

A LOSS FOR WORDS

THE STORY OF DEAFNESS IN A FAMILY

"A deeply moving, often humorous, and beautiful account of what it means to be the hearing child of profoundly deaf parents. . . .

[An] extraordinary personal account." —OLIVER SACKS

A painting of a child sitting on a stone ledge in a landscape. The child is wearing a light-colored dress and is looking down. The background shows a field with trees and a sky with soft clouds.

A Loss For Words The Story Of Deafness In A Family:

A Loss for Words Lou Ann Walker, 1987-09-16 From the time she was a toddler Lou Ann Walker was the ears and voice for her deaf parents Their family life was warm and loving but outside the home they faced a world that misunderstood and often rejected them

Mother Father Deaf Paul M. Preston, 1998-07-21 Mother father deaf is the phrase commonly used within the Deaf community to refer to hearing children of deaf parents Preston one of these children takes us to the place where Deaf and Hearing cultures meet His work is based both on personal experience and on 150 interviews with adult hearing children of deaf parents throughout the U S

Seeing Voices Oliver Sacks, 2011-06-16 Seeing Voices is both a history of the deaf and an account of the development of an extraordinary and expressive language Evening Standard Imaginative and insightful Seeing Voices by Oliver Sacks offers a way into a world that is for many people alien and unfamiliar for to be profoundly deaf is not just to live in a world of silence but also to live in a world where the visual is paramount In this remarkable book Sacks explores the consequences of this including the different ways in which the deaf and the hearing impaired learn to categorize their respective worlds and how they convey and communicate those experiences to others

Psychotherapy with Deaf Clients from Diverse Groups Irene Leigh, 1999 Using the premise that deaf people often are a minority within a minority 27 outstanding experts outline in this timely volume approaches to intervention with clients from specific diverse populations With an overview on being a psychotherapist with deaf clients this guide includes information on the diversity of consumer knowledge attitudes beliefs and experiences

