A Handbook On The Letter To The Hebrews Ubs Handbook:

The Letter to the Hebrews Jon C. Laansma, 2017-07-10 The New Testament book of Hebrews offers some of the most memorable passages of Scripture on perseverance faith rest the word of God angels divine discipline salvation the city of God and Christ Son and High Priest Much of its text has spoken with remarkable directness to peoples of all nations down through the centuries At other points it has remained a difficult argument even so it is said a riddle This is a commentary for those who want to follow what this book says follow it both in terms of understanding it and living it The book is divided into thirty seven units and each unit is discussed in terms of literary context background wording themes and possible lines for teaching the text The commentary is written for any adult reader whether they already align with Hebrews faith or are merely curious It is a serious discussion but also direct to the point and uncluttered by qualifications and technicalities Whether you are self studying or preparing to teach or lead discussion this book is prepared for you A Handbook on the Letter to the Hebrews Paul Ellingworth, Eugene Albert Nida, 1994 A verse by verse analysis and commentary on the book of Hebrews by recognized biblical translation experts Special attention is focused on critical words and phrases explaining accepted interpretations noting how various translations have handled these passages and often explaining the nuances of the Greek original text The Place of Paideia in Hebrews' Moral Thought Phillip A. Davis Jr., 2018-10-29 Hebrews 12 1 17 depicts the audience's sufferings as God's discipline But is this discipline a punishment for sin or positive formative training Phillip A Davis Jr examines this question in light of Hebrews ethics ancient corporal punishment practices and the passage's use of Proverbs 3 11 12 Bac cover The Real Royal Family James E. Schultz, 2021-03-26 God made human beings in his image and that is what makes us so valuable Yet there are vastly different ideas of what the image means and how sin affects the image and each of those ideas impacts the claim that the image grounds human value People have treated one another in either horrible or wonderful ways based on their theologies of the image This book examines the logical implications of various image doctrines in the real world Also in Genesis 1 26 27 the image of God is closely tied to the first stated purposes of human life in Genesis 1 28 Yet such practical purposes seem remote from the private spirituality of the gospel story often heard in churches To live out our part in God's creation project we need to understand the image of God within the unfolding story Scripture narrates from creation to new creation This book builds a theology of the image of God by situating it firmly in the biblical narrative harnessing the insights of biblical theology and conversing with theologians past and present to form a coherent story of God his children and his creation in this age and the age to come Going Outside the Camp Richard Johnson, 2001-01-01 Johnson's study of Hebrews is unusual in adopting a social scientific analysis By examining the implicit sociological data in the Epistle to the Hebrews and locating the implied society within the context of the larger Graeco Roman world he concludes that the author of Hebrews advocates an ideal society that is both more open to outsiders and more willing to assimilate fully new members than was first century ce hellenistic Judaism According to the group grid paradigm developed by Mary Douglas the implied society can be categorized as weak group weak grid in contrast to strong group strong grid Hellenistic Judaism The critique of the levitical system in Hebrews can be seen as supporting the author's advocacy of that implied open society A Translator's Handbook on the Letter to the Hebrews Paul Ellingworth, Eugene Albert Nida, 1983

A Discourse Analysis of the Letter to the Hebrews Cynthia Long Westfall, 2006-06-15 This study attempts to analyse the text of Hebrews with a method of discourse analysis primarily based on a form of systemic functional linguistics developed for Hellenistic Greek but it is also informed by other linguistic studies It begins with a general survey of the literature that is either influential or representative of approaches to the structure of Hebrews The survey is followed by an introduction to the terminology and definitions of discourse analysis as well as the theory behind the methodology and describes a procedure for analysing text Hebrews is treated as having three sections The first section of Hebrews 1 1 4 16 demonstrates the organization of the units the topic of the units the prominent text and the relationship of the first section with the rest of the discourse The second section of Hebrews 4 11 10 25 is described in two parts 4 11 7 28 and 8 1 10 25 because of its length There is an overlap between the first and second sections in 4 11 16 and between the second and third sections in 10 19 25 Both of these passages have a concluding function for the preceding co text and a staging function for the following co text so that they look backwards and forwards The third and final section in 10 19 13 25 contains the climax or discourse peak The study is concluded with a description of the coherence of the discourse and a presentation of a mental representation of the text JSNTS and Studies in New Testament Greek subseries

Uniqueness of the Concept of Witness in Lukan Writings within the Biblical Canon Ervin Budiselić, 2024-04-30 In an age of relativism tolerance and political correctness the church is called to walk in the footsteps of Christ As his witnesses we must reject all forms of coercion and violence while simultaneously refusing to shy away from the authority and conviction that come from carrying his revelation Dr Ervin Budiselić examines the concept of witnessing in the writings of Luke contextualizing it within the larger framework of Scripture's emphasis on revelation and testimony Like Judaism Christianity is a religion of revelation where specific content must be preserved passed on and proclaimed to others Dr Budiselić explores the communal nature of this calling as well as its pneumatological implications within Luke's writings Acknowledging the tendency within the Western church to emphasize moral transformation over physical he reminds readers that Jesus's kingdom ministry was accompanied by deeds as well as words He specifically engages the dangers of normalizing a gospel disconnected from the supernatural or the miraculous as partnership with the Holy Spirit was central to the calling given to the early church This book offers a prophetic message for the church today as it seeks to fulfill its calling to faithfully witness to the revelation of Christ

Fry,1997 A Handbook on Paul's Letter to the Philippians I-Jin Loh,Eugene Albert Nida,1995 Israel, Covenant, Law Kim

