Variations of the Hero's Journey in Contemporary British, French and Australian Picture Books about the Great War Martin C. Kerby,Denise Burkhard,Alison Bedford,Marion Gymnich,Margaret M. Baguley,2025-09-30 This book is grounded in the belief that every nation had its own Great War and that children s picture books are an important barometer of each country s national approach To explore the depiction of the Great War in modern Australian British and French children s picture books where this historical event is reimagined in different ways as a futile conflict as a painful victory and as part of one country s founding mythology this book uses the concept of the hero s journey as an underlying framework It claims that this monomythic pattern as developed by Joseph Campbell and modified by Christopher Vogler not only informs all picture books selected for this project but can also be used to highlight the extent to which modern children s picture book authors and illustrators conform to their respective nation s cultural memory It further maintains that the specific historical context of the Great War in these children s picture books can be used to identify a variant of the hero s journey the ordinary soldier s journey This analysis of children s picture books about the Great War through the lens of Campbell s hero s journey will be of interest to both students and researchers in the fields of children s literature literary theory history cultural studies and education

Bringing Leadership to Life in Health: LEADS in a Caring Environment Graham Dickson,Bill Tholl,2014-01-13 Globally the health sector faces significant demands for reform and improvement to meet the needs of the 21st Century To achieve that goal highly sophisticated and capable leaders are required across all dimensions of the health system This book describes the key challenges that demand reform why better leadership is the source code for better system performance and the issues that stand in the way of getting that leadership It includes substantive treatment of the modern democratic challenges that healthcare leaders face and the essence of what it means to be a leader in today s world The essence of leadership itself is described and the case made for the need for people to use the workplace as the place to develop leadership rather than relying solely on formal programs It will also outline a self directed learning process that any individual leader citizen clinician or senior executive can use to develop their own leadership capability and thus become more active as a leader of change This book addresses the need for leaders to think on a system wide scale A second part of the book focuses primarily on the Canadian Health system and LEADS in a Caring Environment capabilities framework and the link between LEADS and frameworks in Australia and the UK LEADS was developed through a partnership between members of the Healthcare Leaders Association of British Columbia and the Canadian College of Health Leaders the Canadian Health Leadership Network and Royal Roads University Currently it is stewarded by a not for profit collaboration that has endorsed LEADS as an evidence informed set of national expectations for Canadian health leaders LEADS has been endorsed by many health organizations in almost all provinces in Canada as a foundation for their talent management programs in leadership development and succession planning The book will address the research foundations for the LEADS framework how it was developed the framework s contents its congruence with other national frameworks and how LEADS can be used as a model to envisage and plan change