Recovering Bodies G. Thomas Couser, 1997-11-01 This is a provocative look at writing by and about people with illness or disability in particular HIV AIDS breast cancer deafness and paralysis who challenge the stigmas attached to their conditions by telling their lives in their own ways and on their own terms Discussing memoirs diaries collaborative narratives photo documentaries essays and other forms of life writing G Thomas Couser shows that these books are not primarily records of medical conditions they are a means for individuals to recover their bodies or those of loved ones from marginalization and impersonal medical discourse Responding to the recent growth of illness and disability narratives in the United States such works as Juliet Wittman s Breast Cancer Journal John Hockenberry s Moving Violations Paul Monette s Borrowed Time An AIDS Memoir and Lou Ann Walker s A Loss for Words The Story of Deafness in a Family Couser addresses questions of both poetics and politics He examines why and under what circumstances individuals choose to write about illness or disability what role plot plays in such narratives how and whether closure is achieved who assumes the prerogative of narration which conditions are most often represented and which literary conventions lend themselves to representing particular conditions By tracing the development of new subgenres of personal narrative in our time this book explores how explicit consideration of illness and disability has enriched the repertoire of life writing In addition Couser s discussion of medical discourse joins the current debate about whether the biomedical model is entirely conducive to humane care for ill and disabled people With its sympathetic critique of the testimony of those most affected by these conditions Recovering Bodies contributes to an understanding of the relations among bodily dysfunction cultural conventions and identity in contemporary America New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart, Stephanie Todd, 2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index the physical body has emerged in the last twenty five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essay will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women s Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and Cognitive Studies For Hearing People Only: 4th Edition Matthew S. Moore, Linda Levitan, 2016-01-14 Answers to Some of the Most Commonly Asked Questions About the Deaf Community its Culture and the Deaf Reality The World of Deaf Infants Kathryn P. Meadow-Orlans, Patricia Elizabeth Spencer, Lynne Sanford Koester, 2004 The World of Deaf Infants presents the results of a 15 year research study that has explored the impact of infant deafness on infant development on the families that support these children Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein, 2005-02-16 Please see Volume I for a full description and table of contents for all four volumes Hollywood Speaks John S. Schuchman, 1988 Once described as the invisible handicap deafness remains a mystery to most Americans From the silent film era to 1986 when deaf actress Marlee Matlin won an Oscar for her performance in Children of a Lesser God Hollywood has reinforced stereotypical views of deafness and deaf people in nearly two hundred movies and television episodes front flap Disability Across the Developmental Life Span Julie Smart, 2011-11-14 This is the only text to provide comprehensive coverage of human growth and development a requirement mandated by the Council of Rehabilitation Education CORE for a master s degree in rehabilitation counseling and for Licensed Professional Counselor certification Written by an eminent leader in the field of disability studies this book reflects a significant change in perceptions of individuals with disabilities from being defined foremost by their disability to being viewed as normal individuals with a disability It provides an understanding of traditional human growth and development that will enhance the practice of disability counseling by enabling an understanding of a client s childhood and prior life experiences The book begins with a focus on developmental theories and tasks followed by a discussion of cultural and ethical considerations in human development It considers the major theories of human development as they relate to people with and without disabilities and career theories with a focus on the concept of choice The book addresses specific developmental stages including a description of developmental tasks risks disability applications specific disabilities common to a particular stage and cultural and ethical issues all supported by case examples Key Features Fulfills the required CORE mandated course on human growth and development and the disability experience Addresses disability across the lifespan in relation to developmental stages Authored by highly a respected expert in disability studies The Time of Your Life Eugenie G. Wheeler,2005-04 Based on Eugenie Wheeler s experiences philosophy reading listening and sense of humor this best of collection of columns deals with both the ups and downs of aging and includes topics on health recreation grandparenting and relationships Tired of stereotypes and myths on aging Wheeler has devoted her career to helping the elderly avoid the pitfalls of depression and isolation and rather find a satisfying life style in the later stages of life Alone in the Mainstream Gina A. Oliva,2004 The author describes her life and experiences as the only deaf child in her public schools Learn American Sign Language, Second Edition James W. Najarian,2013-10-14 The purpose of this book is to illustrate the struggles of Deaf women as they negotiate their family educational and work lives This study demonstrates how these women resist and overcome the various obstacles that are put before them as well as how they work to negotiate their identities as Deaf women in the Deaf community hearing world and the places in between The scope of the book traces these women s lives in these three major sectors of their lives and provides a discussion of the implications for other linguistic minorities Stutter Marc Shell,2009-06-30 In a book that explores the phenomenon of stuttering from its practical and physical aspects to its historical profile to its existential implications Shell who has himself struggled with stuttering all his life plumbs the depths of this murky region between will and flesh intention and expression idea and word Looking into the difficulties encountered by people who stutter as do fifty million world wide Shell shows that stutterers share a kinship with many other speakers both impeded and fluent This book takes us back to a time when stuttering was believed to be diagnosis induced then on to the complex mix of physical and psychological causes that were later discovered Ranging from cartoon characters like Porky Pig to cultural icons like Marilyn Monroe from Moses to Hamlet Shell reveals how stuttering in literature plays a role in the formation of tone narrative progression and character From publisher description Everybody Belongs Arthur Shapiro,2003-09 The evil prosthesis of Captain Hook the comical speech of Porky Pig and the bumbling antics of Mr Magoo are all examples of images in our culture which can become the basis of negative attitudes and subliminal prejudice towards persons with disabilities These attitudes influence and underlie discriminatory acts resulting in negative treatment and segregation A teacher s ability to recognize and counter such images may well determine the success of inclusion and mainstreaming programs in our schools and society Well researched and well written this book offers practical guidance as grounded in solid research to schools that are wrestling with how to mainstream children with disabilities The SAGE Deaf Studies Encyclopedia Genie Gertz,Patrick Boudreault,2016-01-05 The time has come for a new in depth encyclopedic collection of articles defining the current state of Deaf Studies at an international level and using the critical and intersectional lens encompassing the field The emergence of Deaf Studies programs at colleges and universities and the broadened knowledge of social sciences including but not limited to Deaf History Deaf Culture Signed Languages Deaf Bilingual Education Deaf Art and more have served to expand the activities of research teaching analysis and curriculum development The field has experienced a major shift due to increasing awareness of Deaf Studies research since the mid 1960s The field has been further influenced by the Deaf community s movement resistance activism and politics worldwide as well as the impact of technological advances such as in communications with cell phones computers and other devices A major goal of this new encyclopedia is to shift focus away from the Medical Pathological Model that would view Deaf individuals as needing to be fixed in order to correct hearing and speaking deficiencies for the sole purpose of assimilating into mainstream society By contrast The Deaf Studies Encyclopedia seeks to carve out a new and critical perspective on Deaf Studies with the focus that the Deaf are not a people with a disability to be treated and cured medically but rather are members of a distinct cultural group with a distinct and vibrant community and way of being The History of Special Education Robert L. Osgood,2007-11-30 Osgood examines the history of the school lives of children placed in formal or informal special education settings in American public schools during the last 120 years As the public school system in the United States grew throughout the 20th century special education became a recognized and dependable but marginalized arm of public schooling Throughout the 1900s special education emerged as its own world in many ways developing policies practices structures and an identity that became more diverse and inclusive This work describes and interprets the nature and characteristics of special education It examines carefully the human aspects of identification and placement the nature of work and play in the classroom the relationship among students teachers administrators and parents involved in the process the status and relation of children with disabilities to their non disabled peers in various school settings and the impact of school experiences on the lives of these children beyond school