Papaioannou,2017-10-27 Pauline studies are in a conundrum The Reformation perspectives championed by great men like Martin Luther and John Calvin have been challenged recently by the rise of the new perspective on Paul The main point of contention seems to be the place of biblical law in salvation While the Reformation perspectives based in part on Paul s apparent attacks on law assert that salvation is a free gift unmerited by human works the new perspective suggests the law is an integral part of the work of salvation It holds that Paul s attacks on the law were focused only on specific aspects of law the so called boundary markers This book while having points of contact with both outlooks takes a different view on Paul and the law Building on Paul s self identification as a Christian and Christian views on the covenant it endeavors to give biblical law its due place in the plan of salvation and the life of the believer The New Chosen People, Revised and Expanded Edition William W. Klein,2015-11-25 Controversy rages on about God s choosing people for salvation Are only the few elect Rather than typically beginning with the preconceptions of systematic theologies Dr William Klein takes up this question by searching for a biblical theology of election He surveys the OT contexts of God s choosing individuals prophets priests kings to serve divine purposes and considers God s election of the nation of Israel as his special people This OT study proposes that God s election is both individual and corporate but not always determinative Individuals entered the people of God by birth but not all the people found salvation Faith in Yahweh was required This book traces these elective understandings through the intertestamental literature identifying continuities and shifts The bulk of the study and the heart of the argument focus on the New Testament Klein identifies concepts of election and relationships between writers in the gospels the Lucan material Paul s writings and the rest The new covenant God choosing the church in Christ emphasizes election as corporate while the individual election of Jesus disciples and of Paul raises the question whether such chosenness is necessarily salvific In closing Klein discusses the most engaging and divisive questions around God s election and offers a real challenge to today s church A Handbook on the Book of Esther Roger Lee Omanson, Philip A. Noss, 1997 Verse by verse analysis of Esther with commentary by recognized biblical translation experts Focuses on critical words and phrases explaining accepted interpretations noting how various translations have handled passages and explaining the nuances of the Hebrew original text Feminist Companion to the Hebrew Bible in the New Testament Athalya Brenner, 1996-01-01 This volume is part of a series which provides a fundamental resource for feminist biblical scholarship containing a comprehensive selection of essays both reprinted and specially written for the series by leading feminist scholars The contributors to this volume are Lyn Bechtel Mark Bredin Athalya Brenner Edna Brocke Carole Fontaine Lillian Klein Amy Jill Levine Judith Lieu Heather McKay Adele Reinhartz Jane Schaberg Marla Selvidge Leonore Siegele Wenschkewitz Beverly Stratton Arie Troost Pieter van der Horst and Bea Wyler At-Home Seminary Rich O'Brien, 2025-07-15 My goal upon entering Moody s MABS program was then as it is now to know God better and to love Him more Before completing the program I began praying to know what God had in mind for me next While praying I realized that some if not much of the biblical knowledge I had recently gained would likely slip from my mind if I did not take steps to prevent that I was then led to compile my written assignments into a well organized anthology As I prayerfully worked on that project I realized that the finished product could well serve as a Christian discipleship or small group study That led me to prayerfully consider making the project available to everyone Now along with WestBow Press I am blessed to invite you to embark on a journey through your own At Home Seminary Happiness Randy Alcorn, 2024-06 Christians are supposed to be happy In fact we are supposed to radiate joy peace and contentment that is so unmistakable and so attractive that others are naturally drawn to us because they want what we have And yet in today s culture the vast majority of Christians are perceived as angry judgmental people who don t seem to derive any joy from life whatsoever So why aren t we happy Unfortunately many Christians are taught early on that God doesn t want us to be happy he wants us to be holy In fact many Christians are laboring under the false notion that God himself is not happy But nothing could be further from the truth God does want us to be happy The Bible is filled with verses that prove that ours is a happy joy filled God who not only loves celebrations but also desperately wants his children to be happy Why else would He go to the lengths He did to ensure our eternal happiness in His presence We know that we will experience unimaginable joy and happiness in Heaven but that doesn t mean we can t also experience joy and happiness here on earth In Happiness noted theologian Randy Alcorn dispels centuries of misconceptions about happiness and provides indisputable proof that God not only wants us to be happy He commands it The most definitive study on the subject of happiness to date this book is a paradigm shifting wake up call for the church and Christians everywhere Divine Action in Hebrews Zondervan, 2023-11-07 Recent years have seen renewed interest in divine action but much of the literature tends to focus on the science theology discussion Resulting from multi year work of the Scripture and Doctrine

Seminar part of KLC s Scripture Collective this book attends to the portrayal of divine action in one major biblical text namely Hebrews In the New Testament Hebrews is on par with Romans in terms of importance but has too often been overlooked Contributors to this volume explore the many different ways in which divine action is foregrounded and portrayed in Hebrews As its name indicates Hebrews overflows with Old Testament intertextuality which also makes it a fertile ground for analysis of divine action stretching back into the Old Testament and opening out into different parts of the NT The essays in this volume rigorously work the interface of theology and exegesis all related to Hebrews offer an overview of the current state of discussion of divine action and the importance of exploring divine action in specific biblical texts with special reference to William Abraham s recent 4 volume work with OUP provide an overview of the reception history of Hebrews in theologies of divine action explore how this has played out in historical theology and what a retrieval of Hebrews for a theology of divine action might mean today explore the relationship between the doctrine of God and divine action in Hebrews including an engagement with classical theism provocatively explore divine action in the OT creation and eschatology in Hebrews explore the major theme in Hebrews of divine action through the ongoing priesthood of Jesus as portrayed in Hebrews relate this all to preaching Hebrews today and to spiritual formation The book s conclusion reflects on the primary action of God speaking in Hebrews
