The Sea Wolf is a 1904 psychological adventure novel by American writer Jack London. The book's protagonist, Humphrey van Weyden, is a literary critic who is a survivor of an ocean collision and who comes under the dominance of Wolf Larsen, the powerful and amoral sea captain who rescues him. Its first printing of forty thousand copies was immediately sold out before publication on the strength of London's previous The Call of the Wild. The Sea-Wolf by Jack London Jack London, 2021-06-20

The Sea Wolf tells the story of a soft domesticated protagonist, an intellectual man named Humphrey Van Weyden, forced to become tough and self-reliant by exposure to cruelty and brutality. The story starts with him aboard a San Francisco ferry called Martinez, which collides with another ship in the fog and sinks. He is set adrift in the Bay, eventually being picked up by Wolf Larsen. Larsen is the captain of a seal hunting schooner, the Ghost. Brutal and cynical yet also highly intelligent and intellectual, though highly biased in his opinions, as he was self-taught, he rules over his ship and terrorizes the crew with the aid of his exceptionally great physical strength. Van Weyden adequately describes him as an individualist, hedonist, and materialist. Larsen does not believe in the immortality of the soul; he finds no meaning in his life save for survival and pleasure and has come to despise all human life and deny its value. Being interested in someone capable of intellectual disputes, he somewhat takes care of Van Weyden, whom he calls Hump, while forcing him to become a cabin boy, do menial work, and learn to fight to protect himself from a brutal crew. A key event in the story is an attempted mutiny against Wolf Larsen by several members of the crew. The organizers of the mutiny are Leach and Johnson. Johnson had previously been beaten severely by Larsen, and Leach had been punched earlier while being forced to become a boat puller, motivating the two. The first attempt is by sending Larsen overboard; however, he manages to climb back onto the ship. Searching for his assailant, he ventures into the sleeping quarters located beneath the main deck, the only exit being a ladder. Several at least seven men take part in the mutiny and attack Larsen. Larsen, however, demonstrating his inhuman endurance, strength, and conviction, manages to fight his way through the crew, climb the ladder with several men hanging off him, and escape relatively unharmed. Van Weyden is promoted as mate for the original mate had been murdered. Larsen later gets his vengeance by torturing his crew and constantly claiming that he is going to murder Leach and Johnson at his earliest convenience, being the hunting season is done, as he can't afford to lose any crew. He later allows them to be lost to the sea when they attempt to flee on a hunting boat. During this section, the Ghost picks up another set of castaways, including a poet named Maud Brewster. Miss Brewster and van Weyden had known each other previously but only as writers. Both Wolf Larsen and van Weyden immediately feel attraction to her due to her intelligence and female delicacy Van Weyden sees her as his first true love He strives to protect her from the crew the horrors of the sea and Wolf Larsen As this happens Wolf Larsen meets his brother Death Larsen a bitter opponent of his Wolf kidnapped several of Death s crew and forced them into servitude to fill his own ranks lost previously during a storm During one of Wolf Larsen s intense headaches which render him near immobile van Weyden steals a boat and flees with Miss Brewster The two eventually land on an uninhabited island heavily populated with seals They hunt build shelter and a fire and survive for several days using the strength they gained while on the Ghost The Ghost eventually crashes on the island with Wolf Larsen the only crew member As a revenge Death Larsen had tracked his brother bribed his crew destroyed the rigging of the sails and set Larsen adrift at sea It is purely by chance that van Weyden and Miss Brewster meet Larsen again The Sea Wolf - Jack London: Annotated Jack

London,2021-01-17 The Sea Wolf is the harrowing story of a Danish youth named Humphrey Hump van Weyden and his struggles against the sea as well as his own inner demons The narrative is set in the Pacific Ocean and highlights the sheer primordial power of nature More importantly London s narrative explores how nature can affect the carefully ordered reality that people ascribe to themselves Nature tears down the artifices that people put up It reveals deeper and at times darker selves London s characters must journey to find whether or not they can live with what nature reveals about their inner selves Humphrey van Weyden is a product of upper middle class society He hopes to become a great writer one day thus expanding his worldview Because of this desire van Weyden eagerly seeks out adventures and new experiences His desire to experience more of life and his willingness for change in his limited worldview set the stage for his physical and mental journey a journey that will cast him out upon the sea and end in a darkness he never knew was there After the ship van Weyden is journeying on the Martinez has a collision his life is forever changed when the mad captain of a ship called Ghost rescues him London introduces the brooding character of Wolf Larsen a murderous sea captain who works thematically as a counter to the initial naivet of van Weyden Larsen is everything that van Weyden is not a bully self absorbed and uncaring His crew tries to revolt against him several times but he always gains the upper hand Alongside Larsen and van Weyden is Maud Brewster a young poet who is rescued by the Ghost with another set of castaways Though both Larsen and van Weyden fall for Maud she becomes romantically involved with van Weyden thus causing much of the ill feelings and bullying from Larsen toward van Weyden In addition to Larsen s cruel treatment of his crew and van Weyden s growth as a hardened individual the love triangle between the three sets up much of the narrative with van Weyden and Larsen pitted against one another One character can be viewed as already evil introduced to the reader as a corrupted man while the other van Weyden will succumb to inner demons on his perilous journey for new experiences When Larsen falls ill van Weyden and Maud sail away to an island where van Weyden puts all of his knowhow as a hardened sailor to use Meanwhile Larsen has been attacked by his angry brother Death Larsen and the Ghost crashes on the same island where Maud and van Weyden are hiding out Both Maud and van Weyden must fight continuously to overcome all of the trials that Larsen places in their path though nature including human nature will be the final contender for all involved London s narrative is similar to his other tales of hardship and survival in perilous conditions yet it is also unique in its thematic approach to the human condition London s characters in The Sea Wolf must not only face the harsh environment of the unforgiving sea they must face the unforgiving nature found in one another as well as their own natures When not trying to stay alive from the sea van Weyden and Maud must try to survive the cruel taunts and machinations of Larsen Van Weyden himself must also try to fight his own inner demons which have formed from his battles with Larsen and the harsh environment In this way London shows how encounters with the harshness of nature can change a person for better or worse In van Weyden s case the sea corrupts his character thus highlighting that mankind is not above reproach nor is it superior to nature Van Weyden is symbolic of an Everyman standing in for all of mankind His descent into madness is symbolic of man s own darkness something that seemingly lies just under the surface If one is not careful London seems to suggest or if one becomes too boastful or egoistic that inner darkness which is as powerful
