Evolving Maritime Balance Of Power In The Asia-Pacific, The: Maritime Doctrines And Nuclear Weapons At Sea Lawrence Prabhakar, Joshua Ho, Sam Bateman, 2006-08-22 The Asia Pacific region has emerged as the hub of global geo political geo economic and geo strategic significance in the post Cold War period The rise of China and the resurgence of India will be the hallmark for the next 50 years How this surge in power is accommodated by the incumbent powers like the United States and Japan and how the new regional powers like China and India manage the power politics that emerge will be the key determinants of regional stability This volume examines the national maritime doctrines as well as the nuclear weapons developments at sea of the four major powers in the Asia Pacific namely China India Japan and the United States to see if the evolving dynamic is a cooperative or a competitive one In particular the volume looks at the evolving paradigms of maritime transformation in strategy and technology the emergent new maritime doctrines and evolving force postures in the naval orders of battle the role and operations of nuclear navies in the Asia Pacific and the implications and impact of nuclear weapons ballistic missiles and sea based missile defence responses in the region

Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment 2022 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2022-06-10 The Asia Pacific Regional Security Assessment examines key regional security issues relevant to the policy focused discussions of the IISS Shangri La Dialogue Asia's premier defence summit convened by the International Institute for Strategic Studies. It is published each year in association with the Dialogue and the issues analysed within its covers are central to discussions at the event. Among the topics explored are US Indo Pacific strategy alliances and security partnerships, Chinese perspectives on regional security, Taiwan's security and the possibility of conflict, the continuing challenges posed by North Korea's nuclear and missile programmes, the nuclear dynamics of Sino American security relations, air and naval operations in the Asia Pacific, Sino American technology competition, Japan's competition and cooperation with China, India's role in the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue, Quad, the evolving regional security engagement of European states and the European Union, China's role as an upstream state in the Mekong sub region and the climate crisis and Asia Pacific security. As this volume goes to press, the war in Ukraine overshadows the international security landscape and many chapters in this volume touch on the conflict's ramifications for security in the Asia Pacific. Authors include leading regional analysts and academics at the forefront of research and analysis: Aidan Foster Carter, James Crabtree, Peter A Dutton, Brian Eyler, Michael Green, Sheryn Lee, Jeffrey G Lewis, Tanvi Madan, Jeffrey Mazo, Ben Schreer, Yun Sun, Nicholas Szechenyi, Brendan Taylor, Ashley Townshend and Paul Triolo.

Assessing China's Naval Power Sarah Kirchberger, 2015-06-23. This book analyzes the rise of China's naval power and its possible strategic consequences from a wide variety of perspectives: technological, economic and geostrategic, while employing a historical comparative approach throughout. Since naval development requires huge financial resources and mostly takes place within the context of transnational industrial partnerships, this study also consciously adopts an industry perspective. The systemic problems involved in warship production and the associated material, financial, technological and political requirements currently remain overlooked aspects in the case of China. Drawing on first hand working experience in the naval shipbuilding industry, the author provides transparent criteria for the evaluation of different naval technologies, strategic value, which other researchers can draw upon as a basis for further research in such diverse fields as International Security Studies, Naval Warfare Studies, Chinese Studies and International Relations. The United States Navy's Pivot to Asia Bruce A. Elleman, 2023-06-30. This book examines the origins of the US Navy's 2007 Maritime Strategy, the formation of the US government's Pivot to Asia strategy and the most recent revisions to this strategy that focus more specifically on China. Besides examining the details of this strategy formulation, the book explores the internal and external repercussions on the US Navy of the Pivot to Asia. It discusses the Fat Leonard scandal, which involved bribery and corruption in contracts for the maintenance of the US fleets in the region, and considers the sharp decrease in training and readiness of the Pacific fleet to support the pivot, which in turn led to serious maritime collisions. It also assesses the impact of the pivot on other countries in the region, engaging in the debate as to whether the pivot was necessary in order to convince the countries of the region that the United States had not lost its staying power or whether the pivot managed to make tensions in the Asia Pacific worse.

even while allowing the strategic situation in the Middle East and Europe to worsen as a result of neglect Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment 2017 Tim Huxley, William Choong, 2023-05-31 This book offers an analysis of the four central regional security themes relevant to the policy focussed discussions at the annual IISS Shangri La Dialogue Namely The evolving roles of the United States and China in Asia Pacific security Responses by the US and regional states to regional security tensions particularly in the South China Sea Emerging security questions relating to nuclear weapons missiles and military cyber capabilities The prospects for regional security cooperation including the challenges for the ASEAN centred architecture Chinese-Japanese Competition and the East Asian Security Complex Jeffrey Reeves, Jeffrey

Hornung, Kerry Lynn Nankivell, 2017-07-14 This edited volume examines contemporary diplomatic economic and security competition between China and Japan in the Asia Pacific region focusing on their respective foreign policies under President Xi Jinping and Prime Minister Shinz Abe and regional security dynamics within and between Asian states institutions

India in the Indo-Pacific Aditi Malhotra, 2022-06-13 In view of the fast changing world order emerging countries are increasingly influencing the dynamics of regional securities This timely and in depth book examines India s reorienting strategic posture and describes how New Delhi s security policy in the Indo Pacific region has evolved and expanded over the past two decades The author argues that India s quest to leverage its geostrategic location to emerge as an Indo Pacific actor faces multiple challenges which create a clear divide between the country s political rhetoric and action on the ground The author critically examines these contradictions to better situate India s security role in an increasingly fluid Indo Pacific region Seapower and Projection Forces Capabilities to Support the Asia-Pacific Rebalance United States. Congress.

House. Committee on Armed Services. Subcommittee on Seapower and Projection Forces, 2014 The U.S Rebalance and the Asia-Pacific Region Centre for Public Policy Research, Centre for Strategic Studies, Given the strategic emergence of the Asia Pacific region there has been a significant rethinking on the need to develop and strengthen relationships within the region and also with the United States Therefore its becomes important to analyze how the regional powers will position themselves vis a vis the United States and how they would respond to the rebalancing initiative CPPR Centre for Strategic Studies provided a platform for prominent strategists think tank analysts leading experts and academicians to discuss debate and map the future US role in the Asia Pacific in its 2 day international conference on U S Rebalance and the Asia Pacific region

India's Foreign Policy and Economic Challenges Silvio Beretta, Axel Berkofsky, Giuseppe Iannini, 2023-02-13 This book provides a state of the art analysis of India s foreign and security policies examining e g the country s security economic and trade ties and interactions with Pakistan China the United States Japan the Middle East and ASEAN Furthermore the contributors provide the reader with an overview and analysis of the quality and challenges of India s regional and global trade and investment policies While in the past India has been a reluctant and not particularly prominent foreign and security policy actor in East and Southeast Asia as well as globally China s resurgence and its assertive and increasingly aggressive regional security policies have led India's policymakers to reconsider the country's decades old non alignment policies and opt for expanding security and defence ties with the United States Japan and others The Indian Chinese border clashes in 2020 and China's unlawful occupation of disputed territories along the Indian Chinese border in the Himalayas have convinced Delhi's policymakers and the country's security and defence elites that India is well advised to join and contribute to US led China containment policies The expansion of India's security and defence ties with Japan over recent years in particular will continue to be instrumental to keeping Beijing's territorial expansionism in Southeast and South Asia in check This volume analyses India's involvement and engagement in regional and global trade and investment structures and flows in great detail Written by a team of prolific European and Indian scholars the book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of international relations and security studies as well as policymakers at governmental or international organizations
