ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 4 - The Eighteenth Century Petru Golban, 2022-12-28 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov's line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism Focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source form thematic arrangements ideas motifs character representation strategies intertextual perspectives structural or narrative techniques and other aspects The

Palgrave Guide to English Literature and Its Contexts Peter Widdowson, 2017-03-14 This comprehensive guide to the historical and cultural context of English literature covers the core periods of literature and history from the English Renaissance to the present Peter Widdowson introduces and outlines key terms concepts and developments and provides a series of timelines showing political social cultural and literary events for each year Together this indispensable reference work offers a concise history of Britain for literature students at all levels and provides readers with the context for any literary work from 1500 to 2000 The Palgrave Guide to English Literature and its Contexts 1500 2000 Covers a wide range of canonical British authors and works but also provides contextualising examples of works from other countries Each chapter focuses on a key period in English Literature and History gives a brief overview of that period and defines the main terms and ideas of the age Contains easy to follow timelines which may be viewed either horizontally or vertically allowing readers to track a chronological history or single out the developments and events of a specific year The Cambridge Medieval History: The rise of the Saracens and the foundation of the Western empire, 1964 A History of London from its foundation by the Romans to the accession of Queen Victoria, with ... sketches of the manners and customs of the people in early and later times Charles MACKAY, 1838 Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company, 1982

The Journal of Education, 1897 Books in Series, 1876-1949: Titles, 1982 Killing Children in British Fiction Dominic Dean, 2024-10-01 This book stems from a simple yet disturbing observation contemporary British fiction is full of children killing or being killed Thoughtfully considering novels and films alongside actual murder cases and moral panics Dominic Dean develops this insight into a complex account of British cultural history from the Thatcher to Brexit eras Killing Children in British Fiction argues that the figure of the child provides means for negotiating and hence for understanding recent crises in Britain and their intersections with broader transnational conflicts The book explores works from major British authors such as Kazuo Ishiguro Ian McEwan Doris Lessing Sarah Waters Alan Hollinghurst and Peter Ackroyd emerging writers such as David Szalay and Melissa Harrison and filmmakers including Stanley Kubrick Nicholas Roeg Robin Hardy Derek Jarman and Remi Weekes Bridging and often challenging existing scholarship in childhood studies literary studies psychoanalysis and critical and queer theory Dean shows how the child at once materially present and representative of an insecure future can provoke relentless fantasies fears and most troublingly acts of real violence by adults
