camaraderie and emotional honesty To elucidate this challenge to traditional frontiersman masculinity Aaron George presents three intellectual biographies of important veterans who became writers after the war James Jones the writer of the monumentally important war novel From Here to Eternity Stewart Stern one of the most important screenwriters of the fifties and sixties including for Rebel without a Cause and Edward Field a bohemian poet who used poetry to explore his love for other men Through their lives George shows how wartime disabused men of the notion that war was inherently a brave or heroic enterprise and how the alienation they felt upon their return led them to value the authentic connections they made with other men during the war The Thinking Girl's Guide to the Right Guy Joanne Davila, Kaycee Lashman, 2016-02-08 Why can t I get a guy to like me Should I hook up with him How can I make this relationship work While young women today are more savvy and independent than ever most still want a partner someone to share a romance with or maybe even a lifetime But all too often their relationships crash and burn This empowering guide shows women how to shift focus so instead of trying to be what he wants they can figure out what they need to be happy and fulfilled and whether he has what it takes Vivid realistic stories of diverse women in their 20s are interwoven with evidence based tools designed to help readers build confidence and achieve their goals An exciting caring and respectful relationship is possible here s how to take control and make it happen New York Magazine ,1997-11-24 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea West of the Equator Cheryl Bartlam DuBois, 2005-04 West Of The Equator is a satirical account of one man's spiritual journey as told by his spirit quide Ian a well seasoned West Indian merchant sailor who narrates the story of a Chicago stock trader who goes to the West Indies and buys a 75 catamaran to set out in search of Paradise Instead he finds a female captain who turns out to be the love of his life chaos mayhem and eventually true happiness but only after he faces unbelievable trials and is stripped of everything he owns along the journey In this humbled state he discovers that he is in fact the island his life the vessel and that everything he d every truly needed had been aboard all along It is a very funny satirical look at life in Paradise and the Zen of sailing The Wars in Your Relationships zack stojkovic, 2009 The Mirror Margaret Safo (Mrs.),2006-11-25 City Of Sisterly And Brotherly Loves Marc Stein, 2004 Describes that Philadelphians were leaders in the national gay and lesbian movement and suggests that New York and San Francisco have for too long obscured the contributions of other cities to gay culture This book brings to life the neighborhood bars and clubs where people gathered and the political issues that rallied the community Children's Children Janet LaPlante, 2015-05-29 My Children s Children is a collection of Janet LaPlante s personal stories that tell how we grow in our spirituality through our relationships and experiences how other people reflect God's love back to us
