Graded Written by Alicia Colman, Program Director

Before Reading [5 minutes]

1. Have children look at the cover of the book. Read the title aloud. Then say:

- Use the title, Boundless Grace, and the picture on the cover to tell or predict what you think this book is about. (Answers may vary but children should predict that the book is about a girl named Grace who goes on an adventure with her family.)
- Explain how people may have different families, e.g. single parent, two-parent, blended, etc. Also explain how families travel to learn about new places.

Note: This book does not contain page numbers. You may want to number the pages yourself (starting with #1 on the title page) to make it easier to follow the instructions below.

During Reading [20 minutes]

After reading the pages in each section, direct children to use the text and pictures in the book to support their answers to your questions.

1. Read pages 1-3. Ask:

- Who does Grace live with? (her mother, nana, and cat)
- What was something Grace liked best? (telling stories)
- Why does nana mean when she says that "families are what you make them"? (Answers will vary.)
- Why was Grace speechless when her mother told her about the airline tickets her father sent her? (She had made up so many fathers for herself, she had forgotten what the real one was like.)

2. Read pages 4-9. Point out the contained man on stilts – African Chacale (pronounced chah-kah-lah), which is the traditional African practice of wearing a sacred spilt mask while dancing on stilts. Show students a map (use globe) of Africa and identify the country Gambia.

- What is the setting? (Gambia) Can settings have different settings?
- Why did Grace think her father wouldn't love her anymore? (He had other children now, and in stories, it's always the youngest that is the favorite.)
- Compare/contrast what Grace sees in Gambia to what she might see at her home in America. (Answers will vary.)
