Strawson, 2018-09-14 Peter Strawson 1919-2006 was one of the leading British philosophers of his generation and an influential figure in a golden age for British philosophy between 1950 and 1970 The Bounds of Sense is one of the most influential books ever written about Kant's philosophy and is one of the key philosophical works of the late twentieth century Whilst probably best known for its criticism of Kant's transcendental idealism it is also famous for the highly original manner in which Strawson defended and developed some of Kant's fundamental insights into the nature of subjectivity experience and knowledge at a time when few philosophers were engaging with Kant's ideas The book had a profound effect on the interpretation of Kant's philosophy when it was first published in 1966 and continues to influence discussion of Kant the soundness of transcendental arguments and debates in epistemology and metaphysics generally This Routledge Classics edition includes a new foreword by Lucy Allais Managing Visitor Experiences in Nature-based Tourism Julia N.

Albrecht, 2021-03-19 This book focuses on the experiences of tourists visiting nature based destinations exploring current knowledge and providing insights into conceptual issues through the use of empirical evidence from five continents

Presented as three topics the contents discuss tourism and naturebased experiences by looking at the role and relevance of nature and the uniqueness of such experiences The book identifies visitor management challenges and provides explanations for the solutions reached The final section takes a more overarching destination management perspective that transcends the tourism product or business level and focuses on destination and generic issues like indicators or marketing implications The book also includes research based case studies which contribute to an overall understanding of the core issues involved in managing visitor experiences in nature based tourism
