The Valley of Fear Arthur DOYLE,2018-09-04 Arthur Conan Doyle published The Valley of Fear in serial form in Strand Magazine between September 1914 and May 1915 A book form followed the British serialization in 1915 The manuscript 176 folio pages with Doyle s deletions and revisions shows that Watson was not intended to be the original narrator It is the only Holmes tale to deal directly with Irish issues Like A Study in Scarlet one of the more famous Holmes tales The Valley of Fear features a flashback section inserted after Holmes has put his deductive power to work solving the mystery This places the reader across the Atlantic Ocean and firmly on the solid ground of actual American history The historical impetus behind the plot of The Valley of Fear was the real confrontation between the Pinkerton Detective Agency and members of an Irish secret society known as the Molly Maguires who had emigrated to Pennsylvania Depending on one s point of view the Molly Maguires were either just a collection of mindlessly violent vigilantes who just so happened to have targeted the anti union owners of coal mines or they were guerrilla warriors in the battle for fair and honest treatment of coal miners by an ownership class that wasn t above engaging Pinkerton Detective to dispense their equally violent tactics for keeping the unions under control Conan Doyle had visited America on a lecture tour to great acclaim in the 1890s and returned to New York City in May of 1914 It is likely he discussed The Valley of Fear with his American editor It is also likely that his editor recommended that the American publication elide three words from the second part of the tale coal and iron from the sentence Captain Marvin is my name of the Coal and Iron Police A more neutral word mine was substituted 264 Like The Sign of Four The Hound of the Baskervilles and the origin of Sherlock Holmes A Study in Scarlet The Valley of Fear is no mere short story but rather a fully fleshed out novel length engagement with the most famous resident of Baker Street This description of the work is far more appropriate than say Sherlock Holmes novel since the work shares with A Study in Scarlet and The Sign of Four one of the less popular aspects of the entire Holmes canon that explanatory section in flashback This arguably goes on longer than it probably needs to although to its merit it is indeed a fascinating read It may feel needlessly prolonged for certain readers it consists of more words than the opening section but it is actually a pretty dazzling example of just how inventive a writer Conan Doyle could be when his heart was really in it

The Valley of Fear Arthur DOYLE,2018-08-05 Arthur Conan Doyle published The Valley of Fear in serial form in Strand Magazine between September 1914 and May 1915 A book form followed the British serialization in 1915 The manuscript 176 folio pages with Doyle s

deletions and revisions shows that Watson was not intended to be the original narrator It is the only Holmes tale to deal directly with Irish issues Like A Study in Scarlet one of the more famous Holmes tales The Valley of Fear features a flashback section inserted after Holmes has put his deductive power to work solving the mystery This places the reader across the Atlantic Ocean and firmly on the solid ground of actual American history The historical impetus behind the plot of The Valley of Fear was the real confrontation between the Pinkerton Detective Agency and members of an Irish secret society known as the Molly Maguires who had emigrated to Pennsylvania Depending on one's point of view the Molly Maguires were either just a collection of mindlessly violent vigilantes who just so happened to have targeted the anti union owners of coal mines or they were guerrilla warriors in the battle for fair and honest treatment of coal miners by an ownership class that wasn't above engaging Pinkerton Detective to dispense their equally violent tactics for keeping the unions under control
