Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor's place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition's written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South's novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M. Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary's original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject

The Cambridge Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Novel and Politics Bryan M. Santin, 2023-10-12 Surveying the relationship between American politics and the twentieth century novel this volume analyzes how political movements ideas and events shaped the American novel It also shows how those political phenomena were shaped in turn by long form prose fiction The book is made up of three major sections The first section considers philosophical ideologies and broad political movements that were both politically and literarily significant in the twentieth century United States including progressive liberalism conservatism socialism and communism feminism and Black liberation movements The second section analyzes the evolving political valences of key popular genres and literary forms in the twentieth century American novel focusing on crime fiction science fiction postmodern metafiction and immigrant fiction The third section examines ten diverse politically minded novels that serve as exemplary case studies across the century Combining detailed literary analysis with innovative political theory this Companion provides a groundbreaking study of the politics of twentieth century American fiction

The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential

Discovering Voice Nancy Dean, 2013 Lessons on diction detail figurative language imagery syntax and tone help middle and early high school students understand the concept of voice in what they read and develop a strong personal voice in their own writing Each voice lesson takes only 10-20 minutes to complete and includes a quotation selected from a wide range of literature two discussion questions and an exercise that encourages students to practice what they have learned about the elements of voice Discovering Voice also offers a collection of quotations students can use to create their own voice lessons Discussion suggestions for each voice lesson and additional activities for teaching voice further promote critical analysis Each of the seven packs on the elements of voice diction detail figurative language 1 metaphors similes and personification figurative language 2 hyperboles symbols and irony imagery syntax and tone include an introduction lessons with discussion questions and an exercise write your own voice lessons a list of additional activities for teaching voice and discussion suggestions Literary Adaptations in Black American Cinema Barbara Tupa Lupack, 2002 By contrast in the works of black writers from Oscar Micheaux to Toni Morrison the black experience has been more fully more accurately and usually more sympathetically realized and from the early days of film select filmmakers have looked to that literature as the basis for their productions Black Women Novelists and the Nationalist Aesthetic Madhu Dubey, 1994 Focus on the works of Toni

 Valerie A Ubbes and B J Woodstein Healthcare in Children's Media edited by Naomi Lesley and Sarah Layzell is a collection of essays and interviews from scholars activists and practitioners grappling with crucial questions about representations of healthcare systems both formal and informal in children's media The volume focuses on systems of healthcare rather than individual narratives of illness It examines how children are socialized into knowledge about healthcare Essays explore critiques of existing systems embedded in children's literature analyze how children's books might be used for health literacy education and examine children's film and television for visions of alternative systems and solutions to ethical dilemmas Contributors in Healthcare in Children's Media draw upon interdisciplinary approaches including disability studies gender studies public health bibliotherapy and posthumanism Essays examine care systems in the US the UK Germany India and Iran and also offer a breadth of historical perspective ranging from the turn of the twentieth century through our present times and into projections of future bioethical and posthuman dilemmas This volume adds fresh works to archives of health literacy books with analytic perspectives on race and disability that medical writers might not consider Literature Suppressed on Social Grounds Dawn B. Sova, 2014-05-14 Literature Suppressed on Social Grounds Revised Edition discusses writings that have been banned over the centuries because they offended or merely ignored official truths challenged widely held assumptions or contained ideas or language unacceptable to a state religious institution or private moral watchdog The entries new to this edition include the Captain Underpants series We All Fall Down by Robert Cormier and Jake and Honeybunch Go to Heaven by Margaret Zemach Also included are updates to the censorship histories of such books as To Kill a Mockingbird and Of Mice and Men Saving Our Children from the First Amendment Kevin W. Saunders, 2003-12 Saving Our Children from the First Amendment examines both the value and cost of free expression in America demonstrating how an unregulated flow of information can be detrimental to youth While the great value of the First Amendment is found in its protection of our most important political freedoms this is far more significant for adults who can fully grasp and benefit from the freedom of expression than for children Constitutional prohibitions on distributing sexual materials to children Saunders proposes should be expanded to include violent vulgar or profane materials as well as music that contains hate speech BOOK JACKET The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L.
Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora

Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature

Like One of the Family Alice Childress, 2017-01-24 Recommended by Entertainment Weekly The hilarious uncompromising novel about African American domestic workers from a trailblazer in Black women's literature and now featuring a foreword by Roxane Gay First published in Paul Robeson's newspaper Freedom and composed of a series of conversations between Mildred a black domestic and her friend Marge Like One of the Family is a wry incisive portrait of working women in Harlem in the 1950s Rippling with satire and humor Mildred's outspoken accounts vividly capture her white employers complacency and condescension and their startled reactions to a maid who speaks her mind and refuses to exchange dignity for pay Upon publication the book sparked a critique of working conditions laying the groundwork for the contemporary domestic worker movement Although she was critically praised Childress's uncompromising politics and unflinching depictions of racism classism and sexism relegated her to the fringe of American literature Like One of the Family has been long overlooked but this new edition featuring a foreword by best selling author Roxane Gay will introduce Childress to a new generation

The World Is Round Nikky Finney, 2012-07-31 The World Is Round Nikky Finney's third volume of poetry collects the wisps of memory we carry with us throughout our earthly lives and weaves them into deft and nuanced poems that emphasize understanding the cycles of life The settings offer a view into the kaleidoscope of human experience the sweetness and shock of family life the omnipresent wash of memory and the ebullience of warm Southern air The World Is Round carries with it an implicit challenge to the author as a poet and to the reader as a fellow human to see the characters and details and events of our lives with clarity fearlessness and love The result is poems that range the gamut of human reach and resilience fury and frailty The poet's vision of community requires understanding and tolerance from every breathing soul Finney illuminates the cruelties of the sometimes gawking narrow minded world and makes a plea for compassion inspired by our common humanity
