more fundamental human emotions at play For Quinn it s like old times a reminder of his past One he doesn t want to revisit Thrown out of the New York Police Department as a liability after the tragic death of his son he probably shouldn t be a cop any longer but maybe he s just what this case needs The investigation leads him through the underbelly of an exotic violent and seedy city to the heart of the Cairo s high command and the possibility that a highly placed spy is feeding the allies most sensitive secrets to Rommel waiting out in the desert Only one woman has seen the killer an American named Amy White The trouble is Joe Quinn s already falling for her and if he doesn t stop the spy soon then not just Amy but everything else he holds dear is certain to be brutally eliminated

Docu-Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova,2019-05-01 Historical writing and fiction are not the same thing though historians often creatively manipulate material in imposing plot structures selecting starting and ending points and fashioning compelling literary characters from historical figures In Docu Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova argues that the opposite is also true war fiction offers a kind of history that both documents its subjects and provides a snapshot of the cultural representation of the United States most recent military involvements She covers a largely neglected body of cinematic and literary texts about the First Gulf War the Balkan War the Afghanistan War and the Iraq War to open a fresh analysis of cultural texts on war Prorokova contends that these texts are not pure fiction but docu fictions works of imagination that can document their subjects while disclosing the social political and historical link between war and culture during the last three decades Docu Fictions of War analyzes how these representational narratives have highlighted a humanitarian rationale behind American involvement in each war whether the stated goals were to free the oppressed from tyranny stop genocide or rid the world of terrorism The book explores the gap between history what allegedly happened and the cultural mythology that is both true and inexact tangible and sensed recognized and undocumented The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003
