Three Essays Albrecht Ritschl,2005-01-25 What accounts for Albrecht Ritschl s profound effect on modern theology Philip Hefner proposed that he so energetically brought together in his work the elements of his generation that all theology now stands on his shoulders Many theologians have attacked Ritschl s ideas others vigorously defend him but all must confront him The essays presented here will enable students and scholars to experience the force of Ritschl s writing for themselves Ritschl was born in 1822 into the intellectual social and ecclesiastical elite of Berlin After finishing his studies at the University of Tuebingen he taught at Bonn for eighteen years and at Goettingen for twenty five Hefner shows that Ritschl spoke a word to his own age that was so appropriate and so in resonance with his contemporaries in Germany that despite its weaknesses it became the dominant theology of his generation Ritschl s impact can be traced to three major factors forceful statement of Christian faith positive link to tradition and scientific method He exhibited a remarkable combination of scholarly integrity and devotion to the Christian life as seen in his ten year study of pietism a movement he opposed His theology also contributed to much that followed including historical critical studies and dialectical theology These essays offer a balanced sample of Ritschl s thinking In the Prolegomena to The History of Pietism he establishes his method of studying different confessions on the basis of Christian lifestyle Theology and Metaphysics offers his celebrated rejection of metaphysics in favor of a christocentric approach Instruction in the Christian Religion the writing that won for Ritschl his popularity among students sets forth his specific doctrinal beliefs Today s students will discover that Ritschl is both an intriguing historical figure and a thinker worth grappling with These essays along with Philip Hefner s extensive introduction provide needed material for a reevaluation of Ritschl and of nineteenth century theology
