Depth of Field Michael Blair, 2009-02-09 Photographer Tom McCall's only regret about accepting an assignment from the beautiful Anna Waverley to photograph her boat for a potential buyer is that he has double-booked himself and needs to hand the assignment over to his partner Bobbi. Little does he know how much of a regret it will become. En route to the assignment Bobbi is brutally beaten and left for dead. As his partner lies in a coma Tom searches for an explanation for the attack. Learning that Anna Waverley doesn't actually own the boat she was supposedly interested in selling and in fact that the woman claiming to be Anna Waverley may have been an imposter Tom believes he knows where to start his investigation.

The Dells Michael Blair, 2007-12-03 For Joe Shoe the return to his family home in north Toronto is more than just a trip down memory lane it's also a visit to a crime scene. No sooner has Shoe arrived in his old neighbourhood than he discovers that police are investigating a murder in the ravine near his home. And the murder victim is a man who lived in the neighbourhood 35 years earlier and who moved away while still a suspect in a series of rapes that occurred in the very ravine in which he was ultimately murdered. The police investigation and Shoe's own inquiries become intensely personal as old friends, girlfriends and even family members seem to have a connection to the murder victim and reasons to want him dead. Compelling, deeply emotional and at times even disturbing. The Dells is an accomplished novel by one of Canada's rising stars of crime fiction.
