Turfloop a Conscious Pariah Kanyane Chris Kanyane, Chris Kanyane, 2010 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turfloop brought in the Age of Barack Obama. What is the Age of Barack Obama? To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel, a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands, 'The University of the North' also known as Turfloop played a vital role as the center of communication, coordination, ideological direction, the engine of bringing the new South Africa. We approached this book like detectives. Fortunately, in our detective work, we were not concerned with a particular agenda; we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong. We didn't want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases. We wanted this book to be juicy and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world. We have to back up our story with facts, of course, and get other people to do practical analysis, and later we added our own perspectives. When we completed writing this book, we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe. Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow, which came as a compliment. A lot of people are somewhere in between. We want this book to embody that because there are many people there, we want them to appreciate this book.

Education, Race, and Social Change in South Africa John A. Marcum, 2023-04-28 Education, Race and Social Change in South Africa examines the deep rooted issues of higher education in South Africa, highlighting the complex interplay between race, politics and access to education. Beginning with the colonial foundations of South African higher education in the early 19th century, it traces the development of institutions such as the University of Cape Town and the University of Fort Hare, reflecting the segregated nature of the education system. As the country transitioned to a republic in the 20th century, the policies of apartheid shaped the university landscape, leading to the creation of separate institutions for various racial groups. The book explores how these divisions have persisted, particularly in the context of racial inequalities in enrollment and access to quality education, with black students historically underrepresented in South Africa's leading universities. The study also delves into the evolving nature of South African higher education in the face of racial segregation, examining the impact of political shifts on the educational landscape. With the rise of the National Party in 1948 and the implementation of strict segregation policies, the book explores the creation of ethnic universities for non-white students and the ongoing challenges faced by these institutions in providing quality education. The book raises critical questions about the future of education in South Africa.

focusing on the need for reform to bridge the educational divide address teacher shortages and promote greater racial integration within universities It also considers the role of international collaboration and aid in fostering educational opportunities for black South Africans and suggests possible pathways for achieving equitable educational access This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982 South African Scope ,1961 The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser,2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future Commercial Bulletin of South Africa ,1968 Struggle for a Free South Africa Derek Charles Catsam,2024-02-15 This book explores anti apartheid movements on university and college campuses across Africa and the United States in the 1970s and 1980s In the wake of the March 1960 Sharpeville Massacre in South Africa the country s apartheid policies drew increasing critical international attention By the 1970s South Africa found itself isolated due to growing sporting economic and cultural boycotts Africans across the continent showed solidarity with Black South Africans through a range of boycotts and protests by hosting South Africans exiled from their home country and by vilifying the apartheid government at every turn This volume looks at elite institutions as well as state colleges and universities in the United States and the actions of university students in Nigeria Kenya Ghana and South Africa during the anti apartheid movements in the 1970s and 1980s revealing the local manifestations of a global struggle The chapters showcase how vibrant campus anti apartheid movements were what universal problems emerged and where unique concerns manifested at a wide range of institutions Taking innovative approaches and offering case studies Struggle for a Free South Africa reveals the myriad ways the anti apartheid struggle manifested in a range of academic environments and how those campaigns have been remembered and documented This book was originally published as a special issue of Safundi African Students and Study Programs in the United States United States.
