A House In The Sky A Memoir:

A House in the Sky Amanda Lindhout, Sara Corbett, 2013-09-03 The New York Times bestselling memoir of a woman whose curiosity led her to the world's most remote places and then into fifteen months of captivity. Exquisitely told. A young woman's harrowing coming of age story and an extraordinary narrative of forgiveness and spiritual triumph. The New York Times Book Review As a child Amanda Lindhout escaped a violent household by paging through issues of National Geographic and imagining herself visiting its exotic locales. At the age of nineteen working as a cocktail waitress she began saving her tips so she could travel the globe. Aspiring to understand the world and live a significant life she backpacked through Latin America, Laos, Bangladesh and India and emboldened by each adventure went on to Sudan, Syria and Pakistan. In war-ridden Afghanistan and Iraq she carved out a fledgling career as a television reporter. And then in August 2008 she traveled to Somalia the most dangerous place on earth. On her fourth day she was abducted by a group of masked men along a dusty road. Held hostage for 460 days Amanda survives on memory every lush detail of the world she experienced in her life before captivity and on strategy, fortitude and hope. When she is most desperate she visits a house in the sky high above the woman kept in chains in the dark. Vivid and suspenseful as artfully written as the finest novel. A House in the Sky is a searingly unsentimental account. Ultimately it is compassion for her naive younger self for her kidnappers that becomes the key to Lindhout's survival. O The Oprah Magazine

the independent westerner Karell makes the compelling argument that collaboration is an inescapable part of writing fallout At the centre of the book is the exposed and often shifting domain of the domestic threshold Emily Dickinson's doorstep Edward Hopper's doors and windows and Harper Lee's front porch Bayley tracks these historically fragile territories through contemporary literature and film including Cormac McCarthy's No Country For Old Men Lars Von Trier's Dogville and Andrew Dominik's The Assassination of Jesse James By The Coward Robert Ford works that explore local domestic territories as emblems of nation The culturally potent sites of the American home the hearth porch backyard front lawn bathroom and basement are positioned in relation to the more contested sites of the American motel and hotel
