places in the United States provide the goldmine of diversity found in South Florida and what better place to look at race relations past and present from a variety of cultural perspectives The Race and Change Project has produced an impressive oral history archive housed at the African American Research Library and Cultural Center in Fort Lauderdale which features over 100 interviews with Blacks Whites and immigrants all talking about their race relations experiences before and after the Civil Rights Act of 1964 A multi ethnic group of students at Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton Florida most not even born then were challenged to confront these historical accounts and explore their own generational experiences around race in thoughtful candid creative ways The result is this collection Multicultural Reflections on Race and Change It features 22 writers who blend their personal stories with the voices of archival oral histories weaving a rich tapestry of memories into a dialogue on differences that is sure to spark more discussion If you ve ever wondered how to make history relevant how to make it a living thing for younger people or how to talk about race in new ways then Multicultural Reflections on Race and
