she is different and she smells so nice.
She is also a free spirit which is a quality I much admire in a dinosaur."

"But he can be so distant and so peculiar at times," thought the Lovely Other Dinosaur.
"He is also overly fond of things. Are all Dinosaurs so overly fond of things?"

"But her mind skips from here to there so quickly," thought the Dinosaur. "She is also uncommonly keen on shopping. Are all Lovely Other Dinosaurs so uncommonly keen on shopping?"

"I will forgive his peculiarity and his concern for things," thought the Lovely Other Dinosaur, "for they are part of what makes him a richly charactered individual."

"I will forgive her skipping mind and her fondness for shopping," thought the Dinosaur,
"for she fills our life with beautiful thoughts and wonderful surprises. Besides, I am not unkeen on shopping either."

Now the Dinosaur and the Lovely Other Dinosaur are old. Look at them. Together they stand on the hill telling each other stories and feeling the warmth of the sun on their backs.

And that, my friends, is how it is with love.
Let us all be Dinosaurs and Lovely Other Dinosaurs together.
For the sun is warm. And the world is a beautiful place.

The shadow between them; or, A blighted name Alex. McVeigh Mrs. Miller, 2023-07-11 In The Shadow Between Them or A Blighted Name Alex McVeigh Mrs Miller intricately weaves a narrative steeped in the complexities of human relationships and societal mores during the late 19th century The novel explores themes of love betrayal and the ever persistent shadow of reputation that looms over its characters Written in a style reminiscent of the psychological realism that characterized the period the narrative invites readers to delve into the inner worlds of its protagonists while engaging with sharp social commentary that provokes reflection on the conventions of the time Alex McVeigh Mrs Miller a prominent figure in the literary scene of his era drew upon his own experiences and observations of Victorian society particularly its rigid social structures and the plight of women His nuanced understanding of interpersonal dynamics coupled with a background in journalism enabled him to craft compelling characters who grapple with the constraints imposed by their environment Through this novel Miller not only sought to entertain but also to illuminate the often overlooked struggles faced by individuals constrained by societal expectations This novel is highly recommended for readers who appreciate literature that blends psychological depth with sharp social critique Miller's acute observations and rich character development offer profound insights into the human condition making it a valuable addition to the canon of 19th century literature Readers interested in the interplay between personal desire and societal constraints will find this work both thought provoking and poignant

Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War
