perspective and a theoretical framework for interpreting texts and practices in this wide ranging field Hailed upon its initial publication as the Whole Earth Catalog of autobiography studies this essential book has been updated reorganized and expanded in scope to serve as an accessible and contemporary guide for scholars students and practitioners Sidonie Smith and Julia Watson explore definitions of life narrative probe issues of subjectivity and outline salient features of autobiographical acts and practices In this updated edition they address emergent topics such as autotheory autofiction and autoethnography expand the discussions of identity relationality and agency and introduce new material on autobiographical archives and the profusion of I s in contemporary works Smith and Watson also provide a helpful toolkit of strategies for reading life narrative and an extensive glossary of mini essays analyzing key theoretical concepts and dozens of autobiographical genres An indispensable exploration of this expansive transnational multimedia field Reading Autobiography Now meticulously unpacks the heterogeneous modes of life narratives through which people tell their stories from traditional memoirs and trauma narratives to collaborative life narrative and autobiographical comics Specters of World Literature Mattar Karim Mattar,2020-04-02 At the heart of this book is a spectral theory of world literature that draws on Edward Said Aamir Mufti Jacques Derrida and world systems theory to assess how the field produces local literature as an e other that haunts its universalising assimilative imperative with the force of the uncanny It takes the Middle Eastern novel as both metonym and metaphor of a spectral world literature It explores the worlding of novels from the Middle East in recent years and focusing on the pivotal sites of Middle Eastern modernity Egypt Turkey Iran argues that lost to their global production circulation and reception is their constitution in the logic of spectrality With the intention of redressing this imbalance it critically restores their engagements with the others of Middle Eastern modernity and shows through a new reading of the Middle Eastern novel that world literature is always already haunted by its others the ghosts of modernity

Drawing Thought Andrea Kantrowitz,2022-10-11 Drawing as a tool of thought an investigation of drawing cognition and creativity that integrates text and hand drawn images Drawing is a way of constructing ideas and observations as much as it is a means of expressing them When we are not ready or able to put our thoughts into words we can sometimes put them down in arrangements of lines and marks Artists designers architects and others draw to generate explore and test perceptions and mental models In Drawing Thought artist educator Andrea Kantrowitz invites readers to use drawing to extend and reflect on their own thought processes She interweaves illuminating hand drawn images with text integrating recent findings in cognitive psychology and neuroscience with accounts of her own artistic and teaching practices The practice of drawing seems to be found across almost all known human cultures with its past stretching back into the caves of prehistory It takes advantage of the ways in which human cognition is embodied and situated in relationship to the environments in which we find ourselves We become more aware of the interplay between our external surroundings and the inner workings of our minds as we draw We can trace moments of perception and understanding in a sketchbook that might otherwise be lost and go back to reexamine and revise those traces later Kantrowitz encourages readers to draw out their own ideas and observations through a series of guided exercises and experiments with her lively drawings and engaging text pointing the way Drawing is a tool for thought in anyone's hands it is creativity in action
