The Stone Angel By Margaret Laurence:

The Stone Angel Margaret Laurence, 2004 The film adaptation of Margaret Laurence's The Stone Angel starring acclaimed actresses Ellen Burstyn and Ellen Page and introducing Christine Horne opens in theatres May 9 2008 This special fortieth anniversary edition of Margaret Laurence's most celebrated novel will introduce readers again to one of the most memorable characters in Canadian fiction Hagar Shipley is stubborn querulous self-reliant and at ninety with her life nearly behind her she makes a bold last step towards freedom and independence As her story unfolds we are drawn into her past We meet Hagar as a young girl growing up in a black prairie town as the wife of a virile but unsuccessful farmer with whom her marriage was stormy as a mother who dominates her younger son and finally as an old woman isolated by an uncompromising pride and by the stern virtues she has inherited from her pioneer ancestors Vivid evocative moving The Stone Angel celebrates the triumph of the spirit and reveals Margaret Laurence at the height of her powers as a writer of extraordinary craft and profound insight into the workings of the human heart Stone Angel Margaret

Nichol, 2002 From Old Woman to Older Women Sally Chivers, 2003 Drawing on the perspective of aging bodies in order to approach the study of contemporary Canadian women's fiction the author seeks to understand body criticism in general because elderly physical experiences lay bare crucial assumptions of thinking through the body It also investigates the mechanisms and effects of constructions of aging in order to combat the automatically negative reactions most readers have to the topic of old age

Margaret Laurence's Epic Imagination Paul Comeau, 2005-12-23 Although at times painfully insecure about her creative ability and achievement Margaret Laurence nevertheless remained fiercely loyal to her artistic vision an archetypal vision of loss exile and redemption that sought comprehensive expression in the epic mode that shapes the Bible Dante's Divine Comedy Milton's Paradise Lost and ultimately the Manawaka world of Hagar Shipley Rachel Cameron Stacey MacAindra and Morag Gunn Paul Comeau traces the development of Margaret Laurence's epic voice from its tentative beginnings in her African fiction to its culmination in the epic Manawaka Cycle a Dantesque journey through an infernal state of self destructive pride out of a purgatorial paralysis of self doubt and on to a kind of paradisaal fulfillment in self knowledge Laurence discovered in epic a fitting mode at once to requite her debt to the ancestors and to break free of their influence to portray the world through the sight of her own eyes In so doing she became the enduring epic voice of a country and a generation The Stone Angel by Margaret Laurence Gillian Maxwell,2003 The Stone Angel Blyth Festival Theatre Archives (University of Guelph),Theatre Passe Muraille Archives (University of Guelph),Margaret Laurence,1991

Introducing Margaret Laurence's The Stone Angel George Woodcock,1989 Stone Angel Margaret Laurence,1988 Canadian Literature K. Balachandran,2007 The Stone Angel Margaret Laurence,1984-04-11 The Stone Angel The Diviners and A Bird in the House are three of the five books in Margaret Laurence s renowned Manawaka series named for the small Canadian prairie town in which they take place Each of these books is narrated by a strong woman growing up in the town and struggling with physical and emotional isolation In The Stone Angel Hagar Shipley age ninety tells the story of her life and in doing so tries to come to terms with how the very qualities which sustained her have deprived her of joy Mingling past and present she maintains pride in the face of senility while recalling the life she led as a rebellious young bride and later as a grieving mother Laurence gives us in Hagar a woman who is funny infuriating and heartbreakingly poignant This is a revelation not impersonation The effect of such skilled use of language is to lead the reader towards the self recognition that Hagar misses Robertson Davies New York Times It is Laurence s admirable achievement to strike with an equally sure touch the peculiar note and the universal she gives us a portrait of a remarkable character and at the same time the picture of old age itself with the pain the weariness the terror the impotent angers and physical mishaps the realization that others are waiting and wishing for an end Honor Tracy The New Republic Miss Laurence is the best fiction writer in the Dominion and one of the best in the hemisphere Atlantic Laurence demonstrates in The Stone Angel that she has a true novelist s gift for catching a character in mid passion and life at full flood As Hagar Shipley daydreams and chatters and lurches through the novel she traces one of the most convincing and the most touching portraits of an unregenerate sinner declining into senility since Sara Monday went to her reward in Joyce Cary s The Horse s Mouth Time Laurence s triumph is in her evocation of Hagar at ninety We sympathize with her in her resistance to being moved to a nursing home in her preposterous flight in her impatience in the hospital Battered depleted suffering she rages with her last breath against the dying of the light The Stone Angel is a fine novel admirably written and sustained by unfailing insight Granville Hicks Saturday Review The Stone Angel is a good book because Mrs Laurence avoids sentimentality and condescension Hagar Shipley is still passionately involved in the puzzle of her own nature Laurence s imaginative tact is strikingly at work for surely this is what it feels like to be old Paul Pickrel Harper s Comparative English Literature Manmohan Krishna Bhatnagar,1999 Comparative Studies Of Literature Constitute An Innovative Strategy To Access Recesses Of Texts Hitherto Unexplored The Perspective Here Is Taken From Other Texts Facilitating A

Rajeshwar, 2000 Anita Desai's work represents a unique blending of the Indian and the Western. Her novels catch the bewilderment of the individual psyche confronted with the overbearing socio-cultural environment and the ever beckoning modern promise of self gratification and self fulfilment in the face of this dual onslaught. Her protagonists male or female Maya Sita Monisha and Amla Sarah Nanda and Raka Bim and Tara Devan Baumgartner are seen poised tentatively at different junctures of the philosophic spectrum applying sociological psychoanalytic structural and other approaches of formal textual analysis. The essays in the present anthology take a fresh look at established works revealing aspects of study hitherto unexplored. Offer critically insightful probes into individual novels and explore the deployment of images symbols and other poetic devices besides diverse narrative strategies. An indispensable source book for students researchers and teachers of Indian English and Commonwealth literature in general and fiction and Anita Desai in particular. An insightful companion for research in sociology and women studies The Crafting of Chaos Hildegard Kuester, 2022-06-08 In this study of the Canadian novelist Margaret Laurence recent narratological models provide the theoretical framework for a textual analysis that aims at complementing previous thematic critiques. The chief focus is on The Stone Angel and The Diviners which the conclusion then presents in the context of the other novels in Laurence's Manawaka cycle. Consideration of the published works is rounded off with genetic comparison of the novelist's typescript drafts and an evaluation of the manuscript notes kept in the archives of McMaster and York Universities. The central structural principle of The Stone Angel is its dovetailing of past and present scenes. Temporal arrangement reflecting the frequency and duration of Hagar's memories reveals the hold of memory over the central character and her attempts to suppress her fear of mortality. Hagar as narrator manipulates character presentation and description to her own advantage. In a basically oppositional structure her need for control is reflected in the neat ordering of the narrative. The verbal texture of the novel serves to establish a value system that insists on the superiority of imported culture over Western Canadian forms. The Diviners shares a number of narrative similarities with The Stone Angel but the latter's formal rigidity has yielded by the time Laurence writes her last novel to the concept of multiplicity characters time planes perspectives and narrative voices including metafictional commentaries Textual coherence is secured via narrative strategies including typography generational paradigms repetition parallelism intertextuality and tropological patterning that render the novel readable and present experience as ordered in a time of cultural flux and personal crisis The Stone Angel /by Margaret Laurence ; Adapted for the Stage by James W. Nichol ; Directed by Maureen White, 1992 - House Program Theatre Passe Muraille Archives (University of Guelph),1992
